Naperville North goes shopping for a repeat

By Gary Reinmuth TRIBUNE STAFF WRITER

To the prevent defense, full-court press and pulled-in infield, it's time to add a sports strategy for the '90s:

The shopping spree.

The Naperville North girls cross-country team proved how deep its talent ran last fall when it won the Class AA state title, ending Palatine's reign of championships at four straight. That the Pirates' score of 66 was the lowest by a second-place leam in the history of the state meet was a testament to how well the Huskies had to run to score 78 and beat them. But Naperville North also proved something to itself.

To see Kristen Devaney and Kim Malmquist, giddy with delight, jumping up and down last Nov. 6 shouting "We didn't bomb! We didn't bomb!" was to ask why 1993 was so different than 1991 when Kristin Grunt, then a sophomore, ran poorly because of an upper respiratory infection and the Huskies were a disappointing fourth; and so different than 1992, when an ailing Malmquist slipped to 63rd individually, after taking fifth the year before, and Naperville came in sixth.

"Part of it was we were a little more relaxed going into last year's state meet," says North coach Marty Bee. "The Friday night before, we had no team meeting. The kids went shopping. We didn't talk about the meet till Saturday morning. Two years in a row we'd gone there with lofty expectations and not done as well as we'd, hoped, and the pressure kept building until we just said, 'Hey, this is crazy.' "

As the 1994 season dawns, what would be crazy is to not pick Naperville North to repeat. With 1993 individual runner-up Devaney, Malmquist (13th) and Liz Mazur (36th), all seniors, and sophomore Jenny Wallrab (12th) among six runners who are back from the championship team, the Huskies will be favored to squeeze out Palatine once again.

Bee's job this year is to try to find an antidote for the rising tide of expectations that shadow a defending state champion. If the Huskies thought they had to tune out the pressure last year...

Bee's cool-headed strategy: Sail that Sea of Serenity again.

"At the start of the season, it's been nice to relive all those memories," says Bee. "But last year was last year. I told the kids they didn't have to put in mega-miles this summer just because they were the defending state champions. We have to be careful not to overtrain. I told them they don't take last year's trophy away if we don't win it a second time."

Even as the Huskies try to remain unflappable, however, Palatine will trying hard to make a flap.

"Naperville looks pretty strong; they have more seniors than anybody," says Palatine coach Steve Currins. "I wonder if we have the firepower. Our kids have to start picturing themselves capable of winning that meet and Naperville has to slip a bit. But we're planning to make Naperville battle for it."

Palatine's bid will be led by three returning juniors—Jenny Monaco (31st), Carolyn Currins (57th) and Kristi Eigenbrode (225th)—whose 1993 finishes are misleading. Eigenbrode is a much better runner than she showed last year in Peoria. She was 26th with 600 yards to go at Detweiller Park before collapsing. Her return to form is crucial to Palatine success. Currins, fourth in '92, also had a tough meet last fall.

Watch out also for York, which returns five of its top seven runners, including senior Danielle Fonzino, the USTFA 17-year-old national champion in the 1,500 and defending state 800meter champ, from a team that took sixth last year with just a nine-second split between its No. 1 and No. 7 runners.

"Normally when you do that," says York coach Larry Bassett, "that's good enough to run. But our pack just wasn't quite high enough."

Benet, Wheeling and Glenbard North will also be in the running for a trophy.

The individual chase should be as entertaining as always, with 18 of last year's top 25 runners returning. Leading contenders include: defending champion Jenelle Deatherage of East Peoria; Devaney; Fonzino; Decatur MacArthur's Liz Kampe (third in '93); Mt. Assist's Cassidy Wall, the defending 1,600-meter state champion; Hersey's Jenny Zehr, the 3,200 state champion; Tinley Park's Johanna Kelly and Downers Grove North's Brigitte Buitron.

Top girls cross-country teams

■ Benet—Redwings didn't make it Downstate as a team last year but coach Scott Brooks says 'I think top 5 in the state is within our grasp absolutely. Junior Audrey Seguy (16th at state in cross-country) and senior Bridget Olp, who transferred in from Maryland last winter and was one of the top milers and two-milers in the state last spring until the state series, are both bidding to become Benet's No. 1 runner. Sophomore Sarah McCuitlough, who qualified for state last spring in the mile, and sophomore Katle Brininger give Redwings a talented top four.

■ Glenbard North—Coach Bud Swanson won't have Lara Esko, who took eighth last year at state, but he will have his Nos. 2-4 nunners, and that should be good enough to get Panthers into the hunt for third place again. Sophomore Bry Houdek (35th) and jumiors Jacki Hanton (42nd) and Nicole Nemecek (48th) will be joined by junior Camie Cesario, who finished a non-scoring 93rd last year.

■ Naperville North—With four returning seniors, defending state champs have the maturity other teams tack. In girts cross-country, though, where treshmen you've never heard of often outrun their older competition, that's not atways a plus. Huskies' top four of seniors Kristen Devaney, Kim Maimquist and Liz Mazur and sophomore Jenny Walirab is solid. Coach Marty Bee will be looking for a fifth runner from among Nikki Luckman, a junior, and Kristin Gunt, a senior, off State title team, and junior hopefuls Mary Speer and Michelle Kendrick. ■ Patatine—Pirates graduated their top three from a year ago—Claudia from senior Jenny Gribbon and sophomores jill Momil and Tara Deminie.

MYork-At York, they preach the pack law, Last fall, Duchesses had the tightest top five at the state meet. "Unfortunately, we messed up the start." said coach Larry Bassett. "We ended up walking around the first turn." But they walked together, and York came back to grab sixth. With Junior Sandra Meneses (51st), senior Danielle Fonzino (59th)---who won a U.S. Junior Olympics 17-18 crown in the 1,500 in late July-Junior Audra Dondlinger (62nd), Junior Laura Robbins (68th) and non-scoring senior Sue Langer all back from that souad to join returning junior Mona Skoog, York is darkhorse for state crown.

■ Others to watch: Wheeling, Neperville Central, Westmont, Wheaton-Warrenville South, Mother McAuley, Hoffman Estates, Lyons Township, St. Charles, Schaumburg, Prospect.

annual Hornet/Red Devil Invitational at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale. The Hornets and Red Devils will be among 14 teams competing in the seven races, which begin at 9 a.m. The varsity boys' race is at 10:15 a.m., followed by the varsity girls at 10:40 a.m. and Kula last year. Seliga was the Red Devils' No. 3 finisher at both the conference meet and regional.

Among the varsity newcomers looking good in the early going is sophomore Elizabeth Connolly, a junior varsity runner in 1993 who Avgeris said has built upon her good track season last spring. Freshmen Caroline Olson and Ellie Porterfield have also helped to keep the battle for varsity spots competitive. them and they've gotten closer. They work out on their own, which is encouraging because cross country requires that, a lot of self-discipline."

The Red Devils will once again face serious competition in the WSC Silver.

Defending champion York and Lyons Township qualified as teams for the Class AA state meet last year and Downers Grove North just missed, taking sixth at the sectional. All three teams appear, at least on paper, as strong, or stronger, this season. Among the 14-team field are 1993 Class AA state meet team qualifiers Wheaton Warrenville South (eighth place) and Naperville Central (11th). Wheaton South junior Linda Kneiss was 18th in Class AA last year.

"Our conference is one of the most competitive in the state of Illinois. It'll be a battle. It always is," Avgeris said. "I'm anxious to see how we do. I'm encouraged by how hard they've been working. They seem very serious about this mentally."

Hornets hoping to make a run at WSC Gold title

By Bill Stone Doings Sports Writer

The Hinsdale South girls' cross country team knows all about being competitive in the West Suburban Conference Gold Division race.

In the 14 seasons he has coached the team since the program began in 1979, Mike Madsen has seen his team always finish among the top three teams in conference, but never win or even share a championship.

With nine returning letterwinners, the Hornets hope to end the stranglehold of Downers Grove South, which has won or shared the overall title 11 straight seasons. Willowbrook and the Mustangs were co-champions in 1992.

"We always hope to be in the top three in conference, but we're always hoping one of these years it'll be us on top," said Madsen, whose team opens its season at the 15th annual Hornet/Red Devil Invitational Saturday, Sept. 3, at Katherine Legge Memorial Park.

"We hope we'll be better with another year of experience, but you never know. Unfortunately, a couple of other teams in the conference have a lot back and will be a pretty stiff challenge."

The Hornets have a strong base with three All-WSC Gold Division runners back, including all-stater Erika Coull-Parenty. Coull-Parenty was second at the WSC Gold Division Meet, and senior Liz Reese and junior

Rachel Folk finished fourth and 14th, respectively, to earn all-conference honors by placing among the top 15.

Coull-Parenty, the Hornets' first state qualifier since 1983, took 20th at the Class AA state meet to earn allstate status by being among the top 25 finishers. She was a state qualifier last spring in the 3,200-meter run and attended a cross country camp in Reese and senior Lisa DiCosola, among the team's No. 4-7 finishers in 1993, are co-captains. As she did in cross country and track last season, Folk is expected by Madsen to start slow and finish strong.

Also returning to the starting lineup are sophomores Katie Moss and Christy Culen, who ran in the regional after taking second in the WSC Gold junior varsity meet race to help the Hornets win the race and share the overall title with Willowbrook. Another factor in that title, junior Linda Mark, could contribute to the varsity depending on the status of her injured ankle.

Seniors Alicia Hlustik and Fatima Molina are two-year letterwinners, and senior Jen Peterson lettered in 1993. Senior Laura Schlenker is out for the first time after converting to a long-distance runner for the track team this past spring.

Another newcomer for the Hornets is assistant coach Nancy Newman, who formerly was the head cross country coach at Morton. Her sophomore girls' track team won the conference title in 1994.

"It's a veteran team. We have especially a big group of seniors," Madsen said. "That's the part that's going to be interesting, who rises to the occasion."

The more things change the more they stay the same. The above statement perfectly de-scribes the situation on the Hinsdale South girls cross-country team. Last year the duo of Erika Coull-Parenty and Liz Reese were one of the top 1-2 punches.

It is one year later, and Coull-Parenty and Reese are still one of the top 1-2 punches in the area as proved by their finish at the Hornet/Red Devil In-Vitational. Coull-Parenty and Reese placed seventh and 17th, replaced seventn and trun, re-spectively. "Liz was running injured this meet," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "She bruised her tendon and Erica finished ahead of where she was last year. We need to develop our third through seventh run-mers to improve." ners to improve.

Hornets feel good after opener

Running well on the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team is simply a state of mind.

Sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty and senior co-captain Liz Reese had their physical ailments before the Hornet/Red Devil Invitational Saturday at Katherine Legge Memorial Park, but they managed to run strong and help the Hornets finish sixth in the 10-team field with 147 points.

Coull-Parenty led the Hornets by taking seventh in 12 minutes, 49 seconds, while Reese enjoyed her best time at the meet, taking 17th (13:17). Senior Laura Schlenker, a first-year cross country runner, took 32nd (13:39), followed by Lisa DiCosola (38th, 13:54), Alicia Hlustik (55th, 14:19), Katie Moss (58th, 14:29) and Christy Culen (62nd, 14:38).

Naperville Central, 11th in Class AA last year, won the team title with just 40 points, followed by Hinsdale Central (75) and Wheaton Warrenville South (81).

"I'm pleased with how we did overall because I didn't expect us to do as well overall," said Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen, who had a returning starter quit the team earlier in the week.

Coull-Parenty, a Class AA all-state runner in 1993, has been bothered by an injury to her left knee all summer. She still thought she could have raced better Saturday.

"When I was running, it felt like I had to stop running and just sit," Coull-Parenty said. "Place-wise, (my race) was pretty good, but physically and mentally I wasn't ready for it. I don't think it's mainly physical (with my injury). It's mostly mental. I told myself I didn't feel good. I've just got to work on my mental attitude."

Reese's problems were completely physical. She hurt her Achilles heel at school earlier in the week and despite feeling pain all the way up to race time, used padding and focus to beat her 16th-place time in last year's race by nine seconds.

"I tried stretching it, and it hurts like crazy. When I started running, I didn't think about it," Reese said. "I really didn't think I was going to do good today. I'm surprised. I'm happy with my finish."

The Hinsdale South sophomore team finished ninth with Rose Deato taking 40th (15:20). Jen Peterson (14:48) was 16th in the junior varsity race, and Fatima Molina was 33rd (15:18).

South's Schlenker makes grade in first season

Hinsdale South senior girls' cross country runner Laura Schlenker is always on the go.

Whether it is studying for her advanced placement classes or working on a piccolo solo for the school band, the senior always has something on her agenda.

"To keep up my grades, I've really got to work hard and study a lot after practice and not go to sleep," Schlenker said.

Hinsdale South girls' cross country coach Mike Madsen is pleased she found some extra time this fall. In her first cross country season, Schlenker continued her strong start by helping the Hornets finish fifth at the Reavis Invitational Saturday in Burbank with 162 points.

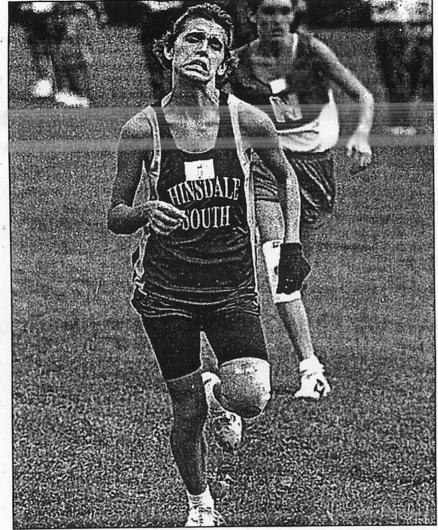

Schlenker finished 23rd in 14 minutes, 32 seconds, just one second behind senior teammate Liz Reese (22nd).

Sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty led the team by taking eighth on the 2.2mile course (14:00). Other finishers for the Hornets were Lisa DiCosola (51st, 15:16), Alicia Hlustik (58th, 15:39), Fatima Molina (76th, 16:38) and Linda Mark (86th, 17:12). The sophomore team finished ninth with Christy Culen and Katie Moss 23rd and 24th, respectively, at 15:26.

"You figure Liz was the No. 4 runner in the (West Suburban Conference Gold Division) last year, so if Laura is anywhere close to her, that's very exciting," Madsen said.

Schlenker decided to join cross country after last indoor track season, when she was converted from a sprinter to middle-distance runner. At first, she was apprehensive about long distance running due to asthma but now actually finds longer races to her advantage.

"I do better at endurance than the really fast stuff," Schlenker said. "(Cross country is) mostly a mental thing and keeping a positive attitude that I can do this. You have to keep up the stamina."

Coull-Parenty made a strong finish to improve on her ninth-place finish at Reavis in 1993.

"I wanted to come in a hetter place than last year," she said. "I had teammates (along the course) telling me where I was and what I had to do. I was in 11th and then I passed two girls after one of my teammates told me to keep going."

Coull-Parenty cruised to first (17:28) leading the way.

South cross country

Monday as the Hornets took the top five spots and defeated Morton 15-45 and Addison Trail 15-47 in their WSC Gold Division opening meets. Coull-Parenty's 12:38 in the two-mile race was good for a 49-second victory.

South boys

Hinsdale South's Jason Holy, the top returning runner from last season's varsity, is happy to have some company at the top.

Holy continued his role as the Hornets' No. 2 man Saturday to help the Hornets take ninth at the Reavis Invitational with 232 points.

Holy finished 27th in 18 minutes, 13 seconds with junior Damian Rulka, a first-year cross country runner, taking 20th (17:57). Other finishers for the Hornets were Joe Zalabak (57th, 19:16), Joe Petrovic (63rd, 19:30), Jason Lighter (65th, 19:34), Mark Perschke (66th, 19:38) and Jeff Scheirer (76th, 20:15).

"I feel like I'm getting up there," Holy said. "It's good (having Rulka) because I have somebody I can work out in practice with. He goes faster now and I try to work right with him. Hopefully, next year we're going to have a really, really good team."

Rulka and Holy could get help from a strong sophomore team, which took second at Reavis. Eric Gruberman was second (18:10), while Glenn Kempa was fourth (18:41) and Anish Patel 10th (19:02).

In Monday's season-opening West Suburban Conference Gold Division dual, the Hornets defeated Morton 20-43 and Addison Trail 15-50. Hinsdale South owned the second through eighth spots with Rulka (17:09), Kempa (17:27) and Gruberman (17:28) leading the way.

Hlustik sets pace for Hornets' strong race

The performance of Hinsdale South senior cross country runner Alicia Hlustik doesn't always figure in the team score, but she's always pushing herself trying to improve.

Thanks to the format at Saturday's Minooka Invitational, the senior's effort set the tone for a great meet by the Hornets.

Hlustik won the opening race in the No. 7 flight as the Hornets took second in the meet with only 19 points. Bishop McNamara won the title with 16 points.

Usually in cross country, teams can enter as many as seven runners with the five top places going toward the team score. At Minooka, teams entered one runner in each of seven flight races with the finishes in those races combined for a team total.

"If you're the sixth or seventh runner, you do help but it's not as big a deal," said Hlustik, who won her 2.0 flight race in 14 minutes, 6 seconds. "It is kind of cool knowing that I played a part in that score."

Senior Laura Schlenker also won the No. 5 flight (13:09) while fourof the five other Hornets' runners finished among the top three in their flights.

"Everybody ran great," said Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen.

For Hlustik, the hardest part is adjusting to being a leader instead of a follower.

"It's kind of hard to lead because you don't have anyone to push you. It felt really good," said Hlustik, who won her race by a considerable margin. "It was not really hard (running the first race) because I wanted ' to get it over with and the course is better if everyone hasn't run over it yet."

Sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty's time for third place in the No. 1 flight (12:20) broke the course meet prior to Saturday by seven seconds. Bradley-Bourbonnais senior Jessica Bullock, 60th in Class AA last year, won in 11:46.

Katie Moss (13:29 in No. 4 flight) and Christy Culen (13:53 in No. 6 flight) each took second, Liz Reese (13:06 in No. 2 flight) was third, and Lisa DiCosola (13:53 in No. 3 flight) was seventh.

On Monday, the Hornets suffered their first West Suburban Conference Gold Division dual meet loss, 21-36 to Willowbrook at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale. The Hornets (3-1 in WSC Gold) won 15-50 over Proviso East, which did not field a full team.

Willowbrook's Christine Mueller won the 2.0-mile race in 12:06 with Coull-Parenty taking second (12:32). The Warriors took the next three places with Reese (13:03) and Schlenker (13:16) finishing sixth and seventh, respectively.

Although Hlustik was the Hornets' No. 6 finisher Monday, her time of 14:10 was her fastest on the course by nine seconds.

"And that's a much harder course than at Minooka," Hlustik said. "I'm hoping to break 14 minutes by the end of the season."

Hornets' Coull-Parenty gets into winners' circle

At the sound of the starter's gun, Hinsdale South sophomore girls' cross country runner Erika Coull-Parenty began the Crystal Lake Invitational Saturday at a full sprint.

The steep hill she was about to climb was nothing compared to the two-year barrier she was trying to overcome.

"I told myself at the top of the hill to slow down because I was going way too fast," Coull-Parenty said.

She didn't slow down too much. Coull-Parenty never relinquished the lead she had built en route to a 10-second victory in the 2.2-mile freshmansophomore race at Veterans Acres.

Although Coull-Parenty last year was the Hornets' first state meet qualifier since 1983, Saturday marked the first time she has ever taken first place in an invitational.

"Last year, when people won invitationals and went up to get their awards, I was so jealous. I hoped I could do that one day," Coull-Parenty said. "I wanted to win the Crystal Lake Invitational. It's one of the harder courses in the state so it meant a lot, I really enjoy winning."

The format of the invitational places runners based on their year in school in the freshmansophomore or junior-senior races. Those two team scores are then added to the two team scores in the boys' division.

The Hornets finished third overall with 561 points. The freshman-sophomore girls were fourth in their division (150 points), while the junior-senior runners were seventh (171) mainly because they couldn't field a full five-person team.

"(Coull-Parenty) just took the lead right away and just led throughout the race," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "She's really starting to run well. I think we're getting to the point in the season where the training is starting to pay off. She's looking more and more like an all-state runner."

Liz Reese (14:49) and Laura Schlenker (14:52) led the Hornets' junior-senior entries by taking 14th and 15th, respectively. Lisa DiCosola was 19th (15:03), and Alicia Hlustik was 47th (16:50).

On the freshman-sophomore level, Christy Culen and Katie Moss finished in 15:31 for 16th and 17th place. Other finishers included Rose Deato (53rd, 15:19), Kristi Skdrna (63rd, 18:06), Tracy Amish (66th, 18:23) and Sara Klimas (67th, 18:25).

On Monday, Coull-Parenty not only won the race in the Hornets' West Suburban Conference Gold Division dual meet at Downers Grove South, but covered the O'Brien Park course in 12:45 to win by 31 seconds.

South cross country

On the same course at last year's Class AA regional, Coull-Parenty finished in 12:48 for 10th place.

"I do feel like I'm progressing at a fast rate," Coull-Parenty said. "I've been placing higher in each race than I did my freshman year. Winning the meet against Downers South was a big surprise because last year I came in third. I actually wasn't expecting to be up front."

Downers South still took another step toward at least a share of its 12th consecutive conference title by beating the Hornets 26-32.

The WSC Gold champion is determined by a combination of dual-meet standings and those at the conference meet Oct. 15. The Mustangs (4-0 in WSC Gold) edged the Hornets (3-2 in WSC Gold) by having six of the top nine finishers.

"It was the closest (dual) race we've had with Downers South in over 10 years," Madsen said. "I was hoping that it would be close. We came close but we just didn't have quite enough firepower."

Times prove Hornet's strong finish

Like stunning before and after photos, the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team made remarkable strides from last year's performance at the Niles West Invitational.

Unlike those advertisements in the back pages of tabloids, there really is documented proof.

Of the 11 Hinsdale South runners Saturday who also ran in the race last year under similar temperature and wind conditions, eight of them improved their times by at least 15 seconds. In all, the 11 girls averaged a drop of more than 20 seconds on the 2.0-mile course.

The varsity had plenty of reasons to be happy with their fifth-place showing (138 points), just nine points behind third-place Dundee-Crown. Not only did the team earn a team trophy for a top-five finish, but all six runners received individual plaques for placing among the top 60.

Sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty took ninth in the race for the second straight year, but this year's finish in 12 minutes, 22 seconds was 18 seconds better than 1993.

"The girls came away happy and a lot of them placed real well," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "We were hoping to get a trophy, and we did. We made that with no problem. It was just a question of which trophy we were going to get."

Senior Liz Reese took 17th (12:37), followed by Laura Schlenker (24th, 12:53), Lisa DiCosola (39th, 13:08), Katie Moss (49th, 13:21) and Christy Culen (57th, 13:26). DiCosola, a senior, and Moss, a sophomore, made the biggest jumps from the 1993 varsity race, when Moss was 63rd (13:50) and DiCosola 68th (13:54).

Leading the third-place junior varsity (118 points) was Alicia Hlustik (12th, 13:44), followed by Jenny Peterson (16th, 13:59), Fatima Molina (24th, 14:13) and Rose Deato (26th, 14:16).

Marcie Gaeta (31st, 14:55) paced the sophomore team, which finished ninth. That lineup also featured sophomore Katie Harkabus (15:28), whose 1:08 improvement from last year's sophomore race saw her leap from 90th to 48th.

The Hornets are now setting their sights on the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet Saturday, Oct. 15, at Proviso East.

Southeressee and a

The overall conference champion is based on a 50-50 combination of dualmeet and conference meet standings. The Hornets enter the conference meet in third place behind Willowbrook and Downers Grove South.

Hinsdale South can still share the conference title if it wins the conference meet and Downers South finishes ahead of Willowbrook. The Mustangs, who edged the Hornets 26-32 Sept. 26 but lost to Willowbrook 19-36 Monday, are in danger of having their streak of 11 conference titles ended.

"I'm anxious to see if we can give them a push at the conference meet," Madsen said. "(Niles West) was our last invitational before conference, so I was just happy that we ran as well as we did."

In their final WSC Gold Division dual, the Hornets defeated Leyden 15-49 at Katherine Legge Memorial Park in Hinsdale. Hinsdale South grabbed the top six spots with Coull-Parenty cruising to first in 12:31 with Reese (13:26) second.

Bailey's unstoppable

Runaway winner at league meet

By Dan Chamness

Westmont's Chris Bailey was unstoppable and Downers Grove North's Brigitte Buitron reclaimed the crown she wore as a freshman, but lost as a sophomore during conference cross-country finals Saturday.

Downers Grove South's 10year run as conference champions ended at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division finals when the Mustangs gave. up their crown to Willowbrook, which posted a 26-50 victory.

Downers South and Hinsdale South tied for second, but the Mustangs were awarded the runner-up berth based on the place of the sixth runner.

Hinsdale South's Erika Coull-Parenty was second.

On the boys side, the WSC Gold finals proved to be a great race. Hinsdale South and Downers South tied for first with 41 points, but the Hornets won the conference meet based on their sixth runner.

Downers South, led by Shourin Sen and Doug Saunders, was the overall champion.

Nothing could stop the Long Green Line Saturday, but the new kid on the block, Downers Grove North was the closest. The green-clad York Dukes took five of the top six places to win the WSC Silver conference meet with only 17 points, while the Trojans took second with. 50.

The Trojans put five runners in all-conference range as Ed Reigert broke the York streak by placing fourth.

"We are happy York is in our conference," Downers North's Raymond Vigil said. "They are the best team in the state and we always have something to short for."

Reigert, Robert Rutherford, Raymond Vigil, Joshu Deen, and Brian Gray garnered allconference status for the Trojans.

"I lost my focus a little bit today," said Gray, who finished 13th one year ago, "I am looking forward to the next few races and hope I do better."

Hinsdale Central's Lawrence Ou won the WSC Silver freshmen race, touring the two-mile course in 11:35.

"I felt pretty good today, but I did not expect to win," said Ou, 'York was really strong today. I have run in a few sophomore races and did OK this year."

Bailey, the defending Class A state champion, posted a 47second victory at the combined Southwest Suburban/Interstate Eight finals with a record-time 14:53.

His younger brother, Kevin, won the 2.3-mile freshman race in 13:14.

Downers North's Buitron outsprinted York's Sandra Meneses to top her by two seconds.

"Sandra always gives me a tough race," Buitron said. "We are very similar in talent and work ethic. It always comes down to a sprint. Last year, she beat me for the title."

Downers North had one other all-conference runner in freshman Liz Tumpach, who placed sixth.

"I was very happy with my finish," Tumpach said. "I was hoping for top 10. I hope to make it through the regionals and to sectionals if for no other reason than the experience."

Hinsdale Central's Colleen Kula felt refreshed after a twoweek layoff. She finished in the top 10 at the WSC Silver meet.

"I have not raced in two weeks so my legs felt really fresh," Kula said. "It also helped having Ann (Seliga) there for most of the race. We have been running together in practice and races all year."

Benet Academy's Trevor Bredna sprinted at the end. The sophomore passed two Marist runners to give the East Suburban Catholic Conference title to Benet.

Bolingbrook's David Gonzalez won the SICA West meet.

"This was David's best race in a long time," Bolingbrook coach Art Pahl said.

Benet's girls were very close to perfection by scoring 16 points to win their conference.

The Redwings were led by conference champion Sarah Mc-Cullough.

"I was pretty happy," Benet coach Scott Brooks said. "Most of the girls ran their best race to the year and some ran their best race of their lives."

Westmont's Stacy Siler lead the Sentinels to a victory in the Southwestern Suburban Conference.

"We won all three team titles and all three individual titles," Westmont coach Steve Wolf said. "We hope to make it to win the regionals, but St. Francis will be tough on the boys level, and Luther North will be tough on girls level."

Lisle's Julie Vogel was fourth in the Interstate Eight.

York easily won the race with 17 points, placing its top five runners "mong the top six finishers led by win- 'Scott Hardesty) per Brian Gary (15:25).

Senior-Arfaat Khan was Hinsdale Central's top finisher, taking 24th (16:58) and improving upon last year's 29th-place conference finish.

"I wanted to get down to the low 16s (time-wise), but I just didn't have a good race today." Khan said. "I just couldn't go after the first mile. I was about 20th through the whole race and some people passed me the last mile."

In one of the Red Devils' stronger races this season. Aneet Ahluwalia (17:22) and David Kim (31st, 17:27), were 28th and 31st, respectively, followed by Derek Huyser (37th, 17:58), Nathan Kerr (39th, 18:07), Mark Lawrence (42nd. 18:23) and Eric Bassett (43rd, 18:49).

The race especially took its toll on Kerr, a junior who tried during the race to fight off back problems that surfaced earlier in the week. Kerr, the Red Devils' No. 2 runner most of the season, was among the top 30 after the first with Downers Grove North. and took fourth overall.

Lawrence Ou won the 2.1-mile race in 11:35, beating York's Collin Lawrence by five seconds. Rob Burkart (11th, 12:05) and Chris Demetra (14th 12:15) also were all-conference.

"I ran against (York) before and they beat me, so I really wasn't sure what to expect," Ou said. "This meet was the most pain I've ever felt in cross country. That's the best I've ever done, so I guess I just gave it 100 percent today."

Tie as good as win for Hornets at Gold Meet

The final standings will show that the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team finished third at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet : There's any number of things that would have turned Saturday at Proviso East.

Four-year varsity runner Liz Reese knows better. 5 said. The results hid quite a moral victory.

The Hornets tied long-time nemesis Downers Grove on the sixth-runner tiebreaker.

"It was so exciting because we've never, never done done that." that in all of the year's we've been running, even before me," said Reese, who earned all-conference ished a clear second in 11:58.3 despite being hamthem was fine."

The overall conference champion is based on a 50-50 combination of regular-season dual-meet and conference meet standings.

Willowbrook, led by champion Christine Mueller (11 minutes, 47.1 seconds over 2.0 miles), also made news. By winning the meet (26 points), the Warriors secured the overall title and snapped Downers South's streak of winning or sharing overall league titles since 1983.

The Hornets finished third in both standings to finish among the top three in conference for the 16th straight year. Hinsdale South also had three individuals gain all-conference individual honors by placing among the top 16.

Because of her ailment, Coull-Parenty had sat out for more than one week and had only two days of practice before the meet. Yet she ran with Mueller for most of the race until Mueller pulled away in the final stretch. Willowbrook's Julie Rauch (12:12) was third.

"I ran how I wanted to run. It went according to plan, except that in my plan, I was going to win," said Coull-Parenty, who also finished second in 1993. Belskis and his staff can relate to Maggiore and his staff; they're very close to that situation, but also very far away. "I know where they're at." Belskis said. "I know that Paul's bringing speakers in to talk to his kids and things like that. They may need that, where we probably don't.

We're at a different level, and I'm sure he would like his program to get there."

Being there for so long has its quirks

Belskis will tell you "Around here they say 'Win or tie, we're behind you,''' and he's only halfjoking. Downers Grove has taken its Mustangs for granted.

The excitement we had in '84 (the first league title and 6A runner-up trophy) will never be generated again," said Belskis, who took over from Mash in 1989. "Because we've won so many around here it's almost expected and it's not so enthusiastic as it once was. Of those 10 years, there's only been three years where you have certain memories where you wish it was like that every year." The fans can be jaded -Belskis doesn't feel he owes them anything - as long as he and his staff don't assume success.

"It's fun coming up from the bottom," said Mash, now the Mustangs' offensive coordinator. "It's hard up here with everybody shootin' at 'ya.

So they work even harder. They still meet at 6:30 a.m., just as they did while building the program to a point where in 1991 a freshman named Mike McGrath chose to attend Downers Grove South instead of his father's alma mater, Joliet Catholic.

And why should they stop working? If Gold titles are old hat, state titles sure aren't. They've eluded the Mustangs in 1984 and in a 7-0 loss to Loyola last season. 'The excitement for a conference championship is there, but, yes, I am, and the kids are, hungry for something more than that," Belskis said: "There's another level that you go to. You don't know if you'll ever get there again, but that's what you strive

Reese, Hornets surge on way back to sectional meet

Hinsdale South girls' cross country runner Liz Reese couldn't have helped but feel energized at the Lockport Regional Saturday, Oct. 29.

But even the senior was a little overwhelmed by her power.

Reese started and finished strong to help the Hornets finish third with 87 points and advance as a team to the Lincoln-Way Sectional at 10:30 a.m. at the central campus in New Lenox.

"A lot of times when I start the race strong, I don't have much of a kick at the end and sometimes someone will pass me at the end," said Reese, who finished eighth on the 2-mile course at. Dellwood Park in 12 minutes, 46 seconds. "I just didn't want to let up, and I didn't. Even at the end, I did have a little bit of a kick so it was a really good race."

The Hornets felt great too. Not only is the sectional team berth their first since 1991 but the regional finish ties the school's second-best showing ever in 1981.

The top five teams at regionals and the five highest individual finishers not among those teams advance to sectionals. Joliet edged Lockport 39-41 for the team title.

"The kids are the most excited at this point of the season as I can recall," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "It's just fun to have something to look forward to where we have a chance to have some success."

Sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty again led the charge by taking sixth in 12:35, followed by Reese, Laura Schlenker (12th, 13:08). Katie Moss (28th, 13:46), Christy Culen (33rd, 14:10), Fatima Molina (38th. 14:19) and Alicia Hlustik (48th, 15:07). Molina, a senior, ran in place of senior co-captain Lisa DiCosola, who was taking college entrance exams.

Only Coull-Parenty and Reese have previous sectional experience, but for Reese, this is her first sectional appearance in two years.

After a strong initial cross country season in 1992. Reese was on course for more of the same in 1993 when she was diagnosed with mononucleosis just before the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet.

She finished fourth at the conference meet, but her ailment soon took its toll. At last year's Downers Grove South Regional, Reese still managed 25th place (13:21). but she was only the eighth at-large runner and the Hornets did not advance as a team.

"Most people wouldn't have even run," Madsen said.

Three people who beat Reese Saturday were individual state qualifiers last year. Her time Saturday was only 11 seconds behind Coull-Parenty, who finished 20th in Class AA in 1993.

"I could beat her last year, and I haven't come close to beating her at all this year," Reese said. "Last year was such a disappointment (for me). It was nice that I was able to advance, plus as a team."

Coull-Parenty, continuing to improve from tendinitis in her hips, kept pace with Mt. Assisi junior Cassidy Wall until they reached a steep hill at the halfway point of the race.

Nobody stayed with Wall, 29th at state last year, from there. Her 11:17 finish shattered the course record by 54 seconds and was good for a 1:00 victory over Joliet's Kelly Roliardi.

"I got really tired after that (hill), and I slowed up my pace a lot," Coull-Parenty said. "I felt pretty good. I was telling myself more that I wasn't going to hurt as much. I guess that helped a little bit because I wasn't in as much pain."

The top five teams at sectionals plus the seven highest individual finishers not among those teams qualify for the Class AA state meet Nov. 5 at Detweiller Park in Peoria. Lincoln-Way and Mother McAuley, which qualified for state last year, Sandburg, Lockport and Joliet are the favorites to grab the team spots. The Hornets, Stagg and Andrew also are in contention.

"If one of the (five) favorites has a bad day, any one or two or three of us could move on," Madsen said.

South's Reese, Coull-Parenty earn trips to state

Hinsdale South girls' cross country runner Liz Reese returned to the scene of the crime Saturday and this time left with her dream.

After just missing a berth to the state meet despite a great race at the Lincoln-Way Sectional two years ago, Reese qualified for the first time as a senior.

She and sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty finished among the top 16 runners at the Lincoln-Way Sectional in New Lenox and earned individual berths to the Class AA state meet at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 5, at Detweiller Park in Peoria.

The top five teams at sectionals and seven highest finishing individuals not among those teams qualify for state. The Hornets just missed qualifying as a team by finishing sixth with 158 points, just 10 behind fifth-place Mother McAuley.

"(Qualifying for state) is a big honor, and I'm really looking forward to running down there," said Reese, who became only the fourth girl in school history to qualify for state.

"I'm not going for all-state (top 25). That's a big goal. That would be a major thing, but if I can't get that I'll be happy, just the fact that I made it."

Coull-Parenty became the Hornets' first state qualifier in consecutive years by finishing ninth on the 2.14-mile course in 13 minutes, 16 seconds, while Reese was 16th (13:32).

At Lincoln-Way in 1992, Reese ran her best race up to that time and finished 15th, but she was only the 11th highest finishing at-large individual and didn't advance to state.

On Saturday, Reese was the fifth highest finishing at-large qualifier. Last year, she didn't qualify for sectionals after contracting mononucleosis just before the regional.

"I certainly brought it up (to Reese) that she had been successful there two years ago," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "We thought (overall) we had a pretty good chance to do things at that particular meet, and that's how it worked out."

The Hornets' best race of the year Saturday resulted in the closest they have ever come to reaching state as a team. Mother McAuley, which edged the Hornets Saturday, had finished 92 points ahead of them at the Reavis Invitational Sept. 10.

Senior Laura Schlenker, a first-year cross country runner, was 40th (14:07), followed by senior Lisa DiCosola (48th, 14:17), sophomore Katie Moss (66th, 14:38) and seniors Alicia Hlustik (95th, 15:22) and Fatima Molina (100th, 15:26), a lastminute substitute for injured sophomore Christy Culen.

"We were hoping to make 170 points or better. The score we had most years will make it (to state)," Madsen said. "Everybody ran a good race. Some of them ran a great race, and it all combined to give us an awfully good finish. There's no question Lisa ran the race of her life."

South cross country

Coull-Parenty kept her goal of reaching state all four years intact by not taking her second trip for granted. One reason has been her ongoing battle with pain, most recently tendinitis in her hips, which sometimes results in unique motivational tactics.

"I was strong the whole way, maybe because I was talking (out loud) to myself during the race. I was saying, 'You can do this,' " said Coull-Parenty, who finished 20th in Class AA last year. "I'm glad I made it. I wasn't sure if I was going to make it this year.

"I'm going to try and (get all-state) again but finish higher than I did last year. I'm happy I made it and I'm going in with high expectations, so hopefully I'll be coming out with a very big smile on my face."

Reese also had her doubts about qualifying Saturday, but she already has reason to smile. She still has one race left.

"I was really nervous. I knew if I didn't do it then, I would never get to make it to state," Reese said.

"As a senior, I knew this was my last cross country season. It's probably a mental thing. Maybe I was just more determined. I didn't say it, I didn't think it, but it was probably in my head."

South's Reese, Coull-Parenty survive soggy state

By Bill Stone Doings Sports Writer

While senior Liz Reese reflected on her accomplishments with the Hinsdale South girls' cross country team, sophomore Erika Coull-Parenty was looking toward the future.

Both runners were left pondering and soaking after the Class AA state cross country meet amid constant rain Saturday at Detweiller Park in Peoria.

In her first state cross country meet, Reese finished 99th of 226 runners in 13 minutes, 17 seconds over the 2.1-mile race, and Coull-Parenty finished 129th (13:30).

Reese earned her first state berth by finishing 16th at the Lincoln-Way Sectional after just missing qualifying in 1992 and being hampered by mononucleosis in 1993.

"I just went out there and said, 'This is the last meet of my senior year of cross country. Make it the best and the most fun, and that's what I did,' " Reese said.

"My goal was to be in the front half of the pack. I wanted to do really well and see if I could do it and I just went out there and ran my heart out. I'm happy with (99th place)."

Although Coull-Parenty was disappointed with her performance, she is the first Hornet to qualify for the state meet in back-to-back years and only the second to make two career state meet trips. At last year's state meet, Coull-Parenty (20th, 12:14) earned allstate honors by finishing among the top 25.

"Next year's another I guess. We can hope for the best then," Coull-Parenty said.

"I wanted to get all-state again and I guess I thought that since I did last year I had a good chance of getting it this year."

Reese

Coull-Parenty and Reese are among only four Hornets who have advanced to the state meet. This year marked only the second time that the Hornets have had more than one runner at a state meet.

"I'm real proud with the fact that we got both of them down here," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "You do the best you can and you have to take what you get. That's all part of being in athletics."

Madsen knows all about the pressure of just getting to state. When the Hornets' Eileen Slowikowski qualified for state as a sophomore in 1981, she finished 16th at state but then was unable to qualify the following year. As a senior, she got back to state and took 20th.

The competition, and sometimes just the luck of the draw, made its mark again Saturday. Besides Coull-Parenty, six others among the 18 who were 1993 all-staters that ran Saturday did not finish among the top 25. East Peoria senior Janelle Deatherage, the defending state champion, finished 35th.

Coull-Parenty was so nervous about doing well at state that she told Madsen she couldn't sleep Thursday night.

"I put too much pressure on myself," Coull-Parenty said. "I wasn't feeling right when I was running. I guess mentally I wasn't ready for it.

"I thought a lot about the race and I had a lot of dreams about state and making all-state. I was just so ready for it. Then this weekend I don't know what happened. I wasn't even nervous, until I got to the starting line."

Alongside her teammate, Reese was somehow able to relax. On the van ride to Peoria and moments before, Reese admitted she was a bundle of nerves. The rain only made it worse.

"When I run, the rain gets in my eyes and it really bothers me," Reese said. "Today it didn't really bother me. I got out there, and I (wanted to) kind of loosen up, kind of calm down, and I did."

Reese, a two-time state qualifier in track, is part of a memorable senior class of Hinsdale South cross country runners. Only 22 seniors finished ahead of her Saturday.

In a sport where younger runners often dominate, the Hornets used five seniors in their sectional lineup and came the closest they ever have to qualifying for state as a team.

"Just this past month, I knew it was the last chance and that I had to show my stuff," Reese said. "It was kind of like, 'This is it.' I knew I had it in me."
