South senior runners prepare for final kicks

By Vince Viecek
Doings Staff Writer

Cross country preview

Last year's graduation ceremony was a happy one for Hinsdale South girls' cross country coach Mike Madsen. He didn't have to say farewell to any of his top runners. And what runners they are.

Seniors Rana Kreterfield, Heather Lingane, Sue Saxinger and Amy Van Allen return and hope to add to their accomplishments.

Kreterfield was an all-conference selection last year and also qualified for sectionals. She will serve as the team co-captain.

Also garnering all-conference honors last year was Lingane.

Saxinger and Van Allen are three-year letter winners. Saxinger, who will serve as co-captain this year, qualified for last year's state meet in the 3,200-meter relay.

Leigh Krietsch was the third Hornet who received all-conference cross country recognition last year. The junior also excelled in track, capturing the conference title in the 3,200-meter run. She also qualified for the state meet in the 3,200-meter relay.

"We have quite a group that ran well for us last year," Madsen said.

The group not only will be trying to improve its individual performances, but also the Hornets' final record.

In the West Suburban Conference Gold Division last year, South (4-2 in dual meets) placed third behind Downers Grove South (6-0) and Willowbrook (5-1). The Hornets will be seeking their first title, but Madsen admits dethroning Downers Grove South will be tough because the Mustangs also have talented runners returning. Downers Grove South has won three consecutive conference titles.

Madsen, who is entering his 11th season as head coach, will be guiding his largest team, which consists of four seniors and six juniors. Two sophomores could be moved up to the varsity level.

Team members who could play a role in South's season are Louise Nekola, Amy Spencer, Sarah Luetkemeyer, Michele Morgia, Kim Zorn, Glynda Davidson and Carrie Buenger.

The Hornets will open their season at the Hornet/Red Devil Invitational at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 7, at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale.

Running war in Downers Grove

North and South should be powers come state

By Dan Chamness

The more things change, the more they stay the same.

One thing that hasn't changed is the condition of the girls' cross-country teams in The Suburban LIFE Graphic area.

Downers North

Downers Grove North, seventh at the state meet last year, returns five of its top runners, including Erika Chesney.

The senior was 10th at the Class AA meet a year ago.

Also back are Beth Bayser and Maggie Sadrakula, 30th and 70th, respectively, at state last year.

Laura Ziech and Tosha Byrd also are expected to contribute.

While the Trojans should have a good chance at matching or surpassing last year's finish, Downers North coach Bruce Ritter is cautious.

"There are so many good squads that we will have our hands full," Ritter said.

Downers South

One of those teams is Downers Grove South, which finished sixth at state last year.

The Mustangs, who won their eight straight West Suburban Conference Gold Division title, return Melinda Wagner, Myrna Cantu, Julie Klinkenberg, Jenny Ivanovich, Megan Framarin and Jenny Rehak.

Klinkenberg, 36th at state last year, also was the conference champion.

Downers South's strength is running in a pack, as Wagner was 33rd and Cantu 35th at state last year.

"We would like to make a return trip downstate," Downers South coach Bruce Thornquist said. "And we would like to win our ninth conference title."

Hinsdale Central

Five runners are back for Hinsdale Central, including senior Traci Helphrey and junior Julia Vercillo, 12th at last year's conference meet.

The pair will be joined by the sophomore trio of Colleen Haviland, Kelly Bottger and Sandra Sutor.

"We would like to make it downstate," Hinsdale Central coach Gail Yates said. "Our young runners show a lot of promise, and they are fired up about the season."

Hinsdale South

Three-year letterwinners Sue Saxinger and Amy Van Allen are back for Hinsdale South.

Girls Cross Country

In addition, the Hornets also will have all-conference runners Rana Kreterfield and Heather Lingane on hand.

Juniors Leigh Krietsch and Louise Nekola; and sophomore Glynda Davidson also should help.

Benet

Benet also is loaded with returnees, headed by seniors are

Mary Ann Corbett, Kathy Kaiser, Megin Quinn, Susanne Ahmari and Kelly Custar.

They are joined by junior Abby Johnson and sophomore Erin Berley.

Westmont

On the Class A scene, Westmont has five new runners joining forces with letter winner Julie Arseneau, who placed second at last year's Northeast Conference meet.

Lisle

Lisle will field a full team for the first time in six years, according to coach Ken Jakalski.

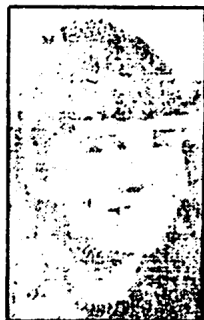

Leslie Hanson, a junior, is the captain.

Montini

Juniors Shannon O'Connor and Karen Franci are Montini's leaders.

O'Connor was third at last year's Suburban Catholic Conference meet.

"The runners I have are all hard workers, and they have a good attitude," Montini coach Don Enright said.

Leigh Krietsch's 13:27 was five seconds off her personal best time at Katherine Legge Park during last week's Red Devil-Hornet Invitational.

The Hornets, who are at the Reavis Invitational today in Burbank, finished eighth of 10 teams with 204 points.

"We did not run very well," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "But most of the new kids did well."

Hornet harriers run to win the division opener

The Hinsdale South girls' cross country team and its top runner, Leigh Krietsch, got their West Suburban Conference Gold Division season off on the right foot Monday, with a 23-34 victory over Morton at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale.

Krietsch, a junior, captured her first career win by running the 2-mile course in a personal-best 13 minutes 12 seconds.

"She's just really beginning to come into her own," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "She came on strong in track last year, and she's continuing that in cross country. She really went after the win today."

Krietsch was followed by teammates Rana Kreterfield (third, 14:29), Carlie Buenger (fourth, 14:38), Sarah Luetkemeyer (seventh, 15:04), Louise Nekola (eighth, 15:16), Sue Saxinger (ninth, 15:21) and Lori Lazansky (13th, 15:48).

"We were very pleased to get off to a good start (in the conference)," Madsen said. "It seems, in recent years, that we've been in the top three in the conference. We're hoping to be up there again, and this is one of the key meets (to get there)."

South cross country

The Hornets finished seventh at the 18-team Reavis Invitational Saturday with 223 points, edging eighth-place Reavis (228), which had nipped Hinsdale South a week earlier at the Hornet-Red Devils Invitational.

Krietsch turned in the Hornets' top finish, taking seventh in 14:42 on the 2.25-mile course. She was followed by Buenger (43rd, 15:58), Saxinger (52nd, 16:14), Kreterfield (53rd, 16:16), Nekola (58th, 16:27), Luetkemeyer (59th, 16:28) and Glynda Davidson (65th, 16:46).

Eight-year run drought ends as Hinsdale South places second at Bloom

By Vince Veceli

South cross country

Hinsdale South girls' cross-country coach Mike Madsen called it a 'good day' after his team placed second at the Bloom Invite Saturday in Chicago Heights.

But the Hornets' finish also could be described as forthcoming, because the team earned its highest finish since Hinsdale South won the Reavis Invite in 1983.

Junior Leigh Krietsch paced the Hornets by finishing the 2-mile course in 13 minutes 10 seconds. She stayed with the top runners throughout the race and at one point led the pack.

However, it was the strong finishes by Hinsdale South's other runners that keyed the accomplishment. Senior Heather Lingane (21st, 14:36), sophomore Carlie Buenger (23rd, 14:43), senior Sue Saxinger (24th, 14:44) and junior Louise Nekola (30th, 14:49) finished within 13 seconds of one another and placed among the top 30 runners in the race.

Also running for the Hornets were junior Sarah Luetkemeyer (36th, 15:12) and senior Rana Kreterfield (38th, 15:15).

Carl Sandburg won the invite (56) while Andrew took third (113).

With parents present for Parents Day last Monday, Hinsdale South beat Leyden 15-50 and Proviso East 15-50 at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale.

Krietsch again led the Hornets, finishing the 2-mile race in 13:14. Saxinger (14:27) took third, while Kreterfield (14:45), Luetkemeyer (14:45), Nekola (14:56), Glynda Davidson (15:07) and Lori Lazansky (15:08) finished fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth, respectively.

Buenger and Lingane missed the meet because of illnesses.

The Hornets (3-0) will compete in the Grant/Crystal Lake Invite at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 28.

Hinsdale South

The Hornets' runner-up finish at the Bloom Invitational marked the Hornets' best finish at a meet in eight years.

Leigh Krietsch, a junior, paced the Hornets with a 13:10 and a fifth-place finish over the two mile course.

"We ran very well," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "This is the highest we have finished in an invitational in eight years."

What a finish for Hornets at finale

They went out in style.

Competing in their regular season finale, three members of the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team turned in personal-best times as the Hornets split a West Suburban Conference Gold Division double dual meet Monday at Lombard Commons Park in Lombard.

The Hornets nipped Addison Trail 23-26 but lost to Downers Grove South 18-45.

Junior Leigh Krietsch finished the 1.97-mile course in a personal-best time of 12 minutes 13 seconds. She

Three is where Hornets should be

South cross country

High threes are in order for the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team, which stayed in stride and then some at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division meet Saturday at O'Brien Park in Downers Grove.

The Hornets began the meet ranked third in the conference standings and ended its regular season in third after finishing third in the conference meet. Wait, there's more. Since Hinsdale South's girls' cross country program began in 1979, the Hornets have never finished lower than third in the conference standings.

So, is this a coincidence or a well-crafted plan?

"That's a good question," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "It seems like we've always had decent talent, but never enough to win it all."

Madsen was especially pleased with the Hornets' performance, considering two of his runners missed the 2.1-mile race and a third, Colleen Banger, ran with a groin pull. Banger took 24:00 overall, crossing the finish line in 11 minutes 5 seconds.

Leigh Krietsch turned in Hinsdale South's fastest time (13:42, sixth place). She also earned her second straight all-conference award. Completing the Hornets' top-five list were: Sue Saxinger (14:39, 18th), Rana Kreterfield (14:45, 21st); and Sarah Luetkemeyer (15:09, 25th).

The Hornets will compete in the Lyons Township regional at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 26, in Western Springs.

ADVANCES ARE: When the Hinsdale South girls' cross county team competes in the Lyons Township regional tomorrow, Saturday, Oct. 26, in Western Springs, the Homets will try to advance to a sectional meet for the first time since 1982.

According to Homet coach Mike Madsen, who already has scouted his opponents, Hinsdale South has a good chance of being one of the five teams that advance.

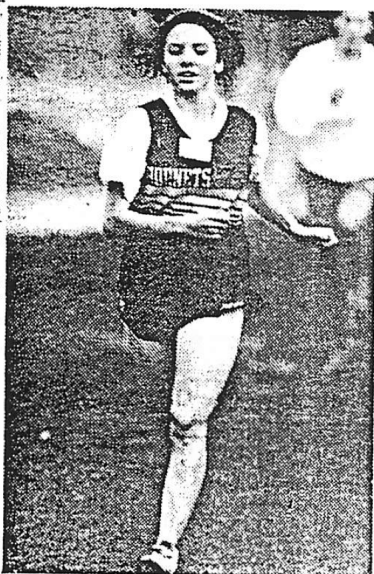

Also hoping to qualify for the York Sectional are: Proviso West, Hinsdale Central, Lyons Township, Nazareth Academy, Proviso East, Oak Park and Riverside Brookfield. Yet the field is somewhat smaller than it appears, considering that at their respective conference meets last week, Proviso West had just one runner race (42nd place) and Proviso East didn't score.

Hornets to make long-awaited sectional trip

For the first time since 1982, the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team advanced to a sectional meet. The Hornets ended the dry spell by winning fourth place at the Lyons Township regional meet Saturday in Western Springs.

"The girls were happy, but not too much," said Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen of the bus trip back to Darien. "I think they were more happy to get it over with, considering the (wet and muddy) conditions."

The Hornets actually tied Riverside-Brookfield for fourth place (122 points each), but Hinsdale South slipped ahead of the Bulldogs based on the finish of each team's sixth runner. The Hornets' sixth runner, Sue Saxinger, won 36th place with a time of 16 minutes 22 seconds. The Bulldogs' sixth runner took 41st place (17:10).

"We cut it a little close. A little closer than I anticipated," said Madsen, who expected to finish fourth. He also said that he expected to be challenged by Nazareth Academy of LaGrange Park and not Riverside-Brookfield. Nazareth finished sixth and didn't advance.

Making her way through the slop to earn top honors for the Hornets was junior Leigh Krietsch. Her sixth-place time on the 2.25-mile course was 14 minutes 14 seconds.

"I wanted fifth, so I was pretty happy with how I ran," said Krietsch, who blamed the rain for saturating her shoes and making them heavier.

Also contributing to Hinsdale South's point total were senior Heather Lingane (15:35, 24th), sophomore Glynda Davidson (16:01, 28th), senior Rana Kreterfield (16:18, 33rd) and freshman Lori Lazansky (16:20, 35th).

Because the Hornets placed among the top five teams at the regional meet, they earned the right to race in the York Sectional meet, to be held at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 2, at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale. Hinsdale South, which claimed third at its conference meet, is the only girls' cross country team from the West Suburban Gold Division to make the jump to a sectional meet.

Also advancing out of the LT regional were first-place Hinsdale Central, second-place Lyons Township, third-place Oak Park and fifth-place Riverside-Brookfield.

Of all the girls who raced for the Hornets at the regional meet, only Kreterfield has sectional experience.

We survived the Crystal Lake course.

Hey - who put ice cubes in my shorts?

Are plaid shorts legal this year?

What makes you think I'm going to take off this

After 4 years I can even do this with my eyes closed!

I really think they should make a
1 mile race for freshmen.

Did any of you guys find the rest of my right leg?

Michele - why are you chewing on my arm?

I think we should have eaten that box of brownies after the race.

I can't wait to see their faces when they try to finish and find out that all the flags are gone.

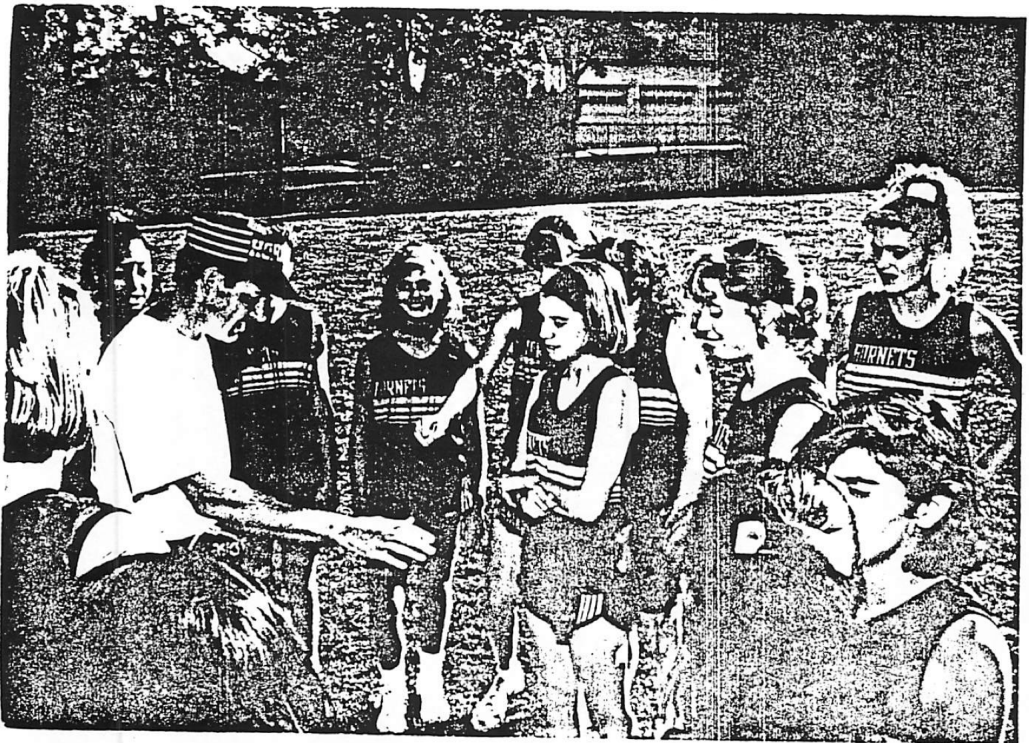

A picnic sounds great, but do we really have to wear that silly thing on Sarah's head?

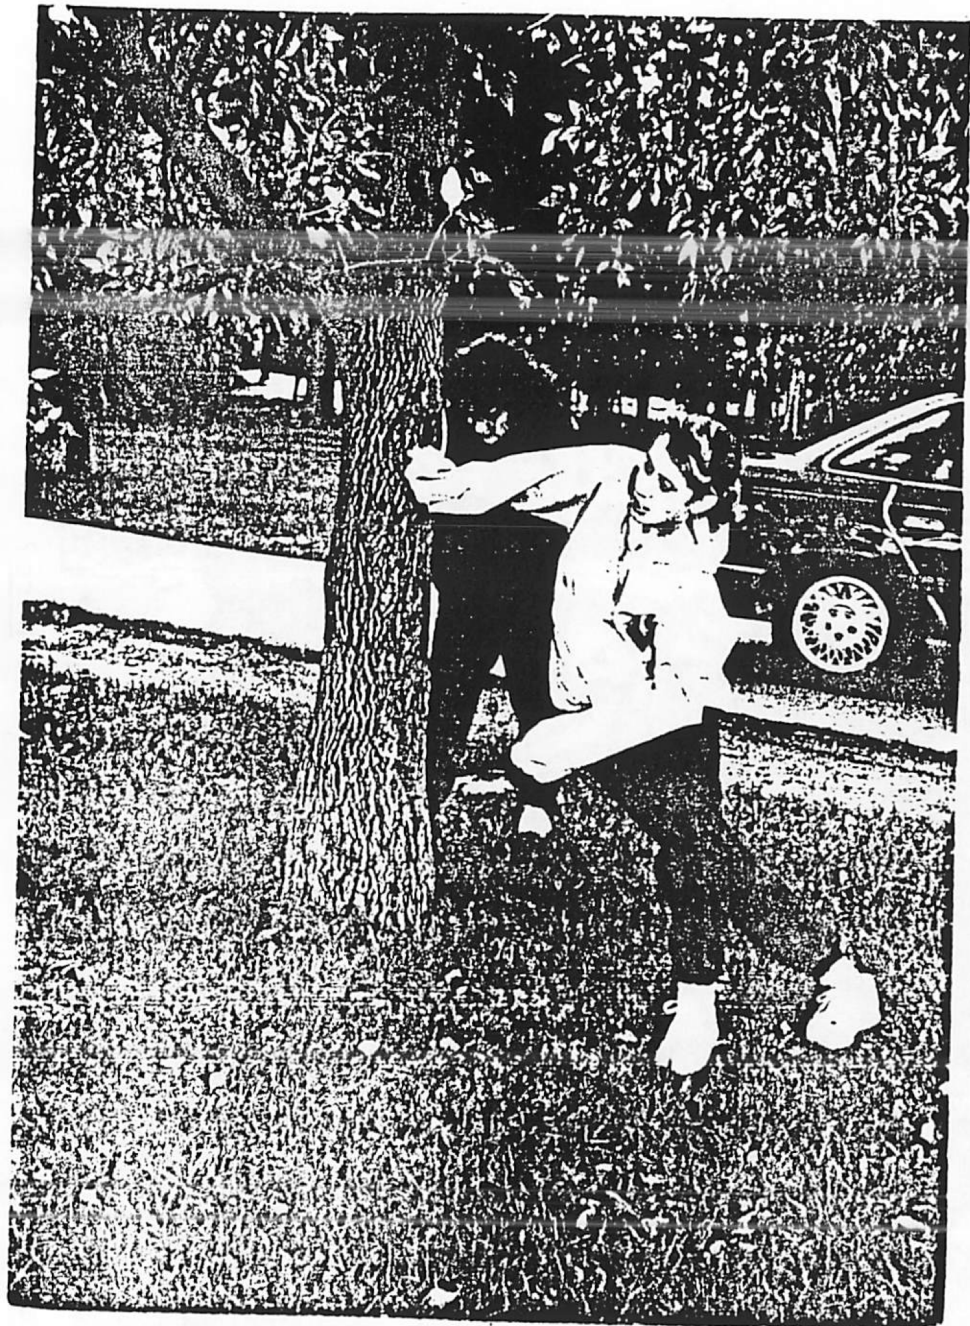

Nervous before a race? Definitely not this crew!

Is that an alien above Michele or did she just get a really bright idea

Can you believe a dog would do that here?

I'm stuck. Can somebody untwist me?

Smile - you're on Candid Camera!

Are you sure you girls know what you are doing?

I wonder if I could get a job working on one of those highway construction crews?

Did we win?

Oh great - right in the eye! I think we could use some new water bottles Mr. Madsen
