year)
 • 2002 RESULTS: Second at West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet and second overall, fifth at Lockport Regional, seventh at Rich East Sectional

• RETURNING 2002 STATE QUALIFIER: Sophomore Danielle Mutters (105th place)

• OTHER RETURNING STARTERS: Seniors Nicole Johnson, Kathleen Carr, Bridget Hayes and Amanda Swik and juniors Megan Christianson, Violet Maka and Laurie Sperlak

• OTHER KEY RETURNES: Seniors Laura Gangichiodo, Christine Hoganson, Anneliese Mangrum, Nikki Rohner and Jodi Stalman

• TOP NEWCOMERS: Juniors Kelly Borek and Liz McLaughlin and sophomores Kim Johnson and Michelle Lackey

• OUTLOOK: The Hornets have a tradition of success, finishing among the top three teams in conference every season since the program's inception in 1979. But they've never won a conference title or qualified for the state meet.

With Mutters and Nicole Johnson, two of the only nine state qualifiers in program history, leading the way, the Hornets hope to add to their history under first-year head coach Jarman, who takes over for the retired Mike Madsen.

"The kids are very excited about the season. They're in good shape and there's a lot of good leadership, and we have some upperclassmen so it's nice," said Jarman (Esko), Madsen's assistant coach the past two seasons who was married Saturday in Kansas City. "A lot of them ran over the summer and got in shape for this season so I think that'll make a difference."

Last season, Mutters

Coull-Parenty as the only Hinsdale South freshmen to qualify for the state meet. Except for graduated Andrea Dennison, the Hornets' No. 2-3 runner last season, the rest of the postseason lineup also returns.

Nicole Johnson qualified for state in 2001, taking 119th, and missed another trip by just 12 places and 17 seconds at last season's sectional. This past spring, Johnson competed in outdoor track for the first time and earned all-state honors in the 800-meter run by taking eighth at the Class AA state meet.

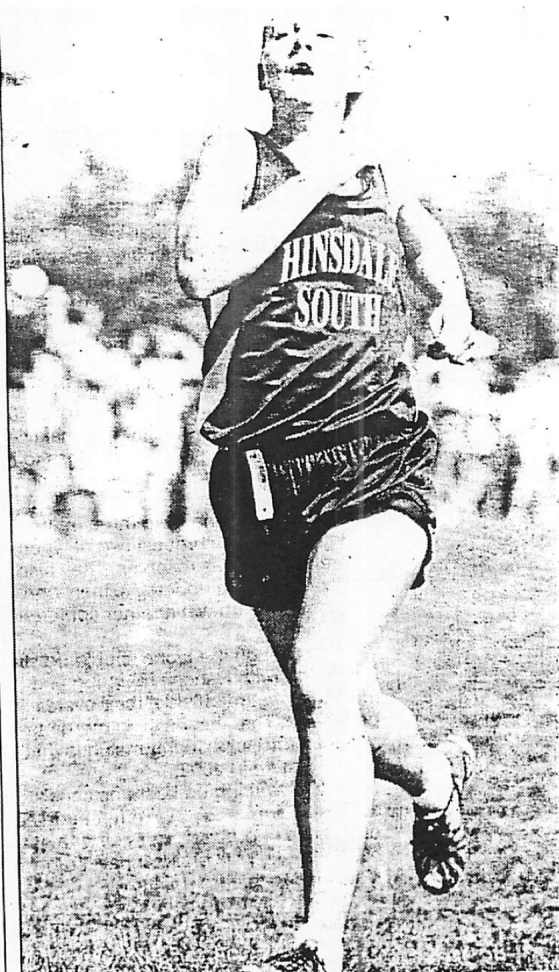

Hayes, Carr and Sperlak also have at least two years of postseason experience each. Maka, the team's No. 4 finisher at sectionals, Swik, also a soccer and basketball standout, and Christianson made their postseason debuts in 2002. Rohner, who was coming off a stress fracture last season, also saw postseason action in 2001.

Carr, Johnson and Gangichiodo are this year's team captains. Last week, 36 Hornets rode the train into Chicago and ran to North Avenue beach.

"We have great leadership," Jarman said. "In cross country, they did excellent (last season) and in track it was great winning the indoor and outdoor conference titles. They're a great group."

At last year's Gold Meet, Mutters (2nd), Johnson (4th), Maka (8th), Carr (12th), Sperlak (13th) and Hayes (15th) were all-conference with top-16 finishes. Johnson and Hayes have the opportunity to join only three Hornets who have been varsity all-conference all four years.

Swik won the junior varsity Gold Meet with Rohner (3rd), Gangichiodo (5th), Stalman (8th), Hoganson (9th), Mangrum (10th) also all-conference. Sophomore all-conference runners were Christianson (3rd), McLaughlin (8th), Lackey (13th) and Kim Johnson (15th) with Borek 17th.

The Hornets finished two places and 45 points from the last state-qualifying spot at the Rich East Sectional. They lost last year's Gold Meet and the overall title 28-29 to Downers Grove South after falling to the Mustangs 27-28 in their dual meet.

• QUOTABLE: "They were really upset about that (loss) so I think that's what they want to go for this year," Jarman said. "Our two goals are we want to have fun and we want to be successful. We've never won conference in the history of the school and we've never qualified for state as a team. We're looking at stuff like that and, if not that, definitely a couple of (individual state) qualifiers."

Mutters, seniors stride into Hornets' elite

Seniors Nicole Johnson and Bridget Hayes earned a date with history.

Although the Hinsdale South girls cross country team wasn't able to achieve all of its goals as a team after finishing second at the West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet Saturday at Willowbrook, many of the Hornets did individually.

Mutters became the program's first individual champion since Erika Coull-Parenty in 1996 by impressively winning the 3.0-mile race in 19 minutes, 28.4 seconds for a 15.9-second margin over Downers Grove South senior Amanda Kohler.

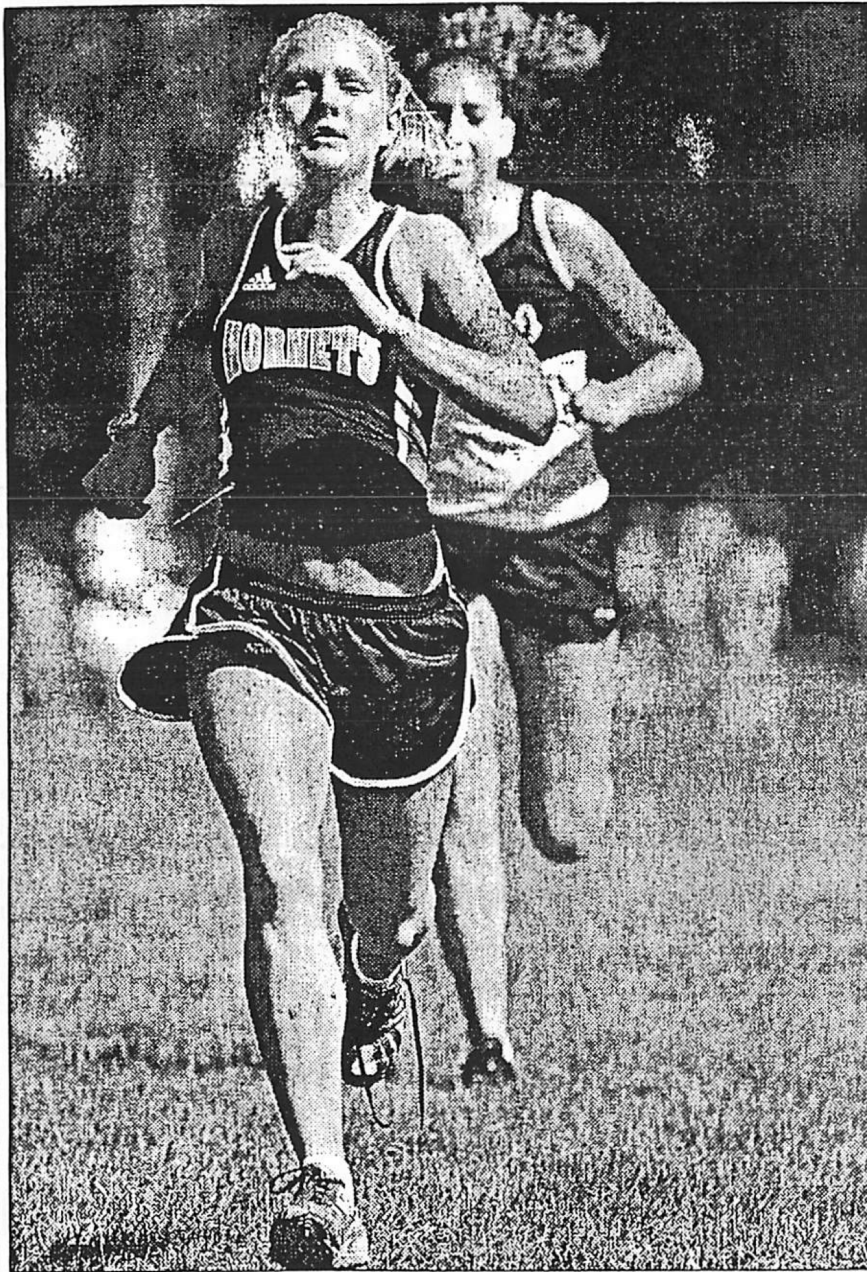

Mutters finished second by 11 seconds to graduated Downers South's Melissa Malter at the 2002 Gold Meet.

"Just winning it was a great experience and I'm hoping to do it again for the rest of my high school career," Mutters said. "I stiffened up. I got sore. I was hoping for under 19:00. (Kohler and I) were pushing each other the first mile and a half, two miles. It was kind of a game there, but then she dropped and I kept pulling away. It was a good motivator."

Senior Nicole Johnson (8th, 20:15.3), junior Laurie Sperlak (10th, 20:20.5), senior Amanda Swik (11th, 20:47.1), Hayes (12th, 20:58.7) and junior Megan Christenson (14th, 21:12.1) also earned all-conference honors by finishing among the top 16. Junior Violet Maka (17th, 21:42.3) was 22.2 seconds shy of the last spot.

Besides her victory, Mutters earned a spot on Hinsdale South's electronic message board for the first time since she qualified for the 2002 Class AA state cross country meet.

"It was up there for state last year so I got a picture of that too, which was pretty cool. It flashes, so you've got to have the camera ready," Mutters said.

2001), Coull-Parenty (1993-96) and Carrie Faber (1983-86).

While Johnson has been a top-10 finisher the past three years, Hayes had her highest Gold finish Saturday. Hayes was 16th in 2000 and 15th last year.

"It means a lot because so few people have done it. It felt good to cross the finish line, knowing I accomplished it," Hayes said. "This year I've worked harder so I felt like it would come more natural, but it was still hard work."

The Hornets, who needed to win Saturday for a share of the first conference title in program history, were second to Downers South 23-42 and second in the final overall standings. Still, the Hornets continued their streak of top-three conference finishes that dates to 1979.

Their focus is now on getting a top-five finish at the Lockport Regional Saturday, Oct. 25, at Dellwood Park to advance to the Bremen Sectional. Three regional foes are ranked among the top 17 teams in Class AA.

"We ran OK (Saturday)," Hinsdale South coach Lara Jarman said. "We would have liked to have done better, but we still had a lot of nice performances. We had six out of seven girls who were all-conference."

The multi-talented Swik joined cross country for the first time last season to help keep her active and in good shape for basketball and soccer. Saturday's all-conference effort added to her ones in those other two sports.

"I'm proud of them all. This one's a little different. We have our team goal and I have my individual goal and that's what I reached this time," Swik said.

"I was hoping to be a little better than last year because I did summer running. I think it's paid off. I'm glad it has because waking up every morning was tough and then I had to go

Mutters, Hornets feeling good about start

After qualifying for the girls state cross country meet last year as a freshman, Hinsdale South's Danielle Mutters already has a good feeling thanks, in part, to the benefits of summer training.

"I've learned my stride better. I've worked my arms better. Slowly I'm getting there," Mutters said. "Freshman year, I just came in off of soccer and I did good so then I decided why not keep practicing year-round and hopefully it would just help."

Mutters also feels many other good things coming after seeing herself and many teammates excel at Saturday's season-opening Hornet-Red Devil Invitational at Katherine Legge Memorial Park.

Mutters took 15th on the 3.0-mile course in 19 minutes, 32.1 seconds, followed by juniors Nicole Johnson (27th, 19:55.4) and Violet Maka (47th, 20:30.2) and decent packs by Amanda Swik (77th, 21:20.4), Kathleen Carr (78th, 21:20.9), Kim Johnson (82nd, 21:26.8), Bridget Hayes (86th, 21:44.7), Nikki Rohner (88th, 21:51.8) and Megan Christianson (94th, 21:59.9). The Hornets were eighth (226 points) out of 20 teams.

One encouraging sight was that several Hornets looked strong heading towards the finish line.

"I expect to see a lot of improvement over the next couple of weeks," first-year Hinsdale South head coach Lara Jarman said. "Obviously, we're not training to be the best at the beginning of the season. We want to be the best at the end. The girls just need to be patient. They need to know in the weeks to come they're going to get better and better."

"We didn't have a lot of goals for this race because we didn't really know where people were at. They ran this summer and they're doing well in their workouts. I think they have a lot to look forward to."

Besides Mutters, Nicole Johnson was a 2001 state qualifier and also has a strong summer base behind her. Several Hornets took part in Jarman's summer training program with Mutters and Johnson often pacing each other.

"Training with (Nicole) has been a lot of fun," Mutters added. "(On Saturday), the first mile we were together and I was like, 'This is great.' If she came in front of me, it would be helping the team so it would be good all around."

The Hornets have several returnees who want the program's first conference title after losing last year's by a point to Downers Grove South. And don't think that the first state team trip isn't on their minds also.

"We've been working hard to get where we are and we'll just keep doing it and you'll see us at state hopefully" Mutters said.

"I have a feeling this is going to be our conference year. Missing by one point last year was such a downfall but our team has gotten so many (runners) stepping it up that there's no way we can't. I'm feeling very positive about it. (We have) new uniforms, new warmups. It's a whole new us."

Devils' Somerfield wins

Hinsdale Central junior Danyelle Somerfield didn't just take advantage of her home course Saturday.

She dominated it.

Initially looking to break 19:00 in the season-opening Hornet-Red Devil Invitational, Somerfield ran 18:11.8 for a resounding 17.2-second victory.

Somerfield's first invite victory makes her only the third Hinsdale Central girls champion in the 23-year history of the Hornet-Red Devil, joining Antje Siems (1988) and Lynne Segreti (1984). The girls race was lengthened from 2.5 to 3.0 miles last year.

Cross country

"Wow. I'm real happy with how I finished," Somerfield said.

"I wasn't expecting very much, just trying really hard. This summer was real tough in training and I think that helped a lot. Before the race I felt drained because we did so much, but it disappeared when the gun went off. Hopefully that's something that's going to continue."

The Red Devils could not defend their invite title as Palatine (32 points) put six runners in the top 11, but they edged Naperville Central 81-88 for second.

The Red Devils complemented Somerfield with a pack of Megan Gleason (17th, 19:36.3), Jessica Roper (20th, 19:49.4), Maggie Barr (21st, 19:49.8) and Mandy Letizia (22nd, 19:50.2), followed by Molly Doyle (39th, 20:17) and Alaina Lasinski (65th, 20:56.4).

Jenny Laser's 20:00.6 earned second in the sophomore race.

Hornets just miss earning state berths

By BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Hinsdale South sophomore Danielle Mutters overcame the challenges of growing some six inches in one year to have another outstanding cross country season.

By not much more than that distance, Mutters just missed earning a return trip to the Class AA state meet Saturday.

Mutters was edged for what turned out to be the last individual qualifying spot at the Bremen Sectional at Midlothian Meadow.

The seven fastest individuals not among the top five teams advance to state from each sectional. Mutters was leaning and staggering into the chute as she finished 25th in a personal-best 18 minutes, 56 seconds, but Marian Catholic sophomore Jackie Stillman was just in front of her.

"It was close and then she just got a step or two in front of me. I just tried, gave it everything I could give it," Mutters said.

"It's all right. I'll just come back and kick everyone's butt next year."

The Hornets finished seventh (231 points), 108 behind fifth-place Lincoln-Way East. Mutters was followed by junior Violet Maka (35th, 19:17), senior Nicole Johnson (44th, 19:32), junior Laurie Sperlak (62nd, 19:53), senior Amanda Swik (88th, 20:33), junior Megan Christenson (89th, 20:34) and senior Bridget Hayes (97th, 20:55).

"We'd like to go to state (as a team). That's always going to be our goal," Hinsdale South coach Lara Jarman said. "A lot of the kids ran their best times of the year. (Mutters) wanted to be a state qualifier, but she was one place out of it, the closest you can possibly be.

Although she's upset, she has a lot to look forward to."

Mutters qualified for state in 2002 by taking 16th at sectionals. This year featured her first individual conference title and an undefeated dual season.

That and other success came despite her growth spurt from 5-feet to 5-6.

"It's been pretty rough on some of the workouts and at races because I've been having problems with my knees and stuff," Mutters said. "This season just helped me to be more motivated. Next year I'll have worked harder during the offseason. I'll be adjusted to the height so I'll be able to use my longer stride now for an advantage."

Johnson, an individual state qualifier in 2001, consoled Mutters after the sectional.

"I just told her it was her best time of the year and she's been running good and to just use this as fuel for next year because I'm sure she'll make it Downstate again," Johnson said.

Boys cross country

Just before the start of Saturday's Bremen Sectional, Hinsdale South junior Dave Chiros was approached by junior teammate Sean Laude.

"He just said that he really believed I could make it down (to state) and I had his full support and the whole team's. It just meant so much to me," Chiros said. "I thought he was just going to wish me good luck. After that, I kept thinking about what he said."

Chiros turned in an inspired race, finishing 27th (15:51) to miss an individual state berth for the seven top finishers not among the top five teams by nine places and 11 seconds. Senior Jeff Bayers was 70th (16:35) after being among the top 15 in the first half mile.

Chiros also started strong to put himself among the top 25 at the out-

"I'd definitely say it was one of the best efforts this season (I've had)," Chiros said. "I'm definitely going to keep this race in mind. I'm definitely going to think about it until the next sectional rolls around."

"David got out decently and hung there well and just missed qualifying," Hinsdale South coach Dave Jackson said. "Jeff laid it out, probably a little too fast early, and paid the price. But that's what happens sometimes. He sure did (try to qualify)."

• Junior Kevin Veselik of Willowbrook and Benet Academy (Lisle) got the first and final qualifying spot at the Niles West Sectional with 136 points, 40 ahead of sixth-place Oak Park. Veselik was 15:17 for 2.975 miles as the Redwing second finisher.

• In Class A, Montini Catholic (Lombard) was 10th (261 points) at the Lisle Sectional. Freshman Eric Bone of Darien (120th, 20:37 for 3.1 miles) was Bronco's sixth finisher.

Mutters experiencing growth on, off course

By David Good

Staff writer

Growth spurts and a mid-race spill weren't enough to keep Danielle Mutters from continuing her quest at the Lockport regional Oct. 25.

The Hinsdale South sophomore overcame adversity to complete the 3-mile course at Dellwood Park in a time of 19:40. The effort placed her 18th overall and led the Hornets back to sectionals with a fifth-place finish.

Now six inches taller than she was at last year's cross country regional meet, Mutters ran into some trouble midway through the race.

"We were in a turn and I got cut off and I fell," Mutters said. "I just had to get back up. It was hard because there were all these girls flying by and I had to get up and go catch them."

After leading Hinsdale South to first as a team in 2002, Mutters was intent on repeating the effort. As a freshman, she went on to qualify for state as an individual and she plans to continue that tradition throughout her high school career.

"It's pretty important," Mutters said of returning to state this year. "I made it as a freshman and I want to make it all four years. This year's the hardest. Last year was unstoppable. I grew like six inches this year. I don't know if I'm not use to my growth but something just doesn't seem right.

"It's going to take a lot of work at (sectionals). I'm going to really have to push because it's just not working right now whatever I'm doing. I'm going to have to change some things."

The Hornets collected 138 points to finish behind regional champs Naperville North (22), Neuqua Valley (56), Naperville Central (72) and Romeoville (134) to claim the fifth and final team qualifying spot.

Senior Nicole Johnson entered the chute in 19:51 for 23rd place. Laurie Sperlak (25th, 19:59), Megan Christenson (35th, 20:53), and Violet Maka all contributed to the scoring.

Rounding out the lineup were Bridget Hayes (39th, 21:08) and Amanda Swik (41st, 21:20).

Hornets send 2 to sectionals

While David Chiros was warming up for the Lockport regional boys cross country meet Oct. 25, he didn't have a concrete goal for what place he wanted to finish.

But a mile into the 3-mile course at Dellwood Park in Lockport, the junior heard his calling to finish in the top 20. He went on to capture 19th with a time of 16:48.

"I really didn't have a goal place-wise," Chiros said. "A little after a mile, one of the coaches from another team said his guy was in 20th place, so I said to myself, 'Try and stay in the top 20.' "

As a team the Hornets (150 points) took sixth, just missing the fifth final team qualifying spot. Naperville North (35) won the regional title, followed by Neuqua Valley (50), Lockport (74), Naperville Central (122) and Bolingbrook (127).

Though the entire team won't be competing this weekend, Chiros won't be alone. Senior Jeff Bayer will join him after taking 23rd in 16:50 at regionals.

Hinsdale South's other entrants were Sean Laude (33rd, 17:18), Lorenzo Lampignano (36th, 17:46), Alex Wright (39th, 17:46), Chris Lechner (40th, 17:51) and Eric Perschke (44th, 18:18).

The Hornet duo will travel to Bremen sectional in Midlothian Saturday, Nov. 1. The race is set to start at 11 a.m. at the Midlothian Meadows Forest Preserve.

South's Lampignano finds first at MINOOKA

BY BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Hinsdale South senior boys cross country runner Lorenzo Lampignano had a different but good feeling going into the Minooka Invitational Saturday.

Since the invite separates runners into seven flight races, Lampignano thought he could finish first for a change.

"There's four runners better than me on the Hornets and I know that I can't beat most of team. When I went into the meet (Saturday), I knew there was a good chance of winning and there was no one that was faster than me," Lampignano said.

"I just used that attitude to run faster."

Lampignano didn't just win the No. 6 flight but posted a personal-best time that helped the Hornets finish third with 20 points just behind Class A power St. Francis (17 points) and Marmion (18).

Senior Jeff Bayers had the Hornets' fastest time (16 minutes, 26 seconds) to take third in the No. 2 flight, juniors Dave Chiros (16:28 at No. 1) and Sean Laude (16:47 at No. 3) were fourth and Lampignano finished in 16:48.

Freshman Alex Wright (16:57 at No. 5) and senior Karl Perschke (17:02 at No. 4 flight) were third and junior Phil Gauthier was second in the No. 7 flight (17:19).

Lampignano rallied to

"At the end, I had something left in me and I really wanted to win so I passed (Darin) with 400 meters to go and kept sprinting," Lampignano said. "I saw that the first-place person (in the No. 6 flight at Minooka last year) ran 17:24 and I've been running like 17:14, so I knew I could easily beat last year's time. I just ran my hardest. I just felt good somehow."

The Hornets also felt good that they had a 31-second split among their top five finishers despite the flights. On Monday, they used another 31-second split in beating Downers Grove South 16-46 and Leyden 15-50 in West Suburban Conference Gold Division triangular action in Northlake.

Chiros (15:21), Bayers (15:22), Perschke (15:33) and Laude (15:37) swept the first four spots. Lampignano (15:52) and Wright (15:53) were sixth and seventh.

The Hornets face pre-season Gold favorite Willowbrook and Addison Trail Monday, Sept. 29, in Addison.

"Willowbrook has two runners running really well. We'll see what we can do," Hinsdale South coach Dave Jackson said. "We're not great, but we're running very well."

ence title were sidetracked by a big pack Monday.

While Danielle Mutters and Nicole Johnson took first and second place, Downers Grove South had the next six finishers and defeated the Hornets 25-33 in West Suburban Conference Gold Division triangular action in Northlake. The Hornets also defeated Leyden 15-50.

Since the overall title is a 50-50 combination of dual and conference meet standings, the Hornets still can share the crown by beating the Mustangs at the Gold Meet Oct. 18.

While Mutters (18:02) and Johnson (18:12) dominated Monday's race, the Mustangs' six finishers were between 18:14 and 18:50. The Hornets' Laurie Sperlak (19:09), Kim Johnson (19:24), Megan Christenson (19:25) and Bridget Hayes (19:30) were ninth through 12th.

On Saturday, the Hornets finished third (23 points) behind Minooka (12) and Andrew (18) at the Minooka Invite, which combines results from seven flight races.

Nicole Johnson had a third-place 19:46 in flight No. 2, and Mutters was fifth at No. 1 in 19:47. Other finishers were Violet Maka (3rd at No. 3, 20:23), Christenson (2nd at No. 6, 21:06), Hayes (4th at No. 4, 21:10), Kathleen Carr (3rd at No. 7, 21:19) and Kim Johnson (3rd at No. 5.

Hornets' Sperlak working way back

A lot of work and the right setting gave Hinsdale South junior girls cross country runner Laurie Sperlak a breakthrough race Monday.

Sperlak enjoyed her best race of the season as the Hornets beat host Willowbrook 21-40 and Addison Trail 15-50 in West Suburban Conference Gold Division action in Villa Park.

While the Hornets' Danielle Mutters (19 minutes, 35 seconds for 3.0 miles) and Nicole Johnson (19:48) were first and second, the fifth-place Sperlak (20:43) led a pack of seven straight Hinsdale South finishers that also included Violet Maka (20:55), Amanda Swik (20:56), Amanda Kuna (20:58) and Bridget Hayes (20:59).

"I love Willowbrook's course. I always seem to do well on that course," Sperlak said.

Better health also contributed. Sperlak is recovering from a strained medial collateral knee ligament suffered while playing summer soccer that sidelined her near the start of the preseason.

"I hope that it is (a breakthrough) and I'm finally getting back into shape after being inactive for about a month," Sperlak said.

"Compared to last year, it's a little off (for me), but I'm working at it. We're building up. We're all just trying to stay together, stay with the front-runners so we can come back and beat Downers South, hopefully, at the conference meet."

On Saturday, the Hornets were eighth in their first trip to the DuPage County Meet in Glen Ellyn (234 points). Mutters (20:00) and Johnson (20:06) were 31st and 38th on the 3.06-mile course, followed by Maka (44th, 20:35), Sperlak (58th, 21:22), Megan Bridget Hayes (66th, 21:49) and Kim Johnson (67th, 21:51).

Six teams that beat the Hornets are ranked among the top 15 in Class AA by Illinois Prep Top Times newsletter.

"We've run against teams of this caliber in a lot of our invitations, but we've never been in an invite with this amount. It's a good experience for the regionals and sectionals," Hinsdale South coach Lara Jarman said.

Mutters motors to Gold Division crown

By Dawn Parker
Staff writer

Presenting your new West Suburban Conference Gold Division girls cross-country champion ... Danielle Mutters.

Mutters, a sophomore, outraced the field Oct. 18 at the WSC Gold meet at Willowbrook to claim the title in 19:28.

It's her first title, after finishing second last year to Downers South's Melissa Malter.

"She knew what she wanted to accomplish," Hinsdale South coach Lara Jarman said. "She knew what she wanted to do at the starting line and she made it happen."

Mutters and senior teammate Nicole Johnson ran together early. Mutters then picked up a new running partner: the Mustangs' Amanda Kohler.

"[Amanda] gave me a run for my money," Mutters said. "We motivated each other for a good long time."

Mutters' run led the Hornets to second place in the WSC Gold meet with 42 points. Downers South won the meet with 23 points behind five runners in the top seven.

In all, six of Hinsdale South's top seven runners earned all-conference status.

Johnson came in eighth overall (20:15), followed by Laurie Sperlak (10th, 20:20); Amanda Swik (11th, 20:47); Bridget Hayes (12th, 20:58); Megan Christenson (14th, 21:12) and Violet Maka (17th, 21:42).

The Hornets move on to the Lockport Regional, set for 9 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 25, at Dellwood Park in Lockport.

The top five teams and top five individuals not on a qualifying team advance to the Bremen Sectional the following weekend.

"We will step it up another notch next Saturday," Jarman said.

Hinsdale South boys

Also at Willowbrook Oct.

18, the Hornets' star was eclipsed by a first-five showing from the host Warriors.

Willowbrook sewed up the conference title with 17 points for the conference meet, well ahead of the Hornets' 47. Downers Grove South rounded out the top three with 90 points.

"We ran OK," Hinsdale South coach David Jackson said. "Needless to say no matter how well we ran, we wouldn't have beaten Willowbrook."

After trailing the Warrior pack in the early going, David Chiros and Jeff Bayers stepped in the middle.

Chiros (16:45) and Bayers (16:48) came in fifth and sixth, respectively, on the 3-mile course.

Karl Perschke came in ninth overall (17:13), followed by Sean Laude (13th, 17:25); Alex Wright (17:26); Lorenzo Lampig (19th, 18:05) and P Gauthier (21st, 18:15).

Jackson was especially pleased with Wright's performance, as the freshman came into the meet suffering strep throat and mononucleosis.
