Hornets strive for success behind pack of newcomers

Hinsdale South girls cross country coach Mike Madsen will need a long time to figure out this year's lineup.

After graduating five starters from last year's team, including three-time all-stater Erika Coull-Parenty and 1996 state qualifier Dalia Wenckus, the Hornets are starting over with the biggest turnout in program history (36).

Veronica

Kumis

"We'll have numbers. We'll have fun. Success is a question mark," said Madsen, whose team opens in the annual Hornet-Red Devil Invitational Saturday, Sept. 6, at Katherine Legge Memorial Park with the varsity girls race at 10:40 a.m.

"The kids have just been working together and getting along really well. They're just learning together and don't really worry about (the graduations). It's a new group and everybody's enthusiastic."

The Hornets will try to continue their West Suburban Conference Gold Division success. Last season, they were second in the conference meet and overall standings and took fifth in regionals and 10th at sectionals.

Juniors Missy Veronica, an All-WSC Gold runner in 1996 by finishing among the top 16 at the conference meet (12th), and Anna Kumis, a two-year letterwinner, lead the returnees.

Veronica, hampered by shin problems, and junior Liz Duval, an All-WSC Gold finisher in 1995 but injured most of last year, will battle to stay healthy.

Juniors Anjali Iyengar, Joni Rancho and Carli Spanik and sophomore Dyana Leung helped the Hornets dominate last year's conference junior varsity race. Iyengar, Rancho and

South cross country

Spanik finished first through third and Leung was sixth.

In the varsity race, the Hornets finished second to Willowbrook despite having the top two finishers in Coull-Parenty and Wenckus.

"We're going to have to make a pack this year," Madsen said. "All of the girls are fairly close to each other (in ability). They're all decent runners but there are no superstars in there."

Four new cross country runners — senior Corinne Pahr and juniors Natalie Kong, Leah Rautkys and Bianca Taylor — could supplement that group.

Pahr is an all-conference basketball player and Taylor was a member of the Hornets' sixth-place 3,200-meter relay team at the state meet in May. Kong and Rautkys were all-conference performers at the sophomore conference track meet.

Freshmen who could contribute include Becca Duvall, a standout runner at Gower Junior High School, and Kate Pachmayer, Lauren Carkhuff and Katie Hoganson, who were part of Cass Junior High School's dominant squad.

"I've told the kids early we're going to keep the freshmen and sophomores down the first couple of meets and let a lot of the juniors and seniors run varsity," Madsen said. "We'll probably wait until the conference duals to (use) our best lineup."

Willowbrook and Downers Grove South again are the conference teams to beat. The Hornets have never won the overall WSC Gold title but have finished among the top three every year since 1979.

"We'll shoot for our traditional top three and see how far this relatively new group progresses," Madsen said. "I have been very pleased so far as far as team camaraderie and spirit and willingness to learn."

Other teams to watch: Naperville North, Glenbard West, St. Francis, Glenbard North, Willowbrook, Wheaton North, Waubonsie Valley.

West Suburban Gold ADDISON TRAIL

Coach: Chuck Morgan (13th year)

Last year: 4th in WSGC

Postseason: 7th at Fenton regional

Key losses: Dawn Vent, Jennifer Slawson

Top competitors: Mary McGreal, so.; Monali Patel, so.; Danielle Sosa, jr.; Michelle Molnor, sr.; Lauren Sala, sr.

Blazers outlook: Addison Trail is rebuilding around three experienced runners. The seniors are new to the program. "It's going to be a difficult season," Morgan said. "Hopefully, they'll come together as a group. The best thing is they're a really nice bunch of kids."

DOWNERS GROVE SOUTH

Coach: Ann Belskis (2nd year)

Last year: 3rd in WSGC

Postseason: 7th at Hinsdale Central regional

Key losses: Rene Mulligan

Mustangs outlook: After a season of adjusting, Downers South is a contender again. Nuzbach is running like she was two years ago as the WSGC's top freshman. Nuzbach, Pekar, Griffin and McGibbon qualified for state in the 3,200 relay. Valentour, Compton and Auriene have run well. "This should be a pretty good year," Belskis said. "Everybody's really healthy and we have a little more depth."

HINSDALE SOUTH

Coach: Mike Madsen (17th year)

Last year: 2nd in WSGC

Postseason: 5th at Hinsdale Central regional; 10th at East Aurora sectional

Key losses: Erika Coull-Parenty (11th at state), Dalia Wenckus (51st), Jarnie Bechina, Christy Culen, Katie Moss.

Returning sectional qualifiers: Missy Veronica, jr.; Anjali Iyengar, jr.

Other top competitors: Anna Kumis, jr.; Ajjeli Iyengar, jr.; Joni Ranchoero, jr.; Carl Spanik, jr.; Dylana Laung, so.; Natalie Kong, jr.; Leah Raukstys, jr.; Corinne Pahr, sr.; Liz Duvall, jr.; Lauren Carkhuff, jr.

Hornets outlook: Hinsdale South has been decimated by graduation. All-stater Coull-Parenty and Wenckus were 1-2 at the WSGC meet. All-conference pick Veronica leads the WSGC junior varsity top three; Iyengar, Ranchoero and Spanik. The Hornets won the JV meet. Iyengar is hampered by a stress fracture. "We have numbers, but we sure don't have experience," Madsen said. "We'll have to see how much the JV kids have improved. We'll have to do it as a pack."

WILLOWBROOK

Coach: Margo Miller (17th year)

Last year: 1st in WSGC

Postseason: 3rd at Glenbard East regional; 14th at East Aurora sectional

Key losses: Julie Rauch, Michelle Overmyer

Returning sectional qualifiers: Jenny Goebel, so. (102nd at state); Liana Bracker, jr.; Jessica Rodenbostel, so.; Maggie Granath, so.; Vicky Warner, jr.

Other top competitors: Trudy DePue, sr.; Lisa Bracker, so.; Abbie Colfer, so.; Elaine Jackson, so.; Kim Kral, jr.; Meghan Roth, jr.; Julie Anderson, sr.

Warriors outlook: Willowbrook will be better with a year of maturity. Goebel (3rd

State champion stays the course—in 3 sports

By Marlen Garcia
TRIBUNE STAFF WRITER

Rebecca Mitchell had barely enough time to bask in the glory of her first Class AA state cross-country championship last November.

Sura, the Geneva runner took a day or two to reflect on her achievement: She became the second freshman state champion since Wheeling's Dana Miroballi won the first of her four titles in 1994.

Unlike Miroballi, however, Mitchell was undefeated heading into the Illinois High School Association state finals. By the time runners approached the starting line in Peoria's Detweiller Park, few doubted she would win the title; many wondered how close her nearest competitor would finish the 2.1-mile course. The dubious honor went to Bloomington junior Christin Wurth, who finished 19 seconds behind Mitchell's time of 11 minutes 30 seconds.

But her celebration was short-lived. Amid the festivities, Mitchell, who had 10 major-meet victories to tie for third on the IHSA's single-season-victory list, remembered state swimming sectionals were a few weeks away. Why the top girls cross-country runner in the state cared about another fall sport involves a tiring explanation.

"I have been swimming since I was 6," says the 15-year-old, who began racing and winning national cross-country and track meets in junior high. "I wake up at 5 a.m. and leave the house at 5:30 for swimming. I come home at 7 and start school at 7:40.

"At 3 p.m. I have cross-country practice. Then I go home and do homework until 7 p.m. I go back for more swim practice from 7:30 until 9. Then it's more homework and I go to bed at 10 or 10:30."

She speaks of her schedule, which includes two swim practices a day except on weekends, with great energy and enthusiasm. Mitchell's eyes widen and a contagious smile appears when she talks about sports.

"You have to squeeze in a social life," she says. "I love the fact that I can do both sports."

Mitchell is part of a small group of swimmers whose members train on their own (Geneva doesn't have a pool) but represent the school in the state series.

Top 5 girls teams

1. Palatine

The defending state champion Pirates didn't have a finisher in the top 20 in last year's state meet. It didn't matter. They had six runners in the top 66; only 30 seconds and 45 finishers separated No. 1 runner Holly Fearing (21st) from the No. 6 runner. Five of the top seven runners return, including Fearing, a senior who finished seventh in the 3,200-meter run (11:16.85) and the 1,600 (5:09.18) at the Class AA state track and field finals in the spring. Also returning are seniors Cherisse Lancaster (29th), Christine Jackson (46th), Kristina Strande (60th) and sophomore Lori Stutzman (66th). Lancaster and Jackson were members of the eighth-place 3,200 relay team in track. Palatine owns the girls' state record for cross-country championships with six and won its second straight last fall. In fact, except for 1993 and '94, the Pirates have won Class AA state titles every year dating back to 1989.

2. York

York, third in last year's state meet, is the only team—boys or girls—that has all seven runners back from last season's state championships, which prompted Naperville North coach Dan Iverson to say: "York has the most talent in the state. They work hard and they're fast. They have speed, which is essential to being a distance runner." The Dukes' quickness was evident at the state track finals, where they won the 3,200 relay behind then-freshmen Laura Fitzgerald and Eva Zellman, Cell Williams and Anne Machalinski. Senior Nancy Steinbach returns as the top gun after finishing 27th at the state meet last season.

3. St. Charles

Tera Moody finished sixth at state in '95, was fourth last year, and she's now only a junior. She is expected to contend for the state title after struggling with heat and humidity Downstate in track in the 1,600 (finishing last in the final) and the 3,200 (fourth). She has been stronger with the cooler weather for the state cross-country finals in November, and her team, which finished second last season, has depth. The Saints return All-Stater Carrie DePiazza (17th), who cut back her summer basketball schedule to increase running workouts, according to coach Tom Roderick. "She may be recognizing she has a chance of competing in college," Roderick said. "She's taken on the responsibility of being the leader." DePiazza is the lone senior for the Saints, who will also rely on Juniors Renee Kleckner (67th) and Lauren Brannon (128th) and sophomore Denise Hefferin (97th).

4. Benet

The Redwings should recover from the loss of their Nos. 2 (Sarah McCullough) and 3 (Katie Bringer) runners with junior Liz Kahling back from an injury and five others back from last year's team that was fourth in Peoria. Kahling spent the summer training with teammate Lissa Vogley, and coach Scott Brooks believes "she could every bit as good as Lissa." That's a strong statement, considering Vogley will vie for a state title after a sixth-place finish last season that was followed by a second-place medal in the 3,200 (10:57.96) at the state track finals. Brooks is also expecting improvement from junior Chrissy Mayer (69th in cross country), senior Mo McNally (148th) and sophomores Liz Corbett (126th) and Jenny Gushurst (127th).

5. Lincoln-Way

Junior Kate Henning, seventh at state last year, leads a group of five runners with state-meet experience. That group would have included six runners, but junior Lauren Coffey (77th) opted for club soccer. Head coach Phil Hoffman, whose team placed fifth in Peoria last November, won't dwell on the loss, because senior Julie McHugh moves up in the lineup after posting times of 2:24 in the 800 and 1:00 in the 400 in the spring. The Knights will also rely on Sarah Lowe (38th) and Michele Barowman (74th).

Best of the rest: Sandburg, Naperville North, Wheaton-Warrenville South, Naperville Central, Stevenson, Elk Grove, Schaumburg, Fremd, Herscher, Lemont.

she best illustrates a "winning isn't everything" philosophy. Her accolades in swimming don't compare with those in cross country. She finished sixth in the 100-yard butterfly at the West Chicago sectional last year.

"I wouldn't be as good in running if I hadn't started swimming first," she says. "Swimming gives me endurance. It's something [I feel] I have to do, but I want to do it."

"Swimming makes me understand what it's like to be in the middle working to get to the top. It keeps me humble."

Geneva coach Suzi Yaeger also believes swimming has strengthened the 100-pound Mitchell, who

"Some freshman phenoms come out and they disappear," Yaeger says. "Some get bored. Rebecca is already interested in other activities. She has a busy brain."

Mitchell's ordinary finishes as a swimmer helped her cope with losses she had in track. She was hampered by a disease that affects the cartilage and bone below the kneecap, after she grew from 5 feet to 5-4. She missed most of the track season, though she regained form to capture the 1,600-meter state title.

There were other setbacks. In the last year, her swim club coach took another job, her best friend moved to another town and she left her private running coach to train strictly under Yaeger. These topics make her smile fade—but only briefly, because she quickly moves on to a triumphant moment: her 1,600 title.

"[Winning state] in cross country was the best, but track was so rewarding because I had been hurt. I showed I'm still a."

Mitchell doesn't expect to remain undefeated in cross country—it isn't a goal. Her training this summer was relaxed. She finished sixth in the 1,500 at Junior Nationals in June and didn't race thereafter. Her vulnerable side showed in track, but it doesn't bother her.

"Track was a blessing in disguise," she says. "People know I'm human. Winning matters, but time and improvement are so much more important. People are so caught up in winning. It's as if you're not good if you don't win. You need to look at time."

Girls Cross Country

Corinne Parr, Natalie Kong and Dylana Leung led the Lady Hornets to an 8th place finish, Saturday at the 15-team Red Devil/Hornet Invitational. Kong was the first Hornet to finish, coming in 29th place out of more than 100 runners with a time of 13:34. Joni Rancho finished in 50th place and Pahr was 53rd.

This year's runners are a young team relying heavily on talented underclassmen. Among the standout freshmen and sophomores are Leung, Becka Duvall, Colleen Inish and Lauren Carkhuff. Said Kong, "We have a good balance of talented frosh-soph runners and experienced juniors and seniors."

Olson, Devils have healthy outlook for season

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

Hinsdale Central cross country runner Caroline Olson's four-year varsity career has been a story of great starts at the season-opening Hornet-Red Devil Invitational — and injuries.

On Saturday, the senior didn't just finish among the top 10 in the race for the third straight year but was an impressive second with a time of 12 minutes, 32 seconds on the Katherine Legge Memorial Park course. Although Olson finished one minute behind Bloomington's Christin Wurth, second in Class AA last year, she was seven seconds ahead of third-place Wheaton Warrenville South senior Kerry Kagy, who was 58th at state.

And Olson did all of that even though her summer running was hindered by another injury (inflammation around her knee) that forced her to train primarily by biking.

"I'd like to think I can (stay healthy) and hopefully I will," said Olson.

"I was not expecting to run this well but it's really exciting. I was just going to go out there and do the best I could. Actually, I guess (the biking) kept me in pretty good shape. You don't realize how much it helps your cardiovascular system."

The Red Devils (63 points) finished third for the third straight year behind Wheaton South (48) and Naperville Central (60).

Katie Maran took eighth for the Red Devils (12:52), followed by Cristina Sisson (11th, 12:55), Irandi Gunawardene (18th, 13:06), Melissa Maestri (41st, 14:06) and Erin Ekblad (46th, 14:15).

Maran earned her highest finish ever in an invitational. Olson and Maran ran on the Red Devils' 11th-place 3,200-meter relay team at the state track meet in May.

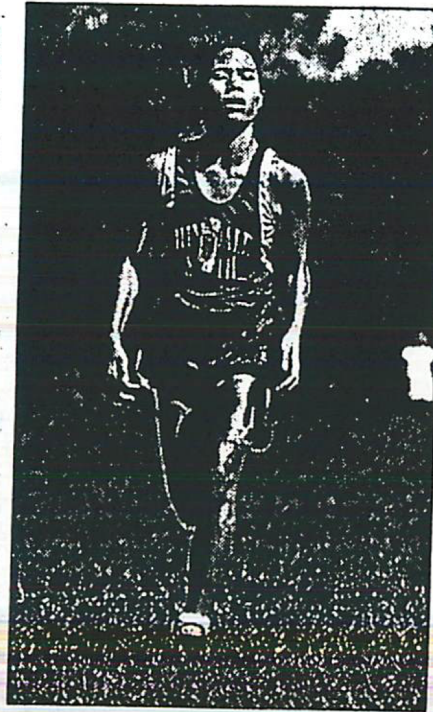

"A lot of (my success) was just staying focused on the people ahead of me," Maran said. "There was a little pack a few feet ahead of us and I was just trying to work up to that little group and I caught a couple of them at the end."

In the sophomore race, Jamie Mantey (14:09), Laura Kimberly (14:09) and Paige Homeyer (14:17) were 27th through 29th. Kaylan Eggert was 14th in the junior varsity race (14:23).

Hinsdale South

Hinsdale South junior Natalie Kong's running has come a long way.

Besides making strides on the track scene, Kong enjoyed a strong start to her cross country career by finishing 29th

(13:34 for 2.0 miles) as the Hornets' No. 1 finisher at Saturday's Hornet-Red Devil Invitational at KLM.

Cross country

"I started out freshman year doing track at the back of the sprinting group. It's a big difference," said Kong, an all-conference performer for the sophomore track team this past spring.

"I really enjoyed track and I really improved last year and I thought cross country could just make me a better runner. It has so far. This is only my second time running two miles ever in a race so I'm pretty happy with it."

Hinsdale South, eighth with 242 points, had a solid pack behind Kong with Joni Ranchero (50th, 14:21), Corinne Pahr (53rd, 14:35), Carli Spanik (54th, 14:36), Anna Kumis (56th, 14:44), Christina Bayer (58th, 14:51) and Liz Duvall (63rd, 15:02). Pahr and Spanik also ran their first cross country races.

"We have to survive on pack running this year and this was an excellent start," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said.

The Hornets also had a strong pack in the sophomore race. Hinsdale South finished fourth with Dyana Leung taking 11th (13:45), Colleen Amish (16th, 13:49), Rebekah Duvall (20th, 13:54), Lauren Carkhoff (22nd, 14:02) and Katie Pachmayer (34th, 14:30).

South's Rancho improves at Reavis; Toporkiewicz continues strong start

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

The overall place was a little lower this year for Hinsdale South junior girls cross country runner Joni Rancho at the Reavis Invitational Saturday, but the feeling was a whole lot better.

Rancho took 26th in Burbank in a personal-best time of 13 minutes, 50 seconds over 2.0 miles. The Hornets finished fourth (197 points) by beating Thornton Fractional South on a sixth-runner tiebreaker.

Last year, Rancho was 24th at the Reavis Invitational but that was in the sophomore race. Saturday's time was 32 seconds faster.

"I've improved a lot. I came in (about) the same place in varsity so that's pretty good for me," Rancho said. "I was working pretty hard this week in practice. I wanted to break 14:00 and I did. I'm happy I reached my goal."

Natalie Kong led Hinsdale South by finishing 17th (13:24), followed by Rancho.

Kong used a late surge to improve her finish. Madura, a senior, was making her cross country debut.

"She only missed a ribbon by a few places (top 50) but I'm glad to see her up there and even be that close in her first time out," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said.

The Hornets' sophomore team also finished fifth with Dylana

Leung 11th (13:28), followed by Becca Duvall (19th, 13:55), Colleen Amish (30th, 14:25), Katie Hoganson (33rd, 14:37) and Lauren Markovic (37th, 14:47). Senior Bianca Taylor also ran well, taking 13th in the open race in 14:08.

On Monday, the Hornets coasted past Addison Trail 17-45 in their West Suburban Conference Gold Division opener. Kong easily won the 2.0-mile race in 13:14, with Leung (13:29) and Rancho (13:36) second and third and Amish (14:04), Taylor (14:13), Spanik (14:16) and Becca Duvall (14:18) fifth through eighth.

Hinsdale South boys

Hinsdale South sophomore boys cross country runner Marcin Toporkiewicz has undergone several changes since coming to the United States from Poland in December 1995: a new country, new people — and lots of running.

"I did not practice running (in Poland). I ran two races that were more like cross country races, a little bit more than a mile," Toporkiewicz said.

On Monday, Toporkiewicz turned in his most impressive race yet as he took first place by 34 seconds in the Hornets' 16-46 victory over Addison Trail in their West Suburban Conference Gold Division dual opener.

Toporkiewicz covered the 3.0 miles in 16 minutes, 33 seconds, followed by seniors Mike Callan (17:07) and Manny Najera (17:17) and freshman Breat Gaeta (17:24). Junior Jun-Jun Vichaikul was sixth (17:35).

South cross country

A former soccer player, Toporkiewicz opted to join cross country this year to continue his training after winning two individual sophomore conference track titles.

On Saturday, he finished third in the sophomore race at the Reavis Invitational (16:44 for 3.0 miles) after missing three days of school with illness.

"Ever since he came out for the team he's been running very, very well," Hinsdale South coach Dave Jackson said. "He didn't really go out hard. He ran the first mile in 5:24. Then he ran a 5:22 second mile and really put the distance between him and the rest of the field."

"I was trying to work on my second mile," Toporkiewicz added. "My third mile was a little bit slower. I'm going to try and work so I can run low 16:00s or high 15:00s."

At Reavis, the Hornets finished 12th on the varsity level with 349 points. Najera (42nd, 17:22) was their top finisher, followed by Vichaikul (47th, 17:30), Callan (64th, 18:01), Nick Maslowski (97th, 19:28), Vik Donthamsetti (99th, 19:38) and Chris Heery (112th, 21:28).

The sophomore team finished third (112 points).

Which of Hinsdale South sophomore Colleen Amish's emotions was going to prevail in the Flight 4 race of Saturday's Minooka Invitational?

The optimism from a pain-free Achilles' tendons or the concerns of not being able to pace with freshman teammate Becka Duvall?

The answer was clear from Amish's smile. She not only finished fourth in her flight but did so in a personal-best time of 13 minutes, 21 seconds.

The Hornets took fifth (35 points) under the meet format where teams enter runners in each of the seven flights with the individual places combined for the team score.

"(My Achilles tendons) felt good because I had biked for two days to rest them," Amish said. "I came into the meet knowing I was going to do good. I just felt it.

"(But) it was different. Becka Duvall is usually the one I push myself with. I (thought) 'What am I going to do?' When I was running I (thought), 'That (opponent) is ahead of me. I'll just try to keep up with her.'"

Carli Spanik (second in No. 7 flight, 13:44) and Bianca Taylor (third in No. 6 flight, 13:43) set the tone Saturday with high finishes. Natalie Kong took ninth in the first flight (12:56), Duvall was fifth in the No. 5 flight (13:58) and Dylana Leung (13:07 in No. 2 flight) and Joni Ranchero (13:47 in No. 3 flight) each finished sixth.

Amish also posted the team's third best time in Monday's West Suburban Conference Gold Division triangular.

Not bad for a first-year cross country runner who simply hoped to break 13:30 this season.

"I want to be all-conference," Amish said. "The first time I ever ran at practice I did the first mile and a half really slow. I've learned how to get pretty even splits so that helps."

On Monday, the Hornets beat host Leyden 16-42 while losing to Downers Grove South 18-38. Kong finished third (13:20) with Ranchero (13:38), Amish (13:40) and Leung (13:48) seventh through ninth.

Hinsdale South girls

WSC Gold favorite Willowbrook defeated the Hornets 15-48 in dual action Monday in Villa Park.

Junior Natalie Kong broke the Warriors' top seven for the Hornets (2-2 in WSC Gold) by taking sixth in 13:11 for 2.0 miles, followed by Joni Rancho (ninth, 13:41), Becca Duvall (10th, 13:47), Carli Spanik (11th, 13:48), Dylana Leung (12th, 13:53), Colleen Amish (14th, 14:12) and Bianca Taylor (16th, 14:25).

Another conference crown peted on the sophomore level. Ebony Oliver was ninth, Bridget Healy 16th and Katie Fied 33rd. The freshman trio is entrenched in the varsity lineup.

Sophomore Michelle Bezdicek placed 17th in the open division in the Janesville Invitational last weekend. Sophomores Elida Gonzalez and Jin You have helped, along with freshmen Lauren Moore and Mandy Krause.

Neuqua Valley

The first-year team has finished fifth at the Hornet-Red Devil Invitational, seventh at Kaneland and 10th at the Big Cat.

Waubonsie Valley

The Warriors won the Aurora City Meet on the sophomore level, but compete primarily as a junior varsity.

Junior Lynette Lim was fifth, junior Kendra Wood seventh, senior Charity Pruitt 10th, senior Nicole St. Clair 11th and junior Kathy McNicholas 18th at Kaneland. If the JV meet had been scored Waubonsie Valley would have been second.

Other key squad members are junior Audra Solarski and sophomores Christina Farrell and Caroline Soong.

West Suburban Gold

Addison Trail

A late recruit allowed the Blazers to compete at the sophomore level. Freshman Melissa Steiner joined during the season. Coach Chuck Morgan said she has shown remarkable determination and made fast progress.

Sophomores Mary McGreal and Monali Patel have been the leaders along with freshman Megan Bailey. Freshman Debbie Panzarella has been a steady runner.

Addison Trail placed fourth at the Warren Invitational.

"We're not have a big front runner, but I'm really happy with the younger kids," Morgan said. "This is my last year, and whoever takes my place will inherit a pretty good group of young kids."

Hinsdale South

The Hornets have their largest group and are well-balanced.

Hinsdale South was fourth in the freshman-sophomore division of its own Hornet-Red Devil Invitational. Sophomore Dylana Leung, sophomore Colleen Amisch and freshman Becca Duvall have since been promoted to the varsity. Freshman Katie Pachmayer was injured in that race and hasn't competed since.

Willowbrook

The all-sophomore Warriors have shown steady improvement and been the top team in the WSGC. They won the Maine East Invitational and were fourth at Argo.

Lisa Bracker, Kim Kral, Elaine Jackson, Liz Moritz, Stephanie Staples, Jenny Beeman, Debbie Joorfetz and Katie Raft are the heart of the team.

West Suburban Silver

Downers Grove North

The Trojans' depth extends beyond the varsity level.

Freshman Courtney Tumpach was fifth and sophomore Alison Polzin 14th last Saturday at the DuPage County meet.

Sophomore Katie Barnett missed that race, because of an injury but has been North's No. 3 runner. Sophomore sprinter Courtney Parker has adapted well to cross country.

Sophomore Gaby Buitron, sophomore Miranda Bertram, freshman Catherine Menke and freshman Callie Niedoospital also have been important cogs.

Hinsdale Central

Sophomore Sarah Seiferth led the Red Devils at the DuPage County meet and finished eighth overall.

Jessica Bryan, Jenny Stone, Lauren Quirke, Tiffany Shu, Rachel Pierson, Amy Gill, Katie Hopkinson, Laura Kimberly Liz McNichols, Rina Mady, Lisa Marsick, Jamie Mantey, Colleen Johnson and Amy Ditewig were among those who competed.

York

The Dukes again are one of the area's best sophomore teams. They finished second at the Big Cat Invitational and the DuPage County Meet.

Varsity veteran Laura Fitzgerald won the county meet in 13:57 with Lori McEllin third and Eva Zellman seventh. Fitzgerald and McEllin competed at the 1996 Class AA varsity state meet. All are sophomores.

Conference success comes in threes for Hornets

The Hinsdale South girls cross country team's version of the three-peat is alive and well.

The Hornets have never won a conference title, but they have finished among the top three every year since 1979. And the Hornets are in great shape to do that again after edging Morton 27-28 Monday at Katherine Leage Memorial Park.

The victory gives the Hornets (4-2 in West Suburban Conference Gold Division), who also beat Proviso East 15-50, third in the conference standings heading into the Oct. 18 conference meet.

"(Hinsdale South coach Mike Madden) totally emphasized that (top-three streak)," Hinsdale South junior Natalie Kong said. "He was very honest and said we all have to work together as a team. Hopefully we can keep beating them, keep up the tradition."

Kong finished second (13 minutes, 7 seconds for 2.0 miles). Colleen Amish (13:21), Joni Ranchoero (13:25) and Carli Spanik (13:30) were fourth through sixth, and Dylana Leung was 10th (13:40).

Spanik finished two to three seconds ahead of Morton's No. 3-5 runners. Leung edged Morton's No. 6 runner by one second.

"On the bus they were telling us how it was going to be really close," Spanik said. "At the last hill (the Morton trio) totally sprouted ahead of me but then at the end I caught them back. The whole race was strategic."

The Hornets finished ninth (265 points) at Saturday's Niles West Invitational. Kong was 31st (13:06 for 2.0 miles), followed by Ranchoero (46th, 13:27), Spanik (58th, 13:54), Anjali Iyengar (64th, 14:01), Bianca Taylor (66th, 14:03), Liz Duvall (72nd, 14:15), Christina Bayer (76th, 14:18) and Janet Masura (79th, 14:22).

The second-place sophomore team was led by Leung (sixth, 13:37), Amish (seventh, 13:38) and Becka Duvall (11th, 13:53).

Hinsdale Central girls

Jamie Mantey knows the unpredictability of cross country.

This past summer, the freshman thought she signed up for the Red Devils' track camp. It turned out to be for cross country, but she liked it so much she went out for the team.

On Saturday, Mantey made her varsity debut by herself in the No. 7 flight of the Wheaton North Falcon Classic. Mantey, 17th in 14:30 for 2.2 miles, helped the Red Devils take 24th (149 points) in the seven-flight format.

"I kind of felt more pressure, but I don't get that nervous for meets. I just ran normally and had fun," Mantey said. "I kind of liked (the format) because you can compare yourself to your teammates."

Caroline Olson had the team's fastest time (13:36) for 18th in the No. 2 flight, followed by Ashley Mason (25th in No. 1 flight, 13:48), Cristina Sisson (26th in No. 3 flight, 14:15), Melissa Maestri (20th in No. 4 flight, 14:21), Katie Moncton (21st in No. 5 flight, 14:24), Mantey and Irandi Gunawardene (22nd, in No. 6 flight, 14:43), Sarah Selferth won the sophomore open race (13:59) with Kaylan Eggett eighth (14:16).

Downers Grove North defeated the Red Devils 15-50 Oct. 2.

Hinsdale Central boys

Even with intermittent rain Saturday, senior Andrew Langworthy and junior

Andy Demetra didn't miss their chance to shine Saturday.

The pair took advantage of the seven-flight format of the Crete-Monee Power Walk to finish third in their respective races.

"It's one opportunity for guys who are not No. 1 or No. 2 to score low and contribute points and not just moral support," said No. 7 flight runner Langworthy (16:05 for 2.85 miles). "I went in believing there weren't any guys I couldn't run with since I believe our team is one of the best in the state."

Besides Langworthy and Demetra (15:31 in No. 5 flight), other finishers were Colin Waife (11th in No. 2 flight, 15:29), Mike Seman (20th in No. 1 flight, 15:33), Chris Demetra (eighth in No. 3 flight, 15:45), Lawrence Ou (17th in No. 5 flight, 15:58) and Chris Kenna (14th in No. 6 flight, 16:02). The Red Devils finished ninth (76 points).

Andy Demetra, the team's top sophomore runner in 1996, also received a boost of confidence.

"You have a different mentality when you're up in front than when you're not with the frontrunners," he said. "I knew my responsibilities and I'm one of those people that knows how to run my own race. It's just a good springboard for me."

On Oct. 2, the Red Devils beat Downers Grove North 23-34 with Seman winning in 15:47.

At Saturday's Niles West Invitational, Pete Kachadurian was fourth in the sophomore race (11:06 for 2.0 miles).

Hinsdale South boys

Sophomore Marcin Toporkiewicz and the Hornets made a good showing for the future Monday.

Cross country

Although they suffered their first WSC Gold Division dual loss in an 18-41 setback to state-ranked Morton at KLM, the Hornets were encouraged by course-best times from Toporkiewicz (fourth, 16:34 for 3.0 miles) and senior Manny Najera (sixth, 16:50) and a quickly improving underclass group.

Freshman Brent Gaeta (17:08) and senior Mike Callan (17:23) were ninth and 10th for the Hornets, who also beat Proviso East 15-50.

"We knew Morton had a good team and we were trying to get our best to compete," Toporkiewicz said. "I was trying to stay in the top three. I will try and compete with Morton at conference and regionals."

On Saturday, the varsity finished 20th at the Niles West Invitational (485 points). Najera took 28th (16:22 for 3.0 miles), followed by Callan (70th, 18:43), Jun-Jun Vichaiuk (82nd, 17:12), Chris Nelsen (152nd, 18:22), Nick Maslowski (172nd, 18:43) and Tom Accettura (191st, 19:08).

Meanwhile, the sophomore team took fourth with Toporkiewicz winning (10:36 for 2.0 miles) and Bobby Konieczny (11:10) and Dariusz Sconiers (11:12) fifth and sixth. Gaeta (third, 11:09) led the freshmen to an eighth-place finish.

On Oct. 2, Hinsdale South was seventh in the sophomore level and eighth on the freshman level at the 40-team Andrew Invitational.

Toporkiewicz took second (15:35 for 2.83 miles) and Gaeta was fifth (9:52 for 1.86 miles) in their respective races.

Hornets hold places with solid Gold races

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

South cross country

While a young Hinsdale South boys cross country team gradually gains experience, senior Mike Callan made his experience count Saturday.

In his final West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet, Callan was an impressive eighth at McCollum Park in Downers Grove to help the Hornets finish second to state-ranked Morton and take second in the overall standings.

Callan, one of only two seniors to run varsity, covered the 3.0 miles in 16 minutes, 26 seconds after finishing 27th at the 1996 meet in his first season of cross country.

"I knew it was my last conference race and I tried to make it a good one," Callan said. "I ran a lot over the summer and I worked hard during the season and it paid off. I worked hard to achieve (all-conference) and it finally happened."

Sophomore Marcin Toporkiewicz (fifth, 16:03), freshman Brent Gaeta (10th, 16:32) and sophomore Bobby Konieczny (14th, 16:39) also were all-conference with top-16 finishes. Junior Jun-Jun Vichaikul (17th, 16:44) just missed, followed by junior Chris Nelson (31st, 18:17) and senior Nick Maslowski (39th, 19:20).

The Hornets (50 points) finished 34 points behind Morton but 42 ahead of Willowbrook.

"We were hoping to get second in the conference and we did it," Toporkiewicz said. "I was hoping to get top five in the conference. And I had my best time. I think I could run faster if I stay focused."

Gaeta is the Hornets' first all-conference varsity runner as a freshman in a decade.

"I didn't know how tough the conference was going to be. The (high finish in our) first meet kind of surprised me," Gaeta said. "I think I've just trained really hard and I ran all summer."

The Hornets must battle at the Lyons Township Regional at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25, in Western Springs. Only the top five teams and five runners not among those teams advance to the East Aurora Sectional Saturday, Nov. 1.

"We'll have to run very, very well to qualify as a team," Hinsdale South coach Dave Jackson said.

Lower-level all-conference runners were junior varsity champion Ashan Salim (17:04), Vik Domahusetti (7th, 18:06) and Tom Accettura (8th, 18:01); Joe Valach (5th, 18:25) and Jim Holy (15th, 21:10) on the sophomore level; and freshmen Mehul Patel (4th, 11:35 for 2.0 miles), Jeff Kondraschow (6th, 11:55) and Neel Patel (16th, 12:15).

Hinsdale South girls

Hinsdale South junior Joni Rancho thought her all-conference dream was locked up at Saturday's WSC Gold Meet with the 16th and final spot.

Then ...

"This one girl came out of nowhere and passed me right at the chute," Rancho said. "I thought I didn't get it so I was all upset."

Luckily, Rancho actually was 16th. It turned out to be the only close call for the Hornets as they easily took third and third in the overall standings.

Junior Natalie Kong, who was 10th (12:19) on the short 2.0-mile McCollum Park course, and sophomore Colleen Amish (11th, 12:20) — both first-year runners — and Rancho (12:27) were all-conference. Junior Carl Spanik was 19th (12:43), followed by freshman Becca Duval (22nd, 12:52), sophomore Dylana Leung (29th, 13:18) and junior Liz Duval (38th, 13:43).

Willowbrook scored 19 points for the overall title, followed by Downers Grove South (47), the Hornets (78) and Morton (93).

Hinsdale South, a top-three conference finisher every year since 1979, only beat Morton 27-28 Oct. 6. The Mustangs have since lost their No. 1 runner.

"We had some kids that ran real well. Most of them had their best times ever," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said.

Kong still wishes she were a little faster. She was only three seconds from seventh.

"Otherwise, I'm happy getting all-conference. That was my goal from the beginning of the year," Kong said. "All of us wanted it so bad. All of us were nervous from the beginning of the week."

Amish's first big varsity invitational ignited her competitive spirit.

"I run to win and it always helps me because I've got the competitive part in me and I work with pressure to do better," Amish said. "I was just hoping to get all-conference. I was just hoping to get 16th."

Rancho knows the feeling.

"It's quite an accomplishment for me because I never really got to run varsity last year," Rancho said.

The junior varsity (25 points) defended its title behind Anjali Iyengar (2nd, 13:02), Bianca Taylor (4th, 13:12), Lauren Markovic (5th, 13:14), Christina Bayer (6th, 13:16) and Janet Madura (8th, 13:19).

The sophomore team took second (59 points) with Tracy Hines (6th, 13:37), Liz Kassir (11th, 13:56), Sarah Koziol (12th, 13:57) and Katie Hoganson (13th, 13:58) all-conference.

The Hornets compete at the LT Regional at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25, in Western Springs. The top five teams and five runners not among those teams advance to the East Aurora Sectional Saturday, Nov. 1.

Nuzbach second at Gold meet

By John Pechocek

Carly Nuzbach's second-place finish at the West Suburban Gold conference meet helped the Downers Grove South girls cross country team to a second-place finish in the conference Saturday.

The Mustangs placed four girls in the top 10 at McCollum Park in Downers Grove as they scored 47 points. Willowbrook won its fourth consecutive West Suburban Gold title with 19 points.

"Willowbrook's a tough team, and I was really pleased we closed some of the gaps that we had in our earlier conference meet with them," Downers Grove South coach Ann Belskis said. "In our earlier meet with them, we had one runner in their top seven. Today we had a few more in there, and we were really pleased with that."

Willowbrook's Jenni Goebel won the race with a time of 11:27, followed by Nuzbach at 11:44.

"My goals were to stay with Jenni cut my time down," Nuzbach said. "I cut down my best time by one second. Last time Jenni was really far ahead of me. She beat me by 30 seconds. It was real encouraging to shorten the gap."

"As a team we knew what we had to do to break up their pack, and we really put forth a good effort today."

The Mustangs finished 7-8-9 with sophomore Kate Mulligan (12:17), Bethany McGibbon (12:18) and Trish Compton (12:18). All three earned all-conference honors.

"We did what we needed to do," Mulligan said. "We were really focused, and I'm proud of all of us. I've seen improvement every week."

Last year the Mustangs advanced three runners to sectionals in Nuzbach, McGibbon and Mirna Velic, who finished 21st at 12:48 at the WSC Gold meet.

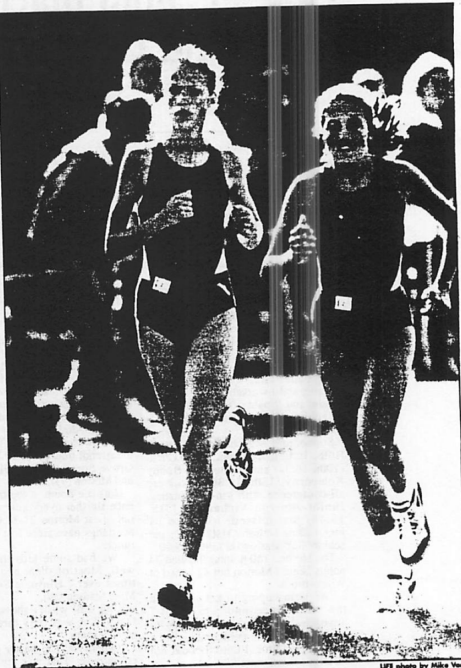

The Mustangs will be at the West Aurora regional Saturday at Waubesa's Community College. Neighbor Downers Grove North also is in the regional along with Benet Academy. The regional's top five teams and the top five individuals not on qualifying teams will advance to the sectionals.

Hinsdale South, who finished third with 78 points, had three runners come away with all-conference honors in junior Natalie Kong (12:19 — 10th), Colleen Amish (12:20 — 11th) and Jeni Rancho (12:27 — 16th). The top 16 earned all-conference distinction.

Kong participates in track, but this was her first year of running cross country.

"My goal from the beginning was to get all-conference," Kong said. "I worked this whole summer, but I never expected to get this far. I'm so happy, and our team did awesome."

The Hornets will be at the Lyons Township regional Saturday. Last year Hinsdale South qualified as a team for sectionals. Other teams in the LT field are Hinsdale Central, York, LT and Morton.

Downers Grove North's Jessica Brannigan and Elizabeth Tumpach made the Trojans conference champions for the first time since 1989.

Downers North rides wave to capture WSC Silver title

By Joe Negri

After Downers Grove North won the DuPage County Meet last month, Dan Tumpach, the father of Trojan standout runner Elizabeth, tagged the team with the nickname, "The Purple Wave."

The "wave" is building. At the West Suburban Conference Silver Division meet Saturday in Western Springs, Downers North (42 points) swept past powerhouse York (51), Oak Park-River Forest (84) and Glenbard West (87) to capture its first conference title since 1989.

Although the result was still uncertain at the time, there were plenty of hugs in Downers North circles to go around after the race as the girls were anticipating something special happening.

"We just ran our hearts out," said Tumpach, who finished third in 12:57. "If we could keep three in front of their (York) first, we knew we had a good chance."

The Trojans did just that. Freshman Jessica Brannigan played a big part in the strategy. She finished second with a time of 12:48, just four seconds behind lead runner Kyna Forkins of Glenbard West.

"She's just awesome," said Tumpach of Brannigan.

Downers North's Audrey Giesler finished fifth at 13:09.

"The conference could really be tough on a lot of people," Downers North coach Bruce Ritter said. "This is a different race for some reason. The girls did a nice job. They worked hard for this all year."

Hinsdale Central finished fifth with 103 points. The Red Devils were led by Cristina Sisson, who was 15th with a 13:38.

Long standing tradition still alive

Girls finish third for 17th year

by Somi Basathia

Keeping alive a 17-year tradition, the Lady Hornets placed in the top half of the conference once again. The varsity finished in third with an overall record of 5-2. All-conference players included Natalie Kong, Colleen Amish and Joni Ranchoero, who got the last medal for varsity.

Leading the junior varsity to a first place tie was Anjali Iyengar who came in second. Following her were Bianca Taylor, Lauren Markovic and Christina Bayer who came in 4th, 5th and 6th respectively. The frosh-soph team also finished second, led by Tracy

Hines, Liz Kassir and Katie Hoganson.

The girls gained a tremendous momentum heading into the conference meet with the narrow one point victory over Morton the week before. Said coach Mike Madsen, "It really helped build our confidence going into conference."

The top seven runners on the team advanced to run in regionals a week later. Amish led the South runners with a 15th place finish. She was followed by Kong, Carli Spanik, Iyengar, Ranchoero, Dylana Leung and Becca Duval.

Amish and Kong advanced to sectionals and competed respectably. Noted Madsen on the season overall, "We have a good group of young runners who are bright and intelligent."

Hornets' Kong answers sectional call

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

Hinsdale South girls cross country runner Natalie Kong heard the message from the answering machine Sunday night and cried.

When the junior had left the Lyons Township Regional moments after her race Saturday to travel to Indianapolis, she thought she had just missed an individual sectional berth.

South cross country

But Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen caught the scoring error and phoned Kong to let her know that she as well as fellow first-year runner Colleen Amish were heading to the East Aurora Sectional at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 1, at Phillips Park in Aurora.

Kong

"I came home at like 8 p.m. and I heard Mr. Madsen telling me that I made it, that they made a mistake," Kong said. "I was so happy. I couldn't believe it."

Amish, a sophomore who took 15th (14 minutes, 6 seconds for 2.23 miles), and Kong (23rd, 14:24) were among the top five runners not among the five qualifying teams.

The Hornets missed advancing as a team by taking sixth with 160 points, 30 behind fifth-place Morton. Junior Carli Spanik was 36th (14:49), followed by juniors Anjali Iyengar (39th, 14:53) and Joni Ranchoero (47th, 15:05), sophomore Dylana Leung (50th, 15:22) and freshman Becka Duvall (61st, 16:06).

The Hornets beat Morton at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet Oct. 18 and their dual 27-28.

"I was hoping we could make it a third time in a row, but it just didn't work out that way," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "We had mixed results (today)."

Kong was among the top 15 most of the race but slumped down the final straightaway — that extra 0.23 mile longer than most girls courses.

"I got passed by a lot of girls at the end and I was really worried about (advancing)," Kong said. "I had a real fast first mile (6:00). I was fine until that last 0.23. I just ran out of gas."

Amish wasn't fine all week because of inexplicable lower back pain that limited her training. Thanks to her competitiveness and using Kong as a gauge, Amish still improved.

"It probably was my best race. I paced the best and ran the smartest I have all year," Amish said.

"At the beginning of the week, I was so upset and so scared. I just kept icing, trying to make it go away but I'm glad it worked out."

The top seven individuals at sectionals not among the five advancing teams qualify for the Class AA state meet Saturday, Nov. 8, at Peoria's Detweiller Park.

South's Amish makes fantastic finish at sectional

By Bill Stone
Doings Sports Writer

Simply looking for experience as a first-year competitor, Amish gave herself plenty of motivation for next year by finishing 38th (14 minutes, 20 seconds for 2.25 miles) in arguably the toughest sectional in the state.

Junior Natalie Kong, also a first-year cross country runner, was 94th (15:00).

"I'm kind of shocked right now," Amish said. "I was coming into this with no pressure. I wasn't really worried about it or nervous. I just thought I'd run for extra practice to see if I could change my pace or something."

Amish, who had finished 11th at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet Oct. 18, was the conference's fourth highest finisher Saturday with two of the girls, including conference meet runner-up Carly Nuzbach of Downers Grove South, only four seconds ahead.

Going into the race, Amish's goal was to beat the 14:36 time of graduated Hinsdale South runner Jamie Bechina at the 1996 sectional.

"I couldn't believe that (Nuzbach) was right there," Amish said. "I passed her for awhile and then the last 400 I started totally stiffening and then (people) started passing."

Kong was the Hornets' No. 1 runner in nine of their 11 varsity races.

"(My performance) might not have been so good for this race, but the whole season I was the No. 1 Hornet and that's a big thing considering when I came into cross country I was just trying to get into the top seven," Kong said. "I wasn't really expecting anything coming into (sectionals). Next year, maybe I'll go out to aim for it."

■ St. Ignatius College Prep (Chicago) senior Kate Doyle of Burr Ridge finished 130th (15:34) for the 17th-place Wolfpack (459 points). Doyle was 36th (14:09) at the Lyons

Township Regional.

Hinsdale South boys

A tough start made a tough race even harder for Hinsdale South sophomore Marcin Toporkiewicz at the East Aurora Sectional Saturday.

Toporkiewicz found himself pinned early but still finished 55th (16:27 for 3.05 miles) with plenty of promise for the future after tremendous strides in his first cross country season.

"I didn't do as well as I wanted. I didn't get out hard like I was supposed to," Toporkiewicz said. "I got caught by so many people and I couldn't go because people were in front of me and on my back and side. The course wasn't very wide."

Toporkiewicz gained important experience for the Hornets, who used four sophomores and one freshman at the regional.

"I think every race is going to help me run the next race," Toporkiewicz said. "Every race you take the consequences, what you did that was good, what went wrong, and hopefully you do better the next time."

Cross country

Lisle Sectional

Several area athletes ran their final races of the season at the Class A Lisle Sectional Saturday.

Montini Catholic (Lombard) freshman Jennifer Pack of Darien was 103rd (15:58) as the Broncos' No. 2 runner, Timothy Christian junior Ayumi Takarabe of Oak Brook (135th, 17:18) was the Trojans' No. 4 finisher and Mt. Assisi Academy (Lemont) freshman Annie Gilbert of Hinsdale (147th, 18:10) was the Eagles' No. 6 runner.

In team competition, Timothy Christian finished 17th (416 points) with Mt. Assisi 19th (483) and Montini 20th (511).

At the Mt. Assisi Regional Oct. 25, Pack was 15th (16:13), Takarabe was 28th (17:29) and Gilbert 32nd (18:28).

In boys sectional action, Montini junior Reid Manning of Hinsdale took 103rd (18:06) as the Broncos' No. 3 finisher after taking 28th (19:13) at the Mt. Assisi Regional. Montini finished 18th Saturday with 461 points.
