Hinsdale South girls cross country preview

- COACH: Mike Madsen
- 2001 RECORD: Second at West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet and second overall, fifth at Hinsdale South Regional, ninth at Rich East Sectional, did not advance to Class AA state meet
- RETURNING 2001 STATE PERFORMER: Junior Nicole Johnson (119th place)
- OTHER RETURNING STARTERS: Senior Andrea Dennison, juniors Bridget Hayes, Kathleen Carr and Nikki Rohner and sophomore Laurie Sperlak
- OTHER KEY RETURNEES: Senior Ashley Emmons and Janet Pavese and junior Laura Gangichiodo
- TOP NEWCOMERS: Junior Jodi Stalman, sophomores Megan Christenson, Lindsay Klecka, Violet Maka and Liz McLaughlin and freshmen Kim Johnson and Danielle Mutters
- OUTLOOK: The Hornets have a strong returning group of seniors and juniors led by their No. 1-3 runners in returning state qualifier Johnson, Dennison and Hayes.

"I'm looking for us to be as good or better than we were last year," Madsen said. "We've got good numbers, a good attitude, and a fair number of kids got some decent summer running in. Our front kids are going to be pretty strong with a lot of competition following."

Last year, Johnson became the Hornets' first individual state qualifier since 1996. Dennison missed an individual state berth at sectionals by 10 places and nine seconds.

That duo and Hayes also are among just 11 runners in program history to earn all-conference honors at least twice with top-16 finishes at the conference meet.

"I know (state for Johnson) is definitely one of her goals. I know Andrea has worked very hard to try to get better so she could go too," Madsen said. "They were kind of flip-flopped a little bit (last season) who was first, second between them. I'd say right now Andrea may have the edge, but Andrea put in an awful amount of work. Nicole still looks good, and as she puts in more work, she'll continue to get better."

Carr, who along with Johnson and Dennison has run at sectionals the past two seasons, has emerged with the lead group in practice. Sperlak also returns after being a top-five finisher at regionals and the conference meet, where she missed all-conference by two places. Rohner also competed throughout the postseason but is being brought back slowly from a stress fracture that prematurely ended her track season.

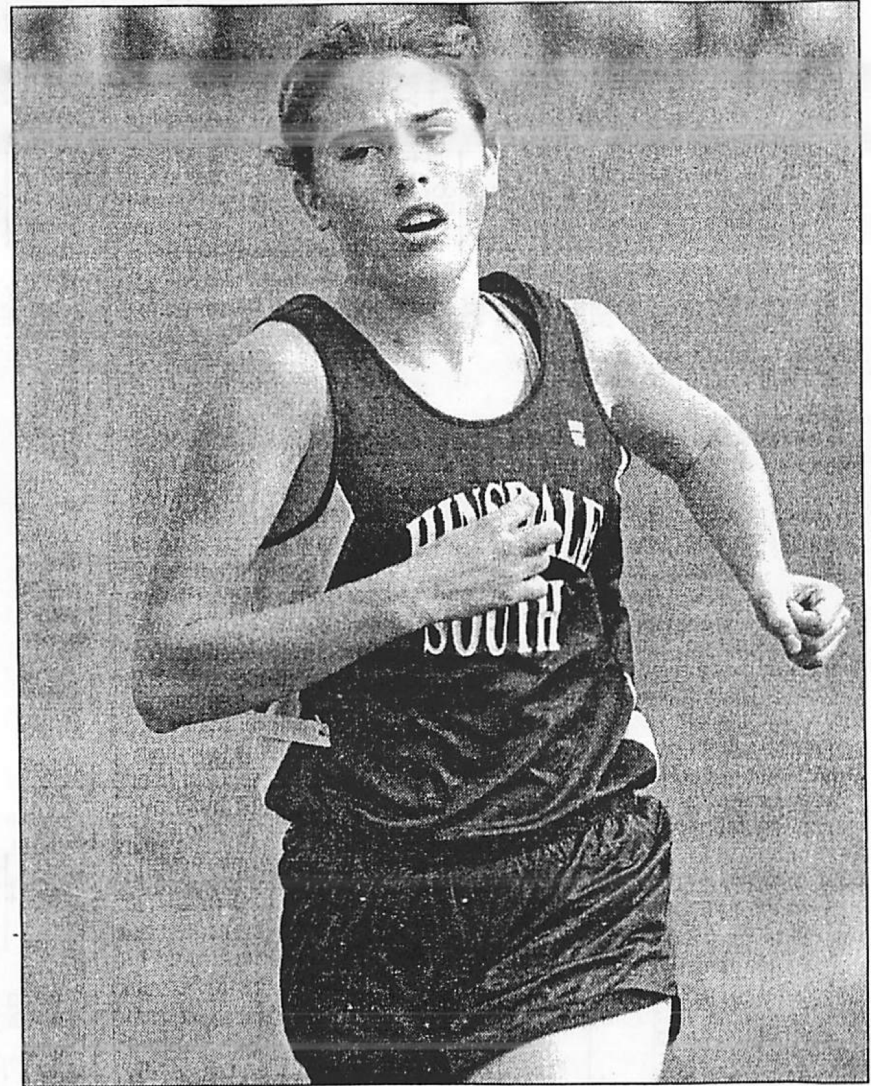

Other returning letterwinners are Emmons, Monaco and McLaughlin through running well enough on the sophomore level. Gangichiodo was a letterwinner in 2000.

At last year's sophomore Gold Meet, Carr, McLaughlin, Christenson and Klecka earned all-conference honors to help the Hornets win the race and share the overall title. Emmons and Pavese were all-conference on the junior varsity level and are captains this season along with Dennison.

The Hornets will be hard pressed to supplant defending Gold champion Downers Grove South (21st at state in 2001) but should continue their streak of top-three conference finishes since the program began in 1979. Last year's second-place Gold effort included their first dual victory over Willowbrook since 1986.

■ QUOTABLE: "I think really we've got the ingredients to have success as long as they continue to work together well and try like we've seen so far," Madsen said.

West Suburban Gold

Downers Grove South

Coach: Mike Arenberg (4th year)

Last year: 21st at Class AA state meet, 4th at sectional, 3rd at regional, conference champs

Postseason: The Mustangs represented the first WSG Gold team at state in 12 years after taking fourth at Niles West Sectional behind York, Glenbard East and Benet. Claimed conference title at all three levels for third consecutive campaign.

Key losses to graduation: Zoe Kind (142nd at state), Astleigh Jones (106th at state)

Newcomers to watch: Megan Sharp (fr.), Angi Fischer (fr.), Maureen Crinion (fr.)

Outlook: Despite losing 14 seniors from 2001, Arenberg has his best turnout with about 45 runners including close to 20 freshmen. He expects three of the freshman newcomers to fit somewhere into the top 10 of the lineup, while Kohler and Matter should man the top two spots. "We're looking to defend our conference title and to get Downstate and improve on our finish."

Hinsdale South

Coach: Mike Madsen (23rd year)

Last year: 9th at Rich East sectional, 5th at regional, 2nd in conference

Postseason: The Hornets' season came to an end when they failed to advance out of a sectional that featured eventual state-champion Naperville North and Sandburg (4th in Class AA). Nicole Johnson did qualify for state individually and placed 119th with a time of 15:53. Hinsdale South took second at conference meet for second year in a row.

Key losses to graduation: Kate Kaminsky (4-time all-conference)

Top returners: Johnson (jr., 2-time all-conference, state qualifier), Andrea Dennison (sr., 2-time all-conference, 3rd in conference last fall), Bridget Hayes (fr., 2-time all-conference), Kathleen Carr (jr.), Janet Pavese (sr.), Ashley Emmons (sr.), Laurie Sperjak (so., top 5 runner as a freshman)

Newcomers to watch: Danielle Mutters (fr.), Violet Maka (so.)

Outlook: The Hornets are strong at the top of the lineup where Dennison just missed qualifying for state last year along with Johnson. Add to that one of the best turnouts ever and Madsen has reason to be happy. "We've got a lot of numbers and a lot of returners," he said. "Downers Grove South is the heavy favorite within our conference, but I think us and Willowbrook most likely will be up there (near the top)."

Willowbrook

Coach: Margo Littlehale (25th year)

Last year: 6th at sectional, 3rd in conference

Postseason: The Warriors had a "pretty average" season according to their veteran coach, and couldn't stop Downers Grove South from defending its WSGC title.

Key losses to graduation: Betsy King (top seven team runner all four years)

Top returners: Julie Golba (jr., all-conference, sectional qualifier), Olivia Van Meter (sr., all-conference, captain), Katie Goetsch (jr., all-conference, sectional qualifier)

Newcomers to watch: Kristin Schwarz (sr.), Nicole Menk (so.), Robin Kiemp (fr.), Becca Thieme (so.)

Outlook: With a solid turnout of more than 40 runners, Littlehale expects the Warriors to play a role in the conference race, but knows that Downers Grove South will be tough to unseat. "The difference this season from last season is the girls have a season under their belts and they understand the importance of workouts," Littlehale said. "We have an experienced group mixed in with some competitive newcomers."

WHEELING: Qafisheh aims to improve on 2nd place

and Coren slipped in behind Qafisheh in fifth place. Like Qafisheh, Wheeling's Jessie Morgenthal exceeded her own expectations, making her way from 60th place in the race's first mile to eighth place at the finish.

The three runners led Wheeling to a second-place finish behind champion Naperville North, and all three return this season to give the Wildcats a No. 1 ranking.

Qafisheh and Coren could alternate as the team's No. 1 runner, and both will be in contention for an individual state title. The runners look alike and last year had some believing they were cousins.

But their personalities could be more different.

Coren, a junior, is demanding of herself and is as serious about winning races as she is about the advanced-placement and honors courses in which she excels. She is a two-time All-State track runner in the 3,200 meters, finishing eighth twice.

"You're not going to see her falter," Saylor said. "She's going to be up there for two more years."

Qafisheh is a ham who cracks jokes before, during and after practices and seems to stop talking only to race. Saylor doesn't mind a bit.

"If she stops talking she might start worrying," he said.

Both seem unlikely.

"In practice it's always, 'Gada, shut up,'" Qafisheh said of her teammates' reaction to her chatter.

No one has to remind Qafisheh to get serious when it's time to race. She has shown more than once that she is one of the state's best distance runners.

Six months after her runner-

Top girls cross-country teams

1. Wheeling

Coach Mark Saylor has two runners capable of winning an individual state title and another not too far behind. Last November in the Class AA state meet, sophomore Gada Qafisheh finished second to Deerfield's Erika Odlaug, who graduated and now runs at Colorado. Qafisheh cemented her status among the state's top runners in May, placing fourth in the 3,200 meters and 11th in the 1,600 in the state track championships. Teammate Alison Coren, a junior, ran fifth in cross-country and eighth in the 3,200. Sophomore Jessie Morgenthal, eighth last year in cross-country, gives Wheeling the toughest 1-2-3 punch in the state. The Wildcats, second behind Naperville North in last year's state meet, have won four girls state championships, their last in 1986.

2. York

The Dukes have six runners back from their third-place team in last year's state meet. They could win their second title in three seasons behind junior Vanessa Pfafflin, who did not run in last fall's state series because of illness but rebounded with a sixth-place finish in the 1,600 in the state track meet. Senior Lauren Dick, who ran 43rd in the state cross-country meet, led a tight pack of runners last year and she returns along with Shannon Tucker (46th), Allison Billhardt (50th), Kara Henry (91st), Christine Kotarba (92nd) and Danielle Hlavacek (156th). Henry, Billhardt and Tucker helped York achieve unprecedented success in 2000. They were members of the school's first championship team in girls cross-country.

3. Schaumburg

Laura Pearson could contend for an individual state title and help the Saxons vie for their third state championship. The junior ran 58th in the 2001 state final and since has made quite a name for herself. Pearson was in an elite group during the spring track season with a fourth-place finish in the 1,600 in an impressive 5:08.65. She'll have some company at the top of the team's lineup, with junior Kelly Gallagher hoping to improve on her 19th-place finish in cross-country. Amy Mueller (53rd), Jackie Peterson (86th), Laura Zdunek (190th) and Amanda DeCamp (243rd) should help the Saxons better their seventh-place finish in 2001.

4. Sandburg

Sandburg returns two All-State runners up finish in cross-country, she ran fourth in the 3,200 and 11th in the 1,600 at the state track meet.

Qafisheh doesn't discuss her accomplishments in great detail and prefers to talk about her other interests. She is assistant sports editor of the Wheeling student newspaper, and she follows the Bears almost as closely as about in senior Maureen Nelligan (11th) and Alison Patchak (23rd) and four more with state experience. Sophomore Kerry Brennan (54th) and Juniors Kim Archer (88th), Erin Sindewald (111th) and Lauren Gerdes (196th) should help make Sandburg a state contender this year and next.

Coach Jim Fye has three other underclassmen vying for a spot in the lineup, but the Eagles must recover from early-season nagging injuries and illnesses. Gerdes started the season with knee problems, and Patchak is receiving treatment for an Achilles' tendon injury. "I've been pulling my hair out," Fye said. "Everything flared up at once."

5. Palatine

The Pirates ran sixth last November, led by All-Stater Suzy Turner, who finished 25th. She'll get plenty of help from Stephanie Abram, 67th, Shane Evans (81st), Stephanie Riener (98th) and Cheryl Briggs (110th). Palatine seeks its first trophy finish since 1996, when it won its Class AA-record sixth championship. "We had a down year in 1998 and it's taken a while to convince the kids to get back in it," Palatine coach Steve Currins said. The Pirates finished third in the state track meet for the second straight year, thanks in part to Abram, Evans and Turner. They were members of Palatine's third-place 4 x 800 relay. Turner also ran 10th in the 1,600.

Best of the rest: Lake Park, Glenbard North, Benet, Barrington, Naperville North.

South's Dennison seeks bright state future

BY BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Never mind Andrea Dennison's new pair of bright pink and yellow cross country racing spikes.

The Hinsdale South senior is out to distinguish herself in another way this season.

After just missing an individual state berth last season, Dennison put in plenty of off-season training, and it showed Saturday with a ninth-place finish at the Hornet-Red Devils Invitational at Katherine Legge Memorial Park.

Dennison, 30th at last year's invitational, completed the course, expanded to 3.0 miles for girls this season, in 19 minutes, 19.1 seconds.

"We ran all summer. I went to a University of Wisconsin running camp. We all want to go to state really bad," said Dennison, who was 10 places shy of qualifying for state at last year's Rich East Sectional.

"When I ended that (sectional) race, I told myself I wasn't going to have that disappointing of a race again. This year I'm going down (to state). I don't care what it takes."

The Hornets received several strong performances in finishing sixth (172 points). Sophomore Nicole Johnson, a returning individual state qualifier who battled illness Saturday, was 20th (20:00.3), followed by juniors Kathleen Carr (29th, 20:17), Bridget Hayes (47th, 21:04.1), Nikki Rohner (67th, 22:20) and Laura Gangichiodo (71st, 22:42.3) and senior Ashley Emmons (75th, 22:49.8).

"We were pretty strong across the board on all three levels. We're certainly off to a better start than we were a year ago," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said.

"There were nine girls that beat Nicole (at state last year), and Andrea beat five of those Saturday, and the best of that bunch was 13 seconds ahead of her. Obviously, she's running with some elite runners so that was exciting to see the results of her summer work. And Nicole still beat three of those nine feeling ill."

The longer distance makes Dennison feel even better about her chances for success this season.

"I have less speed. I'm more of an endurance person. Definitely the (increase to) three miles is to my advantage," Dennison said. "(On Saturday) I knew at the start I wanted to take it easy. Usually I'm huffing and puffing by the first mile because I go out hard. I started way back and knew I would eventually just pick people off. Within the first mile, I got to the place where I wanted and I tried to maintain an even race."

Carr, another member of the summer training corps, improved significantly upon taking 40th in last year's sophomore race. Saturday's race concluded with a collision with Palmyra senior Shane Evans as they converged on the narrow finish chute.

South cross country

"We just hit at the same time, I'm fine," Carr said. "I wanted to medal this year again (for top 40) did it so I'm happy."

"Really we never stopped working after track so I'm in a lot better shape than last year. That's why we all worked out this summer. Last year we wanted to go to state, but we started too late wanting it so this year we started after track."

In the sophomore race, freshman Danielle Mutters ran 19:45.7 to win in 27.7 seconds. Sophomores Violet (21:02.6), Laurie Sperlak (21:42.8) and Megan Christenson (21:56.2) were 22nd and 28th.

Adorned in eye-catching pink shoes, the senior further grabbed attention by sprinting to ninth place (19:19.1) at the Hornet/Red Devil Invitational.

"Dave Chiros [of the Hornets' boys team] told me about a Nike Web site where you can go on and pick your [shoe] colors and have your name put on them," Dennison said of the sneakers. "I like pink and yellow — those are my favorite colors."

Leading Hinsdale South to sixth as a team (172 points), Dennison also used a bright new strategy to top her 30th-place individual finish at last year's Hornet/Red Devil Invite.

"I knew at the start I wanted to take it easy," she said. "Usually I'm huffing and puffing after the first half-mile. So I started way back at the start."

"It's a three-mile race, so you're not going to win it at the start. Within the first half-mile I got to the place I wanted to be and tried to maintain a smooth, even race."

Other Hinsdale South leaders were Nicole Johnson (20th, 20:00), Kathleen Carr (29th, 20:17), Bridget Hayes (47th) and Nikki Rohner (67th).

McCabe also praised the improvement of Maggie Barr (21st, 20:03).

"She was our sixth coming in after time trials last week, and significantly behind our fifth," he said. "She probably stepped up the most, but every one of our girls ran a great race on a hot, hot day. So we're happy."

Allison Kay (24th, 20:09) was another Hinsdale Central standout.

Devils take Palatine to wire

By Dave Owen
Staff writer

On an unusually warm early morning, Hinsdale Central's girls cross country team nearly cooked up a surprise for favorite Palatine at the Sept. 7 Hornet/Red Devil Invitational.

Producing four of the top 13 individuals in the 3-mile race at Katherine Legge Park, the Red Devils were narrowly edged by Palatine 54-58 in the team standings.

"Palatine's ranked fourth in the state, but we gave them a battle," said first-year Hinsdale Central head coach Mark McCabe. "We think we're going to have our best team ever."

Helping generate the early optimism was the running of Jordan Laney, who placed fifth individually (19:08.6).

"Jordan is not a great heat runner, so for her to do what she did today in weather like this is a really good sign," McCabe said.

"She's more fit at this point of the season than she's ever been. As the season goes on and it gets cooler, I think you're going to see great things from her."

Kim Freking followed Laney with an eighth-place time of 19:16, and sophomores Danyelle Somerfield (11th, 19:25) and Jessica Roper (13th, 19:36) rounded out a fast top four.

Hornets' start earns state ranking

Another strong effort by the Hinsdale South girls cross country team Saturday hasn't gone unnoticed.

After finishing second to powerful Sandburg at the Reavis Invitational, the Hornets received votes in this week's Illinois Prep Top Times newsletter Class AA rankings for the first time that long-time coach Mike Madsen could remember.

"I'm really happy about that. It's really exciting," junior Nicole Johnson said. "I felt like we'd have a really strong team this year."

Top-ranked Sandburg outdistanced the Hornets 15-104 with a phenomenal showing in which the Eagles swept the top seven spots.

Hinsdale South senior Andrea Dennison took eighth (19 minutes, 19 seconds for 3.0 miles), followed by Nicole Johnson (10th, 19:42), Kathleen Carr (11th, 19:43), Bridget Hayes (31st, 21:05), Ashley Emmons (48th, 21:44), Nikki Rohner (56th, 22:08) and Laura Gangichiodo (57th, 22:11).

Dennison was five seconds behind Sandburg's seventh runner.

"It was kind of intimidating with all seven of them in front of me the whole race. There was one girl I would switch off with, but she ended up beating me at the end," Dennison said.

Freshman Danielle Mutters won the sophomore race (19:26) by 22 seconds, and Violet Maka (20:24) and Megan Christenson (21:28) were seventh and 14th.

On Monday, the Hornets opened West Suburban Conference Gold Division dual action by sweeping host Proviso East and Addison Trail 15-50. The Hornets swept the top 10 spots in the race with Johnson (19:58 for 3.0 miles), Mutters (20:03), Carr (20:57), Hayes (21:55) and Laurie Sperlak (22:05) leading the way. Dennison did not run because of illness.

Perschke moves into South lineup

Perschke had attended Northridge Prep in Niles, where the team is small but returns senior Jim Kestler, who finished 13th at last year's Class A state meet. Perschke's brother, Mark, was a 1997 Hinsdale South graduate who ran cross country.

"I had a good training partner (in Kestler), but I've made good friends with everyone here so it's more of a team thing as opposed to individual," Perschke said. "The last two races I felt I did poorly or just didn't perform to my potential. This race I felt like I had a little bit of a breakthrough. I still think I can improve a lot, though."

On Saturday, the Hornets finished fourth at the Reavis Invitational (166 points). Chris Chiros (16:31 for 3.0 miles) and Bayers (16:44) were 22nd and 28th, followed by Ken Stachorek (37th, 17:08), Perschke (38th, 17:09), Begy (41st, 17:15), Sam Rivier (61st, 18:06) and James Cao (62nd, 18:09). Soloria (16:46) and David Chiros (16:49) were first and second in the sophomore race.

Mary Jung won two individual events and was on a winning relay to help lead the Hinsdale South girls swimming team to a 93-90 win over West Aurora Sept. 11 in Darien.

Jung won the 500-yard freestyle in 5 minutes, 37.86 seconds and the 100 butterfly in 1:08.31 and teamed with Kristine Piccoli, Nicole Slivensky and Christina Ivanisevic to capture the 200 medley relay (2:00.63).

The Hornets also received first-place efforts from Betsy Lange (200 free, 2:01.28), Piccoli (100 backstroke, 1:07.04), Slivensky (100 breaststroke, 1:16.11) and the 200 free relay of Erica Sprengel, Katie Weresch, Ivanisevic and Lange (1:47.68).

The Hornets (2-6) were limited to four shots. Billy Fenton and Daniel Grasso each scored twice for Hinsdale Central (4-2-2), which is 4-0-2 in its last six games.

"This is only the second game of the year we haven't been in, and that's what shocked me," Hinsdale South coach Mark McNellis said. "I thought we'd come ready to play and I thought it was going to be a one-goal game because we had a lead."

Hornets' title wait ends at Minooka

By BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Hinsdale South freshman Danielle Mutters had a much different feeling going into her first major varsity cross country race at the Minooka Invitational Saturday.

"I was a lot more nervous because it was varsity, and I didn't want to let the team down," Mutters said.

The new feeling for her and her teammates after the race was even better.

The Hornets captured their first varsity invitational since 1996 by winning the 12-team title impressively with just 11 points in the format that combines the places of individuals in seven flight races.

Mutters (19 minutes, 34 seconds for 3.0 miles in No. 3 flight), Kathleen Carr (19:55 in No. 4 flight), Bridget Hayes (20:58 in No. 6 flight) and Laurie Sperlak (21:26 in No. 7 flight) won their races. Violet Maka (20:15 in No. 5 flight) and Nicole Johnson (19:51 in No. 2 flight) were second, and Andrea Dennison was third in the top No. 1 flight in a team-best 19:20 — the third straight invite in which she has run either 19:19 or 19:20.

Minooka was second (15 points) while Andrew (23), which the Hornets could see at sectionals, was third. The Hornets' last invite title also came at Minooka.

"Really those are the only two varsity ones we've won in the last 19 years, so it doesn't happen very often," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "It was just a really nice day, and everyone did so well. They were excited. It's always a nice change to go to a meet where we're one of the bigger schools for a change."

The Hornets are hoping to continue the success in their early showdown with defending West Suburban Conference Gold Division champion Downers Grove South Monday, Sept. 30, at O'Brien Park.

Mutters is among the new-comers helping an already experienced lineup after a strong career at Cass Junior High School.

"It's a very close team, and I really like that," Mutters said. "My goals are to keep up with the varsity and maybe get a varsity letter and maybe go to state. I set higher goals so if I don't achieve them I know I can get them next year.

"I was very surprised and happy to be a part of (Saturday's title)."

South boys

Hinsdale South senior cross country runner Ken Stachochek has been bothered this season by a pulled muscle, but he's never stopped training or competing.

Saturday just might mark the beginning of the payoff.

Stachochek won the No. 6 flight for the Hornets at the Minooka Invite, which combines the results of seven flight races. The Hornets (22 points) were third behind Lockport (9) and St. Francis (19).

"My times haven't been quite where they should have been. To have a performance like that was really something that boosted my confidence, made me feel real good," said Stachochek, who covered the 3.0 miles in 17:24.

"I'm happy to see that now I'm starting to get back up there. I'm starting to see that I can compete where I should be. Although I was happy, I think if I had even been a flight up, I think I would have competed just as well or even better. It feels great to perform around the level where I should."

Karl Perschke had the team's fastest time (16:42) to take second in the No. 2 flight, and Chris Chiros was fourth in the No. 1 flight (16:45). David Chiros was second in the No. 5 flight (17:15), Jeff Bayers was fourth in the No. 3 flight (17:17). Duke Bogoy was sixth in the No. 4 flight (17:41), and Sam Rivier was third in the No. 7 flight (17:52).

Hornet girl harriers edge WeGo for 2nd straight tournament win

Two in a row. That's what the Hinsdale South girls cross country team has done, winning two consecutive tournaments for the first time since 1996.

The Hornets' latest triumph came Sept. 28 at the Bartlett Invitational, as Hinsdale South edged West Chicago 57-63 for the top spot.

Hinsdale South's Andrea Dennison led the squad in eighth place overall (19:08). Also scoring for the Hornets were Danielle Mutters (10th, 19:31); Nicole Johnson (12th, 19:51); Violet Maka (13th, 19:52) and Kathleen Carr (14th, 20:14).

Also representing the Hornets were Bridget Hayes (27th, 21:21) and Ashley Emmons (28th, 21:27).

Hinsdale South also won the frosh/soph crown, finishing with 29 points to Woodstock's 54.

Megan Christenson finished second overall (17:59), followed by Kim Johnson (third, 18:00); Liz McLaughlin (sixth, 18:32); Michelle Lackey (eighth, 18:50); Lindsey Klecka (10th, 18:59); Kelly Borek (13th, 19:14) and Kim Vlcek (18th, 20:04).

The Hornets made it a trifecta with a win in the open division, headed up by Amanda Swik (first, 17:43).

Hinsdale South also counted Nikki Rohner (fourth, 18:04); Laura Gangi (fifth, 18:09); Annalisa Mangrum (ninth, 18:48); Janet Pavese (11th, 19:11); Jodi Stalman (12th, 19:12); Christine Hoganson (13th, 19:26); Jill Bures (14th, 19:43); Jaime Glass (24th, 21:56); Julie Higgins (25th, 21:59) and Maureen O'Connell (28th, 22:38).

At Minooka Sept. 20, the Hornets won the seven-flight invite title with 11 points, finishing no lower than third in any flight.

Top placers in each flight were Dennison in Flight 1 (third, 19:20); Johnson in Flight 2 (second, 19:51); Mutters in Flight 3 (first, 19:34); Carr in Flight 4 (first, 19:55); Maka in Flight 5 (second, 20:15); Hayes in Flight 6 (first, 20:58) and Laurie Sperlak in Flight 7 (first, 21:26).

Hinsdale South is at the Niles West Invite Oct. 5.

at the second annual Bartlett Invitational.

Aubert ran the invitational last year so she knew the course. The Junior was familiar with her strongest challenger Streamwood's freshman Paulina Garcia. The two ran with the Elgin Sharks running club.

Aubert used her knowledge of the course and her challenger for one final burst 350 yards from the finish line to win the three-mile race in 18:18.

Garcia who ran neck and neck with Aubert finished in second with an 18:21.

"I've learned when the other person starts kicking, I need to start kicking," said Aubert. "If I don't, I will not have enough at the end to pass them. I didn't know when she (Garcia) was going to start her kick and I didn't want to start mine too early."

This was the second Invite of the year that the two have squared off in with Aubert coming out on top each time. The two were side by side at the mile and two-mile marker, but Garcia didn't have enough fuel in her tank to keep up with Aubert's final burst.

Hinsdale South placed four runners in the top 15 while earning top honors with 57 points at the Bartlett Invite at Sunrise and Sunset Parks.

South's Andrea Dennison paced the Hornets with a 19:08. coming in eighth place. The Hornets took the 12 through 14 spots. Nicole Johnson ran a 19:51, Voilet Maka followed right behind her with a 19:52, and Kathleen Carr placed 14th with a 20:14.

West Chicago who won the invite last year over Hinsdale South traded places this year with them and came in second with a 63.

"We all try to push each other," said Dennison. "We knew West Chicago would be tough, but our top five are really strong this year."

South won their second consecutive invite; the Hornets took first in the Minooka Invite last weekend. Before the Minooka Invite the Hornets had not won an invitational since 1996.

"To win two weeks in a row is big," said Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen. "Probably the best depth the team has ever had."

West Chicago was led by Katy Kostal who placed third with an 18:45 and fifth places finisher Christy Adduci who ran an 18:58.

"Our leaders Katy (Kostal) and Christy (Adduci) ran really well," said West Chicago coach Katerina Boves. "The second pack, our three through seven runners, got to the half mile behind Hinsdale South and could never catch them."

Bartlett placed third in team standing with an 82. Individually the Hawks were led by Kim Ebbesen fourth place finish at 18:56.

CROSS COUNTRY

Downers South edges Hornets in key dual

The Hinsdale South girls cross country team has never won a conference title.

Despite a disappointing 27-28 loss at defending champion Downers Grove South Monday, the Hornets realize that they can win this year.

The overall conference title is a 50-50 combination of regular-season and conference-meet standings. The Hornets can win if they sweep their last Gold dual with Willowbrook and Leyden Oct. 7 and win the Gold Meet Oct. 19.

"They (or Willowbrook) always beat us," Hinsdale South junior Nicole Johnson said. "We keep improving usually as the season goes on so we should hopefully beat them at conference. We really want to win because we have a really strong team this year and we've been running well for most of the season."

Freshman Danielle Mutters won the 2.75-mile race (17:32) and Johnson was third (17:41), but Downers South got its No. 2-4 runners in fourth through sixth just ahead of Kathleen Carr (18:10), Andrea Dennison (18:19) and Violet Maka (18:23). Bridget Hayes (19:15) and Laurie Sperlak (19:19) were 12th and 13th.

Despite suffering a thigh injury at a soccer game Saturday, Mutters won Monday's race by beating Downers South senior Melissa Malter (17:34) in an all-out dash to the finish.

"Mentally I went through it, but physically I could feel (the injury)," Mutters said. "It surprised me that I did that well because I'm not a very good sprinter."

On Saturday, the Hornets captured their second invite in as many weeks by winning the Bartlett Invite 57-63 over West Chicago.

Dennison (19:08.02) and Mutters (19:31.74) were eighth and 10th, Johnson (19:51.55), Maka (19:52.04) and Carr (20:14.45) were 12th through 14th, and Hayes (21:21.83) and Ashley Emmons (21:27.13) were 27th and 28th.

Chiros brothers help Hornets stay atop Gold

The success of the Hinsdale South boys cross country team really is a family affair.

While senior Chris Chiros was the team's No. 1 runner Monday, sophomore David Chiros was the No. 3 finisher as the Hornets swept host Downers Grove South 22-39 and Morton 15-49 to keep them on pace to contend for the West Suburban Conference Gold Division title.

Chris Chiros won the 2.75-mile battle in 14 minutes, 54 seconds, with the Hornets' Jeff Bayers third (15:04) and David Chiros (15:31), Karl Perschke (15:39) and Ken Stachorek (15:53) and Duke Begy (15:57) fifth through eighth. Pat Soloria was 10th (16:03).

The Hornets (4-0 in Gold duals) have one more dual with Willowbrook and Leyden Monday, Oct. 7, prior to the Gold Meet Oct. 19. The overall title is a 50-50 combination of dual-meet and conference-meet standings.

"A conference title would be good anytime, but it would make it a little cooler to say my brother and I helped us win it when we're looking up at it 20 years from now," David Chiros said.

"I started running in fifth grade, a little to be like Chris, and I just did it so I would be doing a sport. Ever since I've started doing well, people have been like, 'You want to be like your brother.' I want to do it for myself."

Chris Chiros, who has worked back from an early-season ankle injury, won Monday's race by two seconds over Downers South's Bill Potempa.

"Bill and I have had good races before. We were surging together, and just came down to a guts race," Chris Chiros said.

"(My brother) is a surprise and a delight to have on the varsity. He works hard and he's consistent with his places. Not many people know too much about him. It's good to see him up there."

SWIMMING

If the Hinsdale South girls swimming team had the York Invitational to do over again, Hornets coach Frank Kuchta believes the results would be different.

Instead, Hinsdale South had to settle for a fifth-place finish at the eight-team invite Saturday in Elmhurst.

It must be in the sauce.

The last three Friday nights, members of the Hinsdale South girls cross-country team have met at different houses for a pasta dinner.

The last three Saturdays, the Hornets have gone out and won their scheduled invitational.

"It's contagious. The whole team is really excited about how things are going here," Hinsdale South head coach Mike Madsen said.

The Hornets' latest triumph came Oct. 5 at the Niles West Invitational in Skokie, where Hinsdale South won on all three levels — varsity, junior varsity and frosh/soph.

The overall triumph included individual victories on the JV and frosh/soph levels. It's the first time since 1981 that a Hinsdale South team has won three invitationals in a season.

On the varsity level, Hinsdale South tallied 54 points to Carmel's (Ind.) 70 and Dundee-Crown's 74.

Helping power the Hornets to the win in the 3-mile race was a 6-7-8 finish by Nicole Johnson (18:58), Danielle Mutters (18:59) and Andrea Dennison (19:01).

Rounding out the top five were Kathleen Carr (16th, 19:27) and Violet Maka (17th, 19:28). "The most exciting thing for me was that the first five girls were only separated by 30 seconds," Madsen said. "That's the kind of thing that really gives you a chance to do big things."

Also representing Hinsdale South were Laurie Sperlak (34th, 20:34); Amanda Swik (37th, 20:38) and Bridget Hayes (38th, 20:42).

Four of the Hornets' junior varsity runners placed in the top six en route to a "spectacular" 27-point winning score for the two-mile course.

Brookfield Central (Wis.) tallied 58 points, followed by Highland Park with 93.

Nikki Rohner took top honors, finishing in 13:22.

Following Rohner were Laura Gangichiodo (third, 13:31); Ashley Emmons (fourth, 13:32); Anneliese Mangrum (sixth, 13:43) and Jodi Stalman (13th, 14:15)

The frosh/soph Hornets came in with 43 points, chased in the top three by Glenbrook North (54) and Evanston (97).

Kim Johnson won in 13:19; ironically, a time that would have beaten Rohner had they raced head-to-head.

Also scoring for Hinsdale South were Megan Christenson (second, 13:23); Liz McLaughlin (eighth, 13:39); Michelle Lackey (12th, 13:55); and Lindsay Klecka (20th, 14:14).

Hinsdale South boys cross country

Also at Niles West, the Hornets took sixth place in the Red Division with 187 points.

Despite a second-place finish by Hinsdale Central senior Alan Jackson, Hinsdale South beat out the Red Devils with their sixth finisher.

Senior Chris Chiros led the Hornets in 28th place overall with his time of 16:17.

Hornets trying to sweep Gold crowns

By BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

The Hinsdale South cross country teams very realistically could both at least share West Suburban Conference Gold Division championships this season.

On Monday, however, they had to console each other's frustration.

The Hinsdale South boys had a chance to be in the driver's seat of their Gold race but lost to Willowbrook 27-28 at Katherine Legge Memorial Park while beating Leyden 15-49.

The girls beat Willowbrook 15-46 and Leyden 15-50 but had lost at Downers Grove South the previous week by the same 27-28 margin.

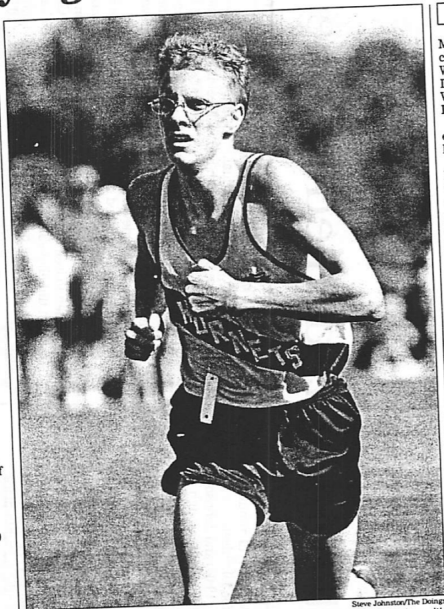

Since the overall title is a 50-50 combination of dual and conference-meet standings, the Hornets can earn at least shares of the overall title by winning their Gold Meets, which begin at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 19, at Willowbrook.

"I sure hope we can get (Willowbrook) at the conference meet, but that remains to be seen," said Hinsdale South boys coach Dave Jackson, whose team shared the 2000 title with Downers Grove South.

"We ran well. We ran, for the most part, as fast as we've run all year. It's kind of amazing that they had three of the top four runners and beat us by one point."

The Hornets nearly prevailed, though, since Jeff Bayers, who was third in 16 minutes, 15 seconds for 3.0 miles, was followed by the pack of David Chiros (16:27), Karl Perschke (16:30), Chris Chiros (16:41), Ken Stachorek (16:46) and Duke Begy (16:48) in fifth through ninth. The Warriors' No. 4 and 5 runners took the next two spots.

On the home KLM course, Bayers, a junior, and sophomore David Chiros cut 50 seconds and 1:18, respectively, from their times at the season-opening Hornet-Red Devil Invitational Sept. 7.

Senior Ken Stachorek finished eighth in Hinsdale South's triangular with Willowbrook and Leyden Monday at Katherine Legge Memorial Park.

Meet since the Hornets, defending champ Downers South and Willowbrook were 5-1 in duals.

Downers South forfeited to Willowbrook Sept. 16 during the District 99 teachers' strike.

The Hornets have top-three conference finishes every year since 1979 but have never won a conference title.

With Saturday's Niles West Invitational title, the Hornets have won three invites, their most since 1981, when the team had injured and sick runners among its top five and only lost the conference crown by two points.

"The real icing on the cake would be if we can pull out that conference title we haven't pulled out," Hinsdale South girls coach Mike Madsen said. "It's just been a wonderful year. It's a great group and they're having a great time together and feeding off each other and the success we're having."

Nicole Johnson (19:02) and Andrea Dennison (19:05) finished first and second Monday, with Kathleen Carr (19:35), Danielle Mutters (19:36) and Violet Maka (19:57) third through fifth.

On Saturday, the Hornets won the Red Division at Niles West 54-70 over Camel (Ind.), Johnson (18:59.6) and Dennison (19:01) were sixth through eighth and Carr (19:27.5) and Maka (19:28.2) were 16th and 17th, followed by Laurie Sperlak (34th, 20:34.4), Amanda Swik (37th, 20:38.7) and Bridget Hayes (38th, 20:42.3).

The boys finished sixth (187 points), beating Hinsdale Central on sixth-runner tiebreaker Chris Chiros was 28th (16:17.3), followed by David Chiros (35th, 16:36.3), Perschke (36th, 16:36.7), Pat Soloria (42nd, 16:40.9), Bayers (49th, 16:51.5), Begy (65th, 17:13.2) and James Cao (75th, 17:42.1).

South's Gold title dreams denied by one point

By BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Hinsdale South senior girls cross country runner Andrea Dennison had a bad feeling once she crossed the finish line at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet Saturday at Willowbrook.

Unfortunately for the Hornets, she was right.

Hinsdale South put forth arguably its best team race of the year but hopes of the first conference title in program history came up agonizingly short as it was edged by Downers Grove South 28-29.

"It was upsetting. We were hoping for the title but one point. It was close," Dennison said.

"After I got into the chute, I saw (junior teammate Nicole Johnson) and then I saw three Downers girls in a row. When I saw those three in a row, I knew we lost. It's sad and all. It would have been really cool to take home the team title in my senior year and because it was the first time."

Hinsdale South freshman Danielle Mutters (19 minutes, 1 second for 3.0 miles), Dennison (19:04) and Johnson (19:13) were second through fourth, sophomore Violet Maka was eighth (19:29) and junior Kathleen Carr (20:05), sophomore Laurie Sperslak (20:11) and junior Bridget Hayes (20:52) 12th, 13th and 15th, respectively.

The top five runners for Downers South's team score were champion Melissa Malter (18:50) and in fifth, sixth, seventh and ninth place.

"I have nothing but great feelings for how the girls performed. We ran well. (Downers South) just ran better," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "Twenty-nine points is a remarkably low score. You're going to have a hard time finding somebody score that and only end up with a second place. It was just one of those things. They were just slightly better than us, just ever so slightly."

The Hornets also lost to the Mustangs by one point, 27-28, in their Sept. 30 dual. But since Downers South had a forfeit dual loss to Willowbrook, Saturday was a winner-take-all scenario among the three teams.

"It was devastating because we'd worked so hard.

The last two weeks we had been trying so hard to improve our times and then to lose by one — again — it was just unbelievable. Everyone was in tears, including myself," Sperslak said.

The Hornets still made history. All seven runners earned all-conference honors with top-16 finishes for the first time ever. They also extended their streak of top-three conference finishes that dates back to 1979.

Dennison, Johnson and Hayes also joined a group of only 10 Hinsdale South runners to earn all-conference honors at least three times. Sperslak, the other returnee from last year's Gold Meet lineup, earned all-conference honors after missing by two places in 2000.

South cross country

"We thought everyone had a chance to make (all-conference). It shows how much we've grown as a team," Dennison said.

Maka had the biggest breakthrough Saturday. She was injured most of her freshman season and finished 30th in the sophomore Gold Meet.

"I ran really hard this year, and it's exciting. I thought I'd probably get to 16 but not top 10," Maka said. "It was my best race because I prepared myself really hard and gave it my all. We went over ways to think positive during the race and it helped out a lot."

The Hornets need another strong race at the Lockport Regional at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 26 at Delwood Park. The top five teams advance to the Rich East Sectional Nov. 2, and four regional finalists are ranked among the state's top 12.

Fives were wild for the Hinsdale South cross country program at the Class AA Lockport regional meet Oct. 26 at Dellwood Park.

Both the Hornet girls and boys teams used fifth-place results to qualify for the Rich East sectional Saturday, Nov. 2, in Park Forest.

The girls posted a score of 110 behind Neuqua Valley (48), Naperville North (68), Naperville Central (74) and Lockport (75).

Freshman Danielle Mutters earned eighth-place honors after completing the hilly 3-mile course in a time of 19:08.

The field at the Lockport regional included four of the state's top-ranked teams. Running with company like that has boosted Mutters' confidence as the team looks ahead to sectionals this weekend.

"I feel confident for me and my team," Mutters said. "This was some of the best competition we've had, and I think we stayed with them."

Rounding out the Hornets' top five finishers were Nicole Johnson (16th, 19:30), Andrea Dennison (17th, 19:31), Kathleen Carr (34th, 19:59), Violet Maka (35th, 20:10) and Laurie Sperlak (41st, 20:47).

"I had said all along this week, 'Just get through,'" said Hinsdale South girls coach Mike Madsen. "We're happy as long as we move on to that next step."

The postseason only gets tougher for the Hornets as another pair of ranked teams — Sandburg and Lincoln-Way East — join the pack at sectionals.

"Ours is a very tough sectional," Madsen said. "We've got six teams in the top 12."

The boys squad (145) finished behind the same four schools as the girls, just in a different order. Lockport (46) claimed the crown, followed by Naperville North (59), Neuqua Valley (64) and Naperville Central (81).

Senior Chris Chiros (21st, 16:51) posted the Hornets' top result. Also contributing to the scoring were Pat Soloria (26th, 17:03), David Chiros (17:05), Jeff Bayers (31st, 17:09) and Sean Laude (40th, 17:40).

Academics, injuries, illnesses and the loss of a shoe were some of things that made a tough regional race even tougher for the boys team.

Duke Begy — normally one of the Hornets' top seven runners — was unable to compete because he was taking the ACT. Chiros managed to re-twist an already injured ankle during the race. His brother, David, ran with a calf injury. Carl Perschke, who had been the Hornets' top runner earlier in the season, was sick during the week leading up to regionals and finished as their sixth runner.

Ken Stachorek, who finished fifth for his team at the West Suburban Gold meet the previous week, was the Hornets' seventh runner at regionals. While traversing the course's steepest hill, Stachorek lost his shoe and had to finish the final 2 miles with one bare foot, cutting his heel in the process.

"I'm just glad we got through," said Hinsdale South boys coach David Jackson. "We kind of did it today with one hand tied behind our back."

Hornets' Mutters wows self with state trip

BY BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Hinsdale South freshman Danielle Mutters didn't get to compete at a state cross country state meet during her days at Cass Junior High School.

She hasn't wasted any time in high school.

Mutters became only the Hornets' second freshman to qualify for the Class AA girls state cross country meet after she finished 16th at the Rich East Sectional Saturday by covering the 2.95 miles in 18 minutes, 7 seconds.

Mutters, who ran for the sophomore team the first two weeks of the season, advanced by being among the seven highest-finishing individuals not among the five qualifying teams.

"This will be my biggest race yet so I'm excited," Mutters said. "At the beginning of the season, I was like, 'Wow, just varsity. That's so lucky. This is so cool.' And now it's like, 'Wow. I'm actually going to state for varsity.'"

Senior Andrea Dennison was 31st (18:34), followed closely by junior Nicole Johnson (33rd, 18:39), sophomore Violet Maka (37th, 18:42), junior Kathleen Carr (56th, 19:04) and sophomores Laurie Sperlak (80th, 19:40) and Megan Christenson (102nd, 20:28).

Mutters is the seventh Hinsdale South state qualifier and the only other freshman since Erika Coull-Parenty's first of four state trips in 1993.

"I couldn't believe I did that well," Mutters said. "I was shooting for top 20 — 16th is good. I found some energy to have that extra sprint, and I beat two out in the end."

As a team, the Hornets weren't as fortunate as they finished seventh in arguably one of the state's toughest sectionals with 166 points — a score that would have advanced at many other sectionals. Naperville Central edged Lincoln-Way East 121-131 for fifth place at Rich East.

"We really ran nicely as a group through the race. We had to count on a couple of (other teams) having a bad day and they just plain didn't," said Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen, whose team previously missed out on its first conference title by one point Oct. 19.

"It's been a great year. It seems to be the case in these big meets at the finish, we get close but not quite there. Fortunately, we have a lot of people that should potentially be back for next year."

Except for Dennison. The senior had high hopes of qualifying for state after missing an individual berth last year by 10 places and nine seconds. Stagg junior Jenny Czarlinski (21st, 18:22) got the last spot.

Dennison and Johnson were the ninth and 11th fastest individuals. Johnson was a 2001 individual state qualifier, yet her pace in this year's longer sectional race actually was faster.

"I'm not really upset with my race because I felt that I ran my best. I'm just upset my best wasn't good enough to make it," Dennison said.

"I didn't achieve one of the goals I wrote on my goal sheet. I dedicated everything. It's upsetting for me because I wanted to make it to state so bad. It's kind of changed my outlook, just because I put in so much work and it didn't pay off."

■ Lyons Township earned its fourth consecutive state trip, and Hinsdale Central got its second state berth in three years at the Niles West Sectional Saturday.

LT took third (116 points) with sophomore Lisa Bokios taking second (18:15 for 3.02 miles), followed by senior Ilsa Danielson (9th, 18:38), freshman Lauren Clark (35th, 19:16), senior Tristan Rackow (40th, 19:21), sophomore Emily Turk (43rd, 19:25), freshman Jessica Lee (46th, 19:29) and senior Maggie Mathieson (47th, 19:30).

Cross country

Hinsdale Central (118) was fourth, beating Oak Park on a sixth-runner tiebreaker. Senior Jordan Laney was 17th (18:49), followed by junior Maggie Barr (24th, 18:54), sophomores Jessica Roper (28th, 19:01) and Danyelle Somerfield (30th, 19:04), junior Mandy Letizia (31st, 19:07), sophomore Allison Kay (37th, 19:17) and junior Meghan Bates (82nd, 20:39).

Nazareth was 19th (515) with sophomore Lauren Gajkowski (66th, 20:03), junior Alison Zdarsky (106th, 21:34), sophomore Mary Kate Jackson (121th, 22:05), junior Christine Grogan (136th, 23:00), freshman Amy Vranicar (146th, 24:07) and senior Colleen Stiles-Shields (149th, 24:51).

■ Montini Catholic (Lombard) freshman Janet Kukulski of Willowbrook finished 71st (24:04 for 3.1 miles) at the Class A Lisle Sectional Saturday. The Broncos were ninth (214 points).

Mutters motors to state meet

Hornet freshman takes 16th

By David Good
Staff writer

Danielle Mutters joined an elite group of Hinsdale South cross country runners after her performance at the girls Class AA Rich East sectional Nov. 2 in Park Forest.

Mutters became only the second freshman girl in school history to advance to the state meet. She ran the 2.95-mile course in a time of 18:07 to claim 16th place. Mutters made the short list alongside former Hornet Erica Koull-Parenty who qualified for state as a freshman in 1993.

"I'm proud to be the second [freshman]," Mutters said.

"I couldn't believe I did as well as I did. I was shooting for the top 20. ... I found some energy in myself just to have that extra sprint and beat those two out at the end."

After taking fifth place at the Lockport regional the previous weekend, the entire team earned the right to compete at sectionals. The Hornets took seventh place with 166 points while Sandburg (45) won the sectional title.

Though the Hornets were unable to qualify for state as a team, Mutters hopes to serve as a worthy ambassador for the Hinsdale South cross country program Nov. 9 at Detweiler Park in Peoria.

"I'm trying to represent my school and show that Hinsdale South is not a little school, and that. ... we can compete with bigger teams," she said. "But individually, I just want to do my best and go for a good time."

Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said that Koull-Parenty, who qualified four state all four years as a Hornet, fared well in her debut appearance at the state meet. He is hoping for a similar outcome for his newest freshman phenomenon.

"That's a nice accomplishment for her," he said of Mutters qualifying for state. "We'll see how she does when we get down there. State is a big learning experience for kids, but she doesn't seem to be intimidated. I think she can be quite competitive down there."

Andrea Dennison (31st, 18:34), the Hornet girls' only senior at sectionals, came in behind Mutters. She was followed by Nicole Johnson (33rd, 18:39), Violet Maka (38th, 18:42), Kathleen Carr (56th, 19:05), Laurie Sperlak (80th, 19:40) and Megan Christenson (102nd, 20:28).

"We certainly hoped to have some more [runners advance], but it just didn't work out this time," Madsen said.

Hornet boys

Hinsdale South senior Chris Chiros saved his best for last.

Though Chiros did not advance to the boys Class AA state cross country meet, he left everything on the course in the final race of his high school career at the Rich East sectional Nov. 2 in Park Forest.

Finishing the 2.95-mile path in 23rd place with a 15:28 mark, Chiros was just six seconds behind the seventh and final individual qualifier.

"I knew it was going to be close coming down to the end, individually," Chiros said. "I'm disappointed, but I'm very happy with the way I ran. This was easily my best performance of the year. I just came up a few seconds short."

"It's been a good four years here [at Hinsdale South]. It's not the way I want to go out, but it's a way I can live with."

Chiros led the Hornets, who qualified for sectionals as a team after taking fifth place at the Lockport regional the previous weekend. At Rich East, the squad grabbed seventh place with 251 points. Naperville North (84) claimed top honors.

Sophomore Pat Soloria (51st, 15:57) was next for the Hornets, followed by Jeff Bayers (66th, 16:11), David Chiros (70th, 16:15), Jonathan Begy (73rd, 16:19), Ken Stachorek (79th, 16:25) and Karl Perschke (122nd, 17:15).

Hinsdale South's Mutters reaches goal at state meet

Freshman runs under 19 minutes

By Joe Yovino
Sports editor

She made it ... with time to spare.

As Hinsdale South's lone entry in this year's Class AA state cross country meet at Detweiller Park in Peoria Nov. 9, Danielle Mutters set a lofty goal for herself: Run a time under 19 minutes.

Mission accomplished.

The Hornet freshman ran to a 105th-place individual finish, covering the 3-mile course in 18:51.

"I did good," she said. "I was going more for a time than a place. My goal was to finish under 19 minutes and I did it. It's an awesome accomplishment."

Accompanied at the state meet by most of her Hinsdale South teammates, Mutters ran in the middle of the 250-runner pack for most of race. She turned on the after-burners in the final 500 yards to finish in the top-half of the state's top runners.

"Most of my teammates were here cheering me on,"

Mutters said, "and that took a lot of pressure of me.

"I had some butterflies in my stomach before the race," she added.
