This is no run-of-the-mill gang up against a Wall

By Gary Reinmuth
Tribune Staff Writer

Just call Hersey senior Jennifer Zehr the female Pied Piper.

When the diminutive Zehr finished second to Libertyville's Becky Coleman in the girls Class AA state cross-country meet three years ago, she became a trend-setter. Zehr showed the way for what has become perhaps the most gifted long-distance running classes Illinois has seen since the state series began in 1979.

Since her inaugural race at Peoria's Detweiler Park, Zehr has come in sixth and fourth there—not because Zehr is fading with old age, but because her competition has been gaining on her. Each year, more and more quality runners who have caught the long-distance fever are going stride for stride with Zehr. The result this fall is a field of competitors that may go down in history as the deepest and most talented Illinois has ever produced.

The first four finishers from last year's state meet return, as do 22 of the top 25 runners. Fourteen of those 22 are seniors.

"It's incredible," says Palatine coach Steve Currins. "It began with that strong freshman class. With Zehr and [Downers Grove North's] Brigitte Buitron and [Glenbard North's] Carrie Cessario and Carolyn [Currins]. And all those people stayed good. And every year somebody else is hopped in with them. There may be 20 Division I prospects in that class."

Buitron has finished fifth, ninth and sixth, Currins fourth, 9th and 21st, and Cessario 12th, 83rd and 30th.

In 1983, Decatur MacArthur's Elizabeth Kampfe joined the club with a third-place finish. Last year, Kampfe was second to the county's newest and fastest defender, defending state champion sassy Wall of Mt. Assisi, who improved dramatically from a 29th-place finish as a sophomore and is favored to become the first repeat winner since a Miroballi of Wheeling (1984-87).

With so much talent breathing down her neck, Wall, who took fifth in the Foot Locker Senior Nationals, may approach or break Miroballi's state-meet record time of 11:16 set in 1987.

Other recent initiates include Crystal Lake South senior Alice Melhus (seventh in '94), Glenbard North junior Bry Houdek (eighth), Quincy sophomore Ruth Kipping (third), Danville junior Kapreia Kirk (ninth), Oak Park sophomore Coleen Bolin (10th) and Libertyville senior Katie Lefelman (12th).

"It seems like every time you turn around, there's a new name," says Currins.

Presto, from out of the woodwork this fall comes Glenbard West's Nell Shields, second in the 1,500 at the Junior Olympics this summer.

What Currins will be watching is how all these great runners deal with defeat. Because with so many of them out there, somebody has to come in second, third, fourth and worse.

"You have to look at the fact some people may not handle losing very well," he says. "It'll be easy to get down on yourself if a good good people beat you."

Sad to say, the race for the '95 state team championship—which figures to pit defending state champion Glenbard North against '94 runner-up Palatine again—almost may seem like an afterthought compared to the excitement caused by all the individual battles coming to a course near you.

"If you just look at who's back, there's only one trophy available [third]," says Naperville North coach Marty Bee, whose Huskies grabbed that trophy last year.

Glenbard and Palatine both return all seven runners from their state-meet teams of a year ago. Barring illness, injury or a freshman to be revealed, Palatine will have to find a way to make up 35 points (94-120) on the Panthers.

In Class A, Bishop McNamara, fifth a year ago, has all seven of its runners back and a great chance for a trophy.

Top 5 teams

1. Glenbard North

Returning at seven runners from a team that won the state championship, "It's pretty hard to lose," says coach Bud Swanson. No kidding. Sophomore Bry Houdek (eighth at state), seniors Jacki Hanon (15th) and Carrie Cessario (30th), sophomore Andrea Boye (31st) and senior Nicole Nemecok (60th) combined for Glenbard's 94-point winning total last November. Key: How the Panthers, third in '93 and second in '92, meet to being chased.

2. Palatine

How do you catch Glenbard? That's the Fratres' job as they try to reconstruct the title that has eluded them for two years after a four-year reign. Coach Steve Currins' top seven are back, led by his '94 point-scorer—daughter Carolyn, a senior (21st at state), junior Jill Morris, senior Jerry Monaco, sophomore Charlee Lancaster and sophomore Holly Fearing.

3. York

Watch out for York. That's the buzz out there, but coach Larry Bassett will only say, "We'll see." Seniors Sandra Meneses (17th at state) and Laura Robbins (38th) are a strong 1-2 and senior Audra Dondlinger and sophomores Kelly Wyckoff and Nancy Stenback also return. Add sophomore Ann Macchiesi and promising freshman Celi Williams to the mix and York has the inside track on third.

4. Naperville North

From state champion in '93 to third last year to who knows in '95, Fourth seems possible with the return of senior Jerry Sporer (26th at state), junior Jenny Walz (28th) and sophomore Beth Stahl (40th).

5. Wheeling

With two premier runners in Sheila Bergquist (22nd at state) and junior Erin Brinly (13th) plus returnees Lindsey Benson, a junior who has been improving each year, sophomore Brooke Sears and senior Françoise Randazzo, the Wildcats could improve on last year's seventh-place finish.

Others to watch

and sophomores Caroline Olson and Katie Maran.

The Red Devils took fourth at last year's WSC Silver Meet and tied for fourth in the final overall standings, which are a 50-50 combination of dual-meet and conference meet standings. They finished third at the Fenton Regional and 11th at the East Aurora Sectional, which was regarded as the state's toughest.

The emergence of pack running by this year's team at practice is especially important since the Red Devils

WSC Silver JV Meet, where the Red Devils finished third.

Sophomore Jessica Hickey, the highest Hinsdale Central finisher in the JV race (18th), junior Chrissy Soucek and freshmen Ashley Mavon and Erin Dowell, a recent move-in, should also contribute to the varsity.

In the highly competitive WSC Silver, two-time defending champion York returns five of its seven runners from last year's fourth-place state team. Lyons Township and Downers Grove North should also be strong.

Time will reveal fortunes for young Hornets

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

The outlook for this year's Hinsdale South girls' cross country team won't be known for a while.

With only three varsity returnees and no seniors, coach Mike Madsen is as curious as anyone as to how well the Hornets will progress from their season opener at the 16th annual Hornet/Red Devil Invitational Saturday, Sept. 2, at Katherine Legge Memorial Park.

Saturday's varsity race is scheduled for 10:40 a.m. with the freshman-sophomore girls' race at 9:25 a.m. and the junior varsity girls at 11:05 a.m.

"We're just very inexperienced right now," Madsen said. "I wouldn't expect any great things right away. It's going to take some time to gel. I hope we're ready when (the West Suburban Conference Gold Division) dual meets start in a couple of weeks."

Whatever the Hornets' lineup, most likely it will be a competitive one. Although the Hornets have never won a conference title, they have finished among the top three in conference every year since 1979.

Hinsdale South finished third in last year's overall WSC Gold Division standings, which are a 50-50 combination of regular-season dual-meet standings and conference meet results.

The Hornets then came the closest ever to qualifying for the state meet. They finished sixth at the Lincoln-Way Sectional, just 10 points from tying for the fifth and final state berth.

Junior Erika Coull-Parenty, a two-time individual Class AA state qualifier, and juniors Katie Moss and Christy Culen form a solid base for the Hornets.

Coull-Parenty finished 129th at state in 1994 after earning all-state honors in 1993 by taking 20th. She also took second at the WSC Gold Meet in her second all-conference season and was a top-10 finisher at the sectional and regional. She also is a two-time Class AA state track qualifier in the 3,200-meter run.

"She didn't run an awful lot over the summer, but she's still looking fine from what we've seen so far,"

South cross country

Madsen said.

Moss, another consistent top-five finisher last year, just missed earning All-WSC Gold honors in 1994, finishing 17th at the conference meet, and was 28th at the regional and 66th at sectionals. Culen, 23rd at the WSC Gold Meet, was 33rd at regionals but did not compete at sectionals because of injury.

Another experienced runner is junior Rose Deato, who finished 17th at the junior varsity WSC Gold Meet. Juniors Jamie Bechina and Purva Kelkar are first-time cross country runners but have varsity experience from the Hinsdale South track program.

Freshmen Jenny Wiltjer and Anna Kumis also are off to a strong start. Other runners include juniors Tracy Amish and Marice Gaeta, sophomores Mary Bartocci, Stanci Dawson, Melodie Leung, Jackie Ludwig and Manshi Patel and freshmen Liz Duvall, Celina Mohovich and Nicki Scott.

Willowbrook, led by returning WSC Gold Meet champion and Class AA state qualifier Christine Mueller, and Downers Grove South once again are the favorites in the WSC Gold. The Warriors prevailed in 1994 to snap the Mustangs' streak of 11 consecutive outright or shared league titles.

South's Coull-Parenty wants luck on her side

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

South cross country

After two individual state berths despite health related problems, Hinsdale South junior girls' cross country runner Erika Coull-Parenty is determined to improve her fortunes this season.

Her first step is finding a lucky number, preferably anything from one through five.

Coull-Parenty did so in Saturday's season opener by finishing an impressive third at the 16th annual Hornet/Red Devil Invitational at Katherine Legge Memorial Park. The Hornets were eighth as a team with 188 points, one point ahead of Niles North.

After an abundance of ninth-place finishes over the past two years, including at last year's Lincoln-Way Sectional, Coull-Parenty covered the 2.0 miles in a personal-best course time of 12 minutes, 20 seconds. Naperville Central's Susan Flock defended her title by winning in 12:13 with Wheaton Warrenville South's Linda Kneiss second in 12:15.

"I'm really sick of that number (nine). A lot of my races I get ninth place," said Coull-Parenty, who was ninth at the Hornet/Red Devil Invitational as a freshman and improved to seventh last year. "I wanted to try and come in the top five and I did that so that made me really, really happy that I improved. I'm going to try and get top five in all of the invitationals. That's my goal."

Junior Katie Moss finished 40th in 13:51, a 38-second improvement from her 1994 varsity time. Freshman Jenny Wiltjer was 46th (14:05), followed by Jamie Bechina (51st 14:13), Anna Kumis (57th, 14:33), Tracy Amish (67th, 15:01) and Parva Kelkar (68th, 15:38).

"I was actually quite pleased," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "These are all new kids basically. I have only seven girls that ran on this team (last year) — total. The ones that ran for the most part ran significantly better than at the same time last year."

Coull-Parenty, who has a history of respiratory problems, said she didn't have problems breathing Saturday until the final quarter mile. Meanwhile her hip, which periodically must be popped back into joint, caused problems, and she now has tendinitis in her Achilles tendon.

One remedy has been attempting a new running style.

"I'm much more smooth when I run and it doesn't take as much (energy) to get up a hill than it did before," Coull-Parenty said. "Physically I don't know what's going to happen (this season). Mentally I know I am ready."

Junior Christy Cullen, a two-time letterwinner, finished sixth in the junior varsity race (14:08). The sophomore team finished eighth (237 points) with Liz Duvall 40th (15:13).

Hornets' Moss remains on fast track at Reavis

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

South cross country

Hinsdale South junior Katie Moss was running well during last year's sophomore race at the Reavis Invitational but couldn't sustain it down the stretch.

There was no energy crisis Saturday. Now a varsity cross country veteran, Moss held her own and finished 27th to lead the Hornets in their ninth-place finish in Burbank with 263 points. Sandburg, rated eighth in this week's Class AA poll, easily won the title with 24 points.

Moss covered the 2.2-mile course in 14 minutes, 31 seconds — a vast improvement from last year's 15:26 for 24th at the sophomore level.

"Last year, I was up in the front and then I dropped back because I lost all of my energy," Moss said. "I just wanted to get in the top 25 this year and I got 27th so I was happy with my place."

Jamie Bechina finished 43rd (14:55), followed by Christy Culen (50th, 15:10), Purva Kelkar (60th, 15:32), Tracy Amish (83rd, 16:33) and Rose Deato (85th, 16:52).

Freshman Jenny Wiltjer was eighth (14:40) in the sophomore race, where the Hornets took fifth (173 points). Freshmen Anna Kumis (27th, 15:48) and Liz Duvall (37th, 16:30) also looked strong.

"We had three freshmen among our seven best times so that was a good sign that can help us out," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "We had six girls about one minute of each other between the various races, so that's encouraging."

Moss' first two invitationals also are reason for excitement. She is establishing herself as the No. 2 runner behind junior Erika Coull-Parenty, who did not compete Saturday or Monday at Addison Trail for team reasons but is expected to return at the Minooka Invitational Saturday, Sept. 16.

Moss began making strides last year by pacing herself with now graduated teammates Liz Reese and Lisa Dicosola. Moss just missed All-West Suburban Conference Gold Division honors by taking 17th at the conference meet.

At the Hornet/Red Devil Invitational Sept. 2, Moss finished 40th with a 38-second drop from her 1994 effort there.

"I feel stronger because I don't have (Reese and Dicosola). I used to always stay with them," Moss said. "Now I try and stay with Erika, which is tough, but it makes me work harder."

"My major goal is I want to get all-conference. I really, really, really want to make it downstate this year, but it's going to be tough. I'm just trying to work really hard in the practices and meets."

Host Addison Trail defeated the Hornets 21-34 in their West Suburban Conference Gold Division triangular opener—the Blazers' first dual victory ever over the Hornets. Hinsdale South beat Proviso East 15-50.

Moss finished second (13:27 for 2.03 miles) behind Addison Trail freshman Dawn Vent (13:02), and the Blazers added the third through fifth finishers. Wiltjer (13:48) and Bechina (13:49) were sixth and seventh.

Hornets keep learning with Minooka format

Hinsdale South's Jamie Bechina wants to speed up the learning process.

In her first cross country season, the junior continued making strides Saturday by posting the team's third fastest time in the No. 4 flight of the Minooka Invitational.

Hinsdale South finished third of 20 teams with 23 points in the meet's format, which uses seven flights so runners are paired with comparable opponents. The places from each race are combined to form the team score.

Junior Erika Coull-Parenty easily won the No. 1 flight (12 minutes, 2 seconds for 2.0 miles), beating her closest competition by 34 seconds. Katie Moss' 13:23 took fifth place in the No. 2 flight.

"I felt I did pretty good but I think I have to learn to go out a little faster," said Bechina, who took fourth in the No. 4 flight (13:43). "It was kind of different because usually Erika and Katie set the pace for the team so I had to do it myself. I have to build up my confidence a little bit."

Junior Purva Kelkar (14:11), who took second in the No. 6 flight, also is a first-year runner for the Hornets. Christy Culen (13:48) was third in the No. 5 flight and freshmen Jenny Wiltjer (13:44 in No. 3 flight) and Anna Kumis (14:29 in No. 7 flight) each were fourth.

South cross country

DOINGS 9/22/95

"(Four) of the girls didn't run cross country last year and we only had four more points than last year," said Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen, whose team took second in 1994. "It was nice to see that our No. 2 through 5 people were very close to each other in time, even though they were running separate from each other. It's a very nice performance on the kids' part."

Bechina, a former volleyball player, said she joined cross country to help her in track, where she was a middle-distance runner and hurdler for the varsity this past spring.

"I'm using it to build up my endurance," Bechina said. "I'm kind of getting used to it now, but (the training and competition are) a lot different than track."

Coull-Parenty's intensified training continues to pay dividends. In her third No. 1 flight race at Minooka, she prevailed for the first time and improved her third-place time in 1994 by 18 seconds.

"(That time) is very exciting. It means I'm moving up," Coull-Parenty said. "I think what I'm doing in practice is paying off. I'm working harder."

South's Coull-Parenty finds way to climb to fastest times

The huge, rolling hills at Veterans Acres at the Crystal Lake Central Invitational were a friendly sight for Hinsdale South girls' cross country runner Erika Coull-Parenty.

All that was missing was the rain.

The junior not only enjoyed her favorite course Saturday but covered the 2.2-mile course in an impressive 13 minutes, 9 seconds to take second in the junior-senior division. Her time was 48 seconds better than her 1994 time that won the freshman-sophomore race.

"I love Crystal Lake. It's the race I look forward to every year," Coull-Parenty said. "I use the hills to my advantage because a lot of people use them against theirs.

"Freshman and sophomore year I went there and it was pouring rain. (Saturday) didn't fit the title Crystal Lake Invite. I'm happy with my time and place but I was disappointed with the weather."

Hinsdale South finished third in the junior-senior division (121 points) and fifth in the freshman-sophomore division (184 points).

Katie Moss took 19th in the junior-senior race (15:04), followed by Jamie Bechina (32nd, 15:19), Christy Culen (32nd, 15:29), Purva Kelkar (42nd, 16:04) and Tracy Amish (61st, 17:21).

In the freshman-sophomore race, Jenny Wiltjer took 14th (15:01), followed by Anna Kumis (26th, 15:33)

South cross country

and Liz Duvall (26th, 15:42).

Coull-Parenty outdid herself Monday when she finished second in the Hornets' West Suburban Conference Gold Division triangular with Downers Grove South and Morton at Katherine Legge Memorial Park.

Her time of 12:01 on the 2.0-mile KLM course is the second fastest in the program's 16-year history. Eileen Slowikowski holds the record at 11:33.

Coull-Parenty's effort remarkably came despite reinjuring her hip near the half-mile mark while battling with Downers South's Carly Nuzbach (12:00).

"(My time) makes me very happy because I didn't think I was running that fast," Coull-Parenty said. "Especially with being hurt I lost a little bit of confidence during the race."

The Hornets lost to Downers South 19-40, while beating Morton 16-43. Moss, who was seventh overall (13:17), Bechina (ninth, 13:26), Wiltjer (10th, 13:27) and Duvall (15th, 13:52) also broke the 14-minute barrier.

"Prior to this year we had maybe 30 girls that had run under 14 minutes (at KLM) and we had five, two of which were freshmen (Wiltjer and Duvall)," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said.

Freshman Wiltjer, Duvall racing like veterans for Hinsdale South

Although Jenny Wiltjer and Liz Duvall both were strong cross country runners in eighth grade, they're even better as freshman teammates at Hinsdale South.

The pair's performance helped the Hornets form a solid pack and finish 13th of 28 teams in the Red Division of the Niles West Invitational Saturday with 386 points.

Senior Katie Moss, who finished 63rd (13 minutes, 22 seconds for 2.0 miles) led a six-person group that finished within 33 seconds of each other. Wiltjer was close behind in 65th (13:23), followed by Duvall (81st, 13:37), Christy Culen (86th, 13:40), Jamie Bechina (91st, 13:44) and Purva Kelkar (96th, 13:55).

The Hornets competed without top runner Erika Coull-Parenty, who has been out since Sept. 25 with complications from her recurring hip injury.

"Our times were even better at Willowbrook (in our Oct. 2 dual) but it was still nice to see everybody run in the 13s," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "I was hoping a couple would have been a little faster but the pack was good."

Wiltjer, the Hornets' No. 3-4 runner most of the season, did her part by finishing strong with help from the veteran Moss.

"She kept me going throughout the whole race so I think I placed well," Wiltjer said. "It wasn't my best time, but I've only beaten Katie once before and I always have a goal to keep up with her. I think it was one of my best races."

Wiltjer feels she has improved drastically from her days with Cass Junior High. Duvall, who attended Gower Middle School, began on the junior varsity but now is making drastic progress for the varsity despite shin splints.

"She's really moving up," Wiltjer said. "I think in practices I try to keep up with Katie and Liz tries to keep up with me. We all push each other to get better."

The Hornets hope to make a move at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, at Willowbrook. Coull-Parenty is expected to compete after participating in a team road run Tuesday for the first time since her injury.

The overall conference standings are a 50-50 combination of dual meet and conference meet standings. The Hornets, who have been a top-three conference finisher ever since the program began in 1979, were fourth in duals at 3-3.

The JV team finished sixth at Niles West, led by Tracy Amish (21st, 14:08), Manshi Patel (37th, 14:59) and Nicki Scott's huge time drop (43rd, 15:10).

Downers South wants to regain lost crown

By Dan Chamness

Last year was the end of a long string for Downers Grove South, which didn't win a conference championship in girls cross country for the first time since 1983.

The Mustangs' string was ended by Willowbrook, which won the West Suburban Conference Gold Division outright by defeating Downers South in a dual meet and later at the league finals.

"We probably went into the conference race with a little bit of overconfidence," Downers South's Rene Mulligan said. "It is a little strange this year. For so long, we at the top of the conference, and now we have to get there again, and the feeling is a little different."

Downers South has taken the first step toward regaining the conference title. The Mustangs traveled to Willowbrook and topped the Warriors 22-35 Sept. 11.

One of the reasons why the Mustangs could regain the WSC Gold is the addition of promising freshman Carly Nuzbach, who was second overall against the Warriors.

"We were very disappointed after the Big Cat Invitational," said Nuzbach, a product of Our Lady of Peace School in Darien. "I think we knew collectively that we had to regroup for Monday's meet."

Downers South's success continued at its invitational Sept. 16. The Mustangs finished second with 57 points to Naperville North (34).

"Our entire season hinged on the Willowbrook meet," Downers South coach Lauren Hoel said. "We prepared for this meet, and I think the girls were ready physically and mentally. We have many big meets ahead of us, including the DuPage County meet (today)."

The DuPage meet will feature such powers as York and defending state champion Glenbard North.

Hinsdale South's Erika Coull-Parenty continued to improve as she posted a 12:02 win in the girls' first flight at the Minooka Flight Invitational.

"I felt a little more pressure with this type of race," Coull-Parenty said. "I watched a few of the flights before I ran and they were all very competitive, so I expected a tough race."

South's record-setting run maintains Gold streak

After missing all-conference cross country honors by one place in 1994, Hinsdale South junior Katie Moss was determined more than ever not to be denied Saturday.

When she crossed the finish line in 12th place, she had a lot more teammates to celebrate with than she, or anyone else, could have expected.

Moss was among a school-record six all-conference runners for the Hornets en route to their third-place team finish at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet at Willowbrook with 55 points.

Junior Erika Coull-Parenty, who took second place (11 minutes, 57 seconds for 2.0 miles), freshman Jenny Wiltjer (11th, 13:07), Moss (13th, 13:10), juniors Jamie Bechina (14th, 13:14) and Christy Culen (15th, 13:16) and freshman Liz Duvall (16th, 13:17) all earned All-WSC Gold honors by finishing among the top 16. Junior Purva Kelkar was 30th in 14:09.

"I almost made it (last year) and was really upset I didn't make it," Moss said. "It was a real good team race. Our pack really stuck together. I don't know how it happened, but it was great. We had some pretty tough practices during the week so that helped."

Since their program's inception in 1979, the Hornets never had more than four all-conference runners in a season. Thanks to the record-setting mark, the Hornets also maintained their streak of finishing at least among the top three in the final conference standings since 1979.

"I had told pretty much all of the girls they had a shot at (being all-conference) but no way could I have expected all of them making it," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "We had that five-person pack that was within 10 seconds of each other. We just had that pack all the way through the race."

Coull-Parenty, in her first race since being sidelined by a recurring hip injury Sept. 25, finished second in the WSC Gold Meet for the third straight time. Willowbrook senior Christine Mueller won a fourth straight league title (11:48) after pulling away from Coull-Parenty in the final 400 yards. Willowbrook won its second straight overall title with 30 points.

"It felt really good to run again," Coull-Parenty said. "In my mind, I didn't think I was ready to run in a meet let alone in a conference meet. I was very scared on how I would do. I am so proud of the entire team. When I turned around and saw all of the girls in the chute from Hinsdale South, I thought 'Wow. This is amazing.' "

The Hornets will try to maintain that momentum at the Lockport Regional at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 21. The top five teams and top five runners not among those teams advance to the East Aurora Sectional Saturday, Oct. 28.

The Hinsdale South junior varsity finished second Saturday (50 points) and tied for second in the final overall standings. Tracy Amish (fifth, 14:12), Rose Deato (seventh, 14:18),

Moss

Christina Bayer (11th, 14:39), Manshi Patel (12th, 14:46) and Jackie Ludwig (15th, 14:59) earned All-WSC Gold honors on that level.

Despite injuries, runners take third place

By Katie Harkabus
Staff Writer

This year's girls cross country team has pulled together a record of 3-3. In addition, varsity was able to place third overall in conference. JV placed second.

Individualization could best describe the attitude of this year's team. Varying abilities have come together to form a diversified team. Although these differences were evident in past years due to incoming freshmen, new athletes from other classes have emerged also. Coach Mike Madsen said, "Many new people have joined. This has been a learning experience for the team."

One example is sophomore Mary Bartocci. "Cross country has helped me to build running endurance and decrease my time. I will definitely stay on it for the next two years."

Injuries have been a major factor in determining the success of the team as well. Because good health is required for running achievement, this has proven to be a slight setback.

A past state and conference achiever, Erika Coull-Parenty knows this well. "I have not run many races due to being hurt, for now I would like to go to state and make all-conference again."

Mike Madsen also comments on the standing of the team.

"For the most part, the times are where we would like them. Injuries have many to slow down though."

Typical cross country injuries include shin splints, hurt ankles, and sore knees. Coull-Parenty is familiar with this. She is battling with shin-splints now, but still was able to perform with enough success to help the team achieve third place in conference.

1 season

Downers Grove South

The Mustangs' junior varsity finished undefeated again this season, with both the JV and sophomore teams winning the conference meet.

Coach Lauren Hoel lost several runners to injuries this season, including freshman phenom Carly Nuzbach and Dagmara Steiber. Sophomore Kelley Griffin was the top runner, winning with a time good enough to have finished all-conference for the varsity team.

Bethany McGivon finished second, followed closely by Amanda Pietrucha (fourth), and Tricia Compton (fifth). Hoel categorizes Compton as "a neat surprise, because she'd never ran before."

Hinsdale South

The Hornets finished second in the West Suburban Gold Division Conference and second at the conference meet. The Hornets had 6 girls on varsity, and 5 on the JV team to make all-conference.

Junior Tracy Amish paced the JV team with a fifth-place finish, and Rose Deato was close behind in seventh place. Other top finishers were Christina Bayer, Jackie Ludwig and Manshi Patel.

Upstate Eight

Waubonsie Valley

The Warriors freshman/sophomore team finished in second at the Upstate Eight Conference meet.

Ashley Schlesinger led the team with a second-place finish, with Nicole St. Clair close behind in fourth place. Nancy Brown finished seventh, Courtney Moran eighth, Shelly Elliot 10th and Srikala Parvathaneni 12th.

In the open race, junior Betsy Dwyer completed the course in seventh place, with senior Jennifer Brackett right behind her in 16th place.

Coach Craig Clendening said this year's team was "a lot of good kids who worked very hard and I look forward for all of them to participate in track this spring."

Moss, South respond at regional

Hinsdale South girls' cross country runner Katie Moss was the sorest competitor at the Lockport Regional Saturday.

She was also the most inspirational.

Moss overcame a hip injury suffered in a car accident only the afternoon before the race to help the Hornets finish fifth as a team with 107 points and advance to the Lincoln-Way Sectional at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 28.

By taking 26th in 13 minutes, 41 seconds for 2.0 miles as the Hornets' No. 3 runner,

South cross country

Moss' sacrifice undoubtedly made a difference in the team advancing by virtue of a top-five regional finish.

"My body's pretty stiff but I ran because it was an important meet," Moss said. "On Friday, I just took hot shower, relaxed, took Tylenol every four hours and just rested. I had to make up my mind an hour before the race. My hip really hurt but I decided to put that beside and think about the race."

Junior Erika Coull-Parenty led the Hornets by taking second (12:18), just 20 seconds behind Mt. Assisi's Cassidy Wall, the defending Class AA champion.

Freshman Jenny Wiltjer was 19th (13:17), followed by Moss, Jamie Bechina (27th, 13:45), Christy Culen (33rd, 13:56), Purva Kelkar (36th, 14:03) and Liz Duvall (52nd, 14:48), who was hampered again by ankle and shin splint problems.

"We figured it would be really hard to even qualify without Katie," Wiltjer said. "She said she wanted to run but I was afraid she was going to hurt herself even more. I think if she didn't run, everybody would have tried to step up to perform even better."

Moss was being driven home on Route 83 to pick up her car to bring to cross country practice when the car was hit on the passenger side, shattering the window. No one was seriously injured in the accident.

Moss missed practice but made her way to a team dinner later that evening to relay the news.

"She was not comfortable. That's for sure," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "She was determined that if there was any way, she would give it a good try. She was real sore but she gutted it out and ran a real inspired race for us."

Moss practically collapsed on the bus after her race Saturday. She worked to stay in shape for sectionals early this week by using the pool and bicycle and hoped to return to road training Wednesday.

The Hornets will need an even stronger race to qualify for the Saturday, Nov. 4, state meet since only the top five teams at sectionals advance, as well as the top seven runners not among those teams.

Lincoln-Way, No. 4 in the latest Prep Top Times newsletter rankings, and co-No. 6 Sandburg are expected to battle for the Lincoln-Way Sectional title. Mother McAuley and Lockport and Joliet, which finished first and second at the Lockport Regional, are among teams expected to contend for the remaining three spots.

Fourth top 10 finish within Buitron grasp

By Dan Chamness

Downers Grove North's Brigitte Buitron will be going after a lofty accomplishment at Saturday's Class AA girls cross-country meet in Peoria.

The senior takes aim at her fourth straight top 10 finish.

Buitron qualified out of the East Aurora sectional Saturday. She was fourth in 13:31. She went as part of a team as a freshman, then qualified as individual the last two years.

This year, sophomore Elizabeth Tumpach (7th, 13:19) joins her.

"I was very happy with my race," Buitron said. "I beat some people in the sectional that I had not beaten before. My coach and my parents were concerned at the opening of the race, because I was in 15th place, but I moved up."

Girls Cross Country

Hinsdale South's Erika Coull-Parenty is the only surviving member of the West Suburban Conference Gold Division. The junior ran a 13:09 for third place at Lincoln-Way to secure her place at state.

"I was very encouraged by my race," Coull-Parenty said. "Cassidy Wall of Mount Assisi was only 16 seconds in front of me, so I think I have a good shot at all-state status. I think I did much better this year, because I had some good young runners like freshman Jenny Wiltjer to work with."

Westmont was 12th with 274 points at the Class A Lisle sectional, but the Sentinels will send a pair of runners to Peoria in Juliet Grundhofer (12th, 14:01) and Betty Jurkowski (17th, 14:12).

"Our team goals were to beat Timothy Christian and come close to Kaneland," Jurkowski said. "I had an individual goal to be in the top 10. I was happy to qualify with a team last year, I think it helped me learn how to attack the state race."

Benet is off to the Class AA race as a team. The Redwings grabbed the final spot at the East Aurora sectional with 134 points, finishing just one point away from fourth-place finisher in Naperville North (133).

"Emotionally, it was a very flat race for us," Benet coach Scott Brooks said. "It was a below average race for us, but it got the job done. Basically, we used our talent level to beat most of those teams. We are capable of much better."

The Redwings reduced their pack time to 38 seconds, as Sara McCullough placed eighth (13:41) and final scorer Liz Kahling (52nd) crossed at 14:19.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Palatine wins; Panthers settle for 2nd

LINDSEY WILLHITE
Daily Herald Sports Writer

PEORIA — Another visit to Steweller Park, another hefty Class A trophy lugged home by Glenbard North.

So what if the 1995 souvenir didn't match the queen-sized one that promoted the Panthers the 1994 Class A state champs?

Pre-race favorite Palatine lived up to its billing by placing its top five between 24th and 33rd — with its lit a minuscule 10 seconds.

After the individual scorers were tallied out, the Pirates' net score of undercut Glenbard North's total 123 and forced the Panthers to settle for second.

Still, it was Glenbard North's 17th trophy in four years — head-to-head to the same case as the second-place bauble from 1992, the third-place trinket from 1993 and last year's No. 1 prize.

"The girls thought they had a shot to win it again," Panthers coach Bud Swanson said shortly after the race. "I know they'll be very disappointed for a while."

But two hours later, by the time the Panthers showed up at Peoria Central for the awards ceremony, the disappointment had lifted.

"I thought we were going to be all really sad, but we're not," said senior Jacki Hanlon, who earned all-state honors by finishing 25th. "We still get a trophy."

"We're happy," said junior Bry Houdek, who grabbed 15th place for her second all-state medallion. "We all did our best."

York did its best, too, but left Detweiler Park distinctly upset. Coming off a victory at the East Aurora sectional, the Dukes believed they had a shot at the state title.

At the minimum, York expected a top-three finish and a trophy.

Instead, the Dukes wound up with fourth for the third time in the last four years.

The raw scores showed York and Rolling Meadows tied with 215 points. Once the individual qualifiers were taken out, however, Rolling Meadows owned a 144-146 edge over the Dukes.

York consoled itself with Sandra Meneses' fourth-place finish. Meneses broke the coveted 12:00 barrier by taking the 2.1-mile course in 11:59.

"Sandra ran great," said York coach Larry Bassett. "She was right there the whole race."

Meneses would have been the top DuPage County finisher, but Glenbard West senior Nell Shields exploded in the final half-mile to take third in 11:58.

Not bad for someone who had never run the course before. Shields passed Meneses, Hersey's Jenny Zehr and defending champion Cassidy Wall of Mt. Assisi down the stretch.

"I am thrilled," Shields said. "I didn't know what to expect. I didn't know how to do the start at all."

Hinsdale South junior Erika Coull Parenty edged Downers Grove North senior Brigitte Buitron at the chute for 20th place.

Buitron still earned her fourth all state medal and extended the Trojans' string to 10 years with at least one all-stater.

Naperville North sent retiring coach Marty Bee off on a good note by climbing to ninth place. Senior Mary Speer's 27th-place finish paced the Huskies.

Benet, which hoped to reach the top five, fell to 11th place as season-long No. 1 runner Sarah McCullough was saddled with misfortune and finished as the Redwings' No. 7 runner.

Lissa Vogley picked up the slack for McCullough by finishing 36th.

Westmont embarks on a new chapter

By Dan Chamness

While some LIFE area athletes closed the book on their running careers at the state cross country meet Saturday in Peoria's Detweiller Park, others are just writing the first few chapters.

Two careers that have just started are Westmont's Kevin Bailey and Juliet Grundhofer.

During the past two years, the Sentinels have graduated some top-caliber runners on both levels.

Bailey, the brother of two-time Class A state champion Chris, started carving his own legacy into Westmont annuals.

The team accompanied Bailey to the state meet and grabbed 12th with 281 points. Bailey, a sophomore, finished 24th with a 15:57 running of the 3-mile course.

"I started passing runners after the half-mile mark," Bailey said. "In the final half-mile, I heard coach (Steve) Wolf telling me I was in 27th. I remember passing a few runners in the final stretch to the chute."

Vinod Nutakki, a senior at Westmont, barely missed all-state ranking (going to the top 25) with a 27th-place finish in 16:02.

Juliet Grundhofer and Betty Jurkowski also are following a rich Westmont tradition.

Grundhofer, a member of Westmont's Class A runner-up team last year, gained all-state honors with her 21st-place finish (12:53). Jurkowski, like Nutakki, missed on all-state honors by coming in 28th (13:02).

"Coach Wolf told us to remain in control the first 800 meters," Grundhofer said. "My goal all season was to place in top 25 runners."

Bolingbrook's David Gonzalez and Downers Grove North's Brigitte Buitron closed the book on very impressive careers in the Class AA races.

Gonzalez's 10th-place finish (14:56) gave him his third top 10 finish. This year, a leg injury hampered his progress.

"I have not worked out the last three weeks," Gonzalez said. "I have been trying to keep in shape by jumping in the pool. I was hoping to win the state title today, but different things happened. My immediate plans is to recover from this injury."

Buitron wound up her senior season with a 21st-place finish (12:14), giving her all-state honors for a fourth straight year.

"I was disappointed," Buitron said. "I wanted to finish in the top 10 all four years. I did not do very well during the race, thankfully, I had a kick at the finish and that is why I was all-state today."

Hinsdale South's Erika Coull-Parenty returned to all-state status by matching her 20th-place finish from two years ago. She ran a 12:13.

"It feels great to be back," Coull-Parenty said. "I wanted to make sure when I came out of the bottleneck, I was in good shape. I went out fast and tried to maintain my pace."

In addition to the all-state individuals, Benet Academy and Downers North sent teams to the finals. The Redwing girls were 11th with 291 points.

"We were very happy to make it down here," Benet coach Scott Brooks said. "Six of the seven girls ran the best races of their lives, so we can't really ask for more."

Downers North was 14th in the boys race, scoring 369 points.

"I will miss the seniors who are graduating," Downers North boys coach Will Kupisch said. "These seniors helped mold the team. We were finally happy to be a competitor instead of a spectator."

South's Coull-Parenty earns another state berth

Hinsdale South junior cross country runner Erika Coull-Parenty went from tears to hysteria before Saturday's Lincoln-Way Sectional, but she never lost her nerve.

After becoming frantic at the start, the junior's experience took over en route to a record-setting third-place finish and third individual berth to the Class AA state meet.

Coull-Parenty becomes the Hornets' first three-time state meet qualifier thanks to her sectional finish (13 minutes, 9 seconds for 2.14 miles) — the best individual sectional finish in the program's 17-season history. The girls' Class AA race (2.1 miles) is at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 4, at Detweiller Park in Peoria.

"I don't know why I got so nervous but it worked to my advantage," Coull-Parenty said. "I didn't know what I was capable of at the time because every meet I was improving and I was glad."

While the top five teams at sectionals qualify for state, Coull-Parenty easily advanced by finishing among the top seven individuals not among the those teams.

The Hornets were ninth as a team with 267 points. Freshman Jenny Wiltjer was 65th (14:46), followed by juniors Katie Moss (67th, 14:47), Jamie Bechina

Coull-Parenty

(68th, 14:48), Christy Culen (99th, 15:20) and Purva Kelkar (115th, 15:36). Freshman Liz Duvall, hampered by continuing ankle and shin injuries, did not finish.

Coull-Parenty, Moss and Culen were the only returning varsity letterwinners this season for the Hornets, who finished a strong third at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet Oct.

14 to finish third in the final overall standings.

"We didn't run particularly well (Saturday) but our team finish was just about as good as we could have hoped for," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "It was a very successful season, considering we had to rebuild after losing all of those seniors. We had so much in terms of unknown quantities so we're happy about what we accomplished."

Coull-Parenty's season was thrown into peril when she aggravated a hip injury in a Sept. 25 dual meet and was sidelined for 2 1/2 weeks. But she came back to finish a strong third at the WSC Gold Meet and she's been getting better ever since.

South cross country

Saturday's time was just 16 seconds behind sectional winner Cassidy Wall of Mt. Assisi — the defending Class AA state champion. Coull-Parenty finished 30 seconds behind Wall at the Lockport Regional Oct. 21.

"My sophomore year I thought (Wall) was a god. Now I'm getting close to her so it makes me feel fast," Coull-Parenty said. "It makes me feel good about myself because I can keep her in sight the entire race."

Coull-Parenty feels so good that she is looking beyond achieving all-state honors (top 25). Coull-Parenty was all-state in 1993 (20th) but dropped to 129th last year.

"I've seen other people's times and how my times have been improving and I feel I have the potential to come in the top 15 and hopefully a little lower than that," Coull-Parenty said. "I know not to go in there thinking I don't have to work because that's what I did last year and it turned out to be a complete disaster."

South's Coull-Parenty battles to all-state finish

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

Erika Coull-Parenty's cross country season full of adversity and pain ended Saturday with a surge and elation.

Overcoming yet another season riddled with injuries, the Hinsdale South junior only felt joy after her 20th-place, all-state finish at the Class AA state meet at Detweiller Park in Peoria.

Coull-Parenty earned all-state honors (top 25) for the second time — the first runner ever in the program's history to do so — by covering the 2.1-mile course in 12 minutes, 13 seconds.

Coull-Parenty beat her 20th-place time at state as a freshman by one second thanks to a burst down the stretch to pass two runners just before the finish chute. She is the program's only three-time state qualifier.

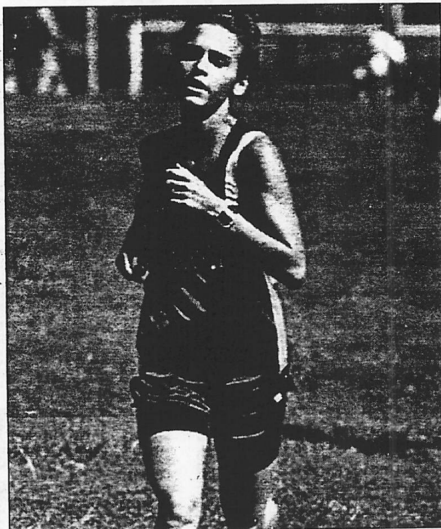

"The season had lots and lots of different obstacles to overcome this year, more than expected," Coull-Parenty said.

"It was very spontaneous. Anything could have happened. Anything happened. Everything happened. Overall, it was a great season. Even though I didn't run in some races, I had fun."

After missing 2 1/2 weeks with a recurring hip injury, Coull-Parenty returned with some of her most impressive postseason races ever despite foot pain that has been diagnosed as either a heel spur or hairline fracture. She took a couple of days off from road training before state to rest the injury.

"We've tried to play it a little bit careful with that but beyond that, things have gone real well," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said.

"This year everything she's run has been the best ever. That's why I was pretty confident she could do well down here, but the state meet does strange things to people. I told her over the last month we've gone from the outhouse to the penthouse."

During a Sept. 25 triangular meet, Coull-Parenty dislocated her hip but ran roughly the remaining 1 1/2 miles and still finished second. She completely sat out an entire week before rehabilitating with exercise bike and pool workouts.

In her return at the West Suburban

Conference Gold Division Meet Oct. 14, she finished second for the third straight year. She then finished second at the Lockport Regional and third in the Lincoln-Way Sectional — the highest individual sectional finish in school history.

"I was afraid that I wouldn't come back and be strong enough to make it to the state meet. With how I did in conference, I had more confidence in myself that I could do much better in regionals and sectionals," Coull-Parenty said. "Every week, I set a new goal for myself. I wanted to improve more and more with my time."

Cross country

Coull-Parenty used her past state experiences to her advantage Saturday. She broke out fast from her box in the middle of the starting line to avoid being bottled up. She later made a strong move in the back loop around the 1 1/4- and 1 1/2-mile mark to improve upon her top-30 spot.

As a freshman, a similar surge dramatically carried Coull-Parenty from a top-40 position. Many aspects of the race, as opposed to last year's disappointing 129th-place finish (13:30) took precedence Saturday.

"I thought of both (previous state races before I ran)," Coull-Parenty said. "I looked at the freshman aspect of it when I went in with the attitude of being scared and not knowing what to do. I looked at the sophomore aspect when I thought I was too cocky and not having to work (to succeed)."

"I decided to go with the freshman attitude and just to run and not pay attention to how I did the previous years. I got back on the good side."
