Vlcek provides fast medicine for Hornets

BY BILL STONE
SPORTS WRITER

Five days before Saturday's West Suburban Conference Gold Division Meet, Hinsdale South sophomore Lee Vlcek was told he couldn't compete because of a dislocated right shoulder.

Vlcek got a second opinion and, as a result, got a second chance to resume his cross country season.

Vlcek took full advantage by being among four Hornets who earned all-conference honors with top-16 finishes as one of their best performances of the season at their Katherine Legge Memorial Park home course earned second place.

Junior Alex Wright (15 minutes, 53 seconds for 3.0 miles) and Vlcek (16:04) were third and fifth to lead the Hornets. Sophomore Brian Denk (16:15) was 11th, seniors Rob McDonnell (16:51) and Chris Lechner (16:52) were 16th and 17th, and junior Patrick Carr and sophomore Brandon Hummer were 22nd and 23rd in 17:18.

Following Vlcek's first doctor visit, coach Dave Jackson personally contacted specialist Dr. Larry Lieber. Vlcek visited Lieber Oct. 18 and was cleared to compete.

"The (first) doctor said I'd be out for two weeks, which means I'd be out for regionals, too. It was looking pretty bad. (Lieber) said I should be fine to run with it," Vlcek said. "I couldn't move my arm that well. (But) I was pretty satisfied with my race. It hurt a little bit going up the hills, but I'm pretty much fine."

All but one of the Hornets on all four levels ran personal-best times at KLM. Still, the Hornets (52 points) were second and second overall because champion Downers Grove South (28 points) also had a great meet, placing six runners in the top 10.

"It was just a great effort by the whole team. They all ran well, but Lee, because of his condition, ran over and above," Jackson said.

Wright, who finished behind Willowbrook's Jesse Luciano (15:15) and Downers South's Ben Bouwman (15:22), was all-conference for the third time and Vlcek the second. Denk also contended for a top-five finish but fell back after a quick start.

"I tried to stay with (Luciano) and Bouwman too long," Denk said. "I finished within (seven) seconds of sixth place, where I should have finished. That was my goal."

McDonnell, a first-year cross country runner, unknowingly edged Lechner for the final all-conference spot.

"Being noted for all-conference, it's a good feeling. I know he's been doing it for four years so he kind of deserves it more, but I kind of didn't know exactly where he was," McDonnell said. "I heard my dad say someone was close behind me, but I didn't know who it was. I wanted that spot. I didn't want to take any chances."

Hinsdale South girls

Hinsdale South sophomore Paige Copeland is feeling a lot healthier — and a lot better after her performance at Saturday's Gold Meet at KLM.

After not competing since Sept. 19, Copeland finished a team-best 14th (20:33 for 3.0 miles) and earned all-conference honors for the second straight year with a top-16 finish.

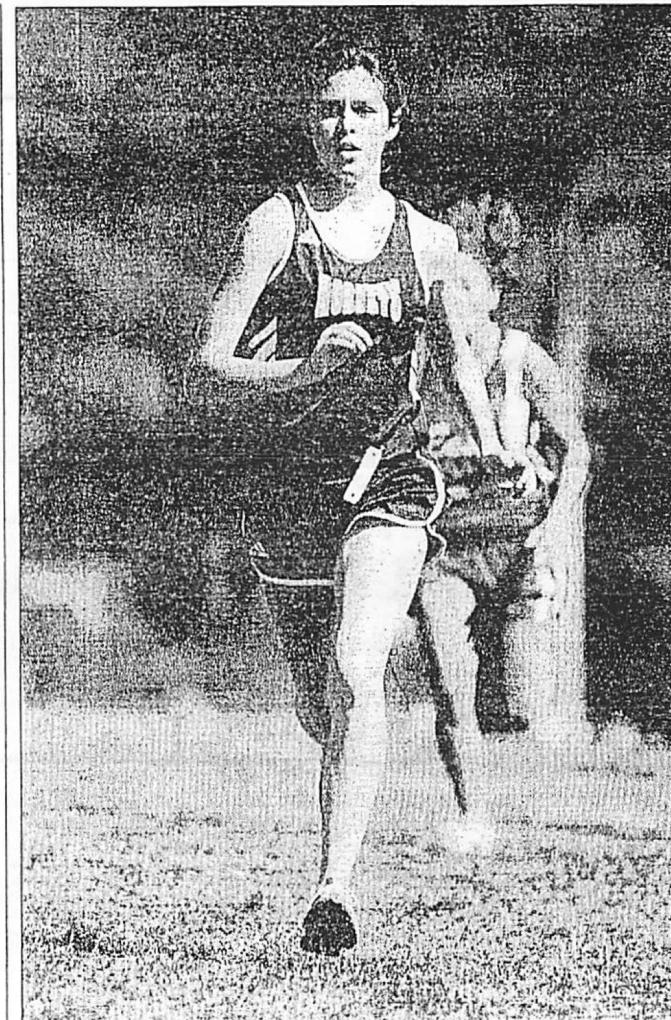

Copeland was suffering dizzy spells and passed out during her last race. She was cleared to resume practicing Oct. 5 after it was discovered that her blood pressure drops when she exercises.

"I have medication to raise my blood pressure, and I have to eat a ton of salt and drink a ton of water," Copeland said. "I was surprised I did pretty awesome. I didn't expect to get all-conference at all because I haven't run in a long time. I was dizzy, but I wanted to do good so bad that I was OK."

Junior Lydia Wentland (17th, 21:13) and sophomore Maggie Dayhoff (18th, 21:19) just missed the final all-conference spot. Freshman Amanda Gauthier (21:40) and seniors Kim Johnson (22:18) and Danielle Mutters (22:38) were 23rd, 29th and 32nd.

The Hornets finished fourth with 101 points, just three behind third-place Leyden, but they shared third with the Eagles in the final standings since they won their dual meet. That continues the Hornets' streak of top-three conference finishes every year since 1979.

Mutters, however, was unable to become the program's sixth runner to be varsity all-conference all four years. She fell near the creek at the 1.5-mile mark and severely injured her already ailing right ankle.

"I was really nervous because I had been having rough times with the ankle, but it was getting better. And mentally I was ready,"

South cross country

Mutters said. "I rolled my ankle, and it completely gave out and when I got back up, my ankle was throbbing and all of that stuff. I finished. It was a long race, though."

lost to host Willowbrook 15-50 but beat Addison Trail 21-37. Gauthier (21:11 for 3.0 miles) and Wentland (21:17) were ninth and 10th, and Dayhoff (21:50), Kim Johnson (22:00) and McGuire (23:34) were 13th through 15th.

Wentland steps up at Niles West Invite

As the Hinsdale South girls cross country team continues to battle injuries, junior Lydia Wentland just keeps on battling.

On Saturday, she enjoyed arguably her best race ever in leading the Hornets to seventh in the Red Division of the Niles West Invitational with 179 points.

Wentland was 23rd (20:47.7 for 3.0 miles), followed by freshman Amanda Gauthier (27th, 21:05.4), sophomore Maggie Dayhoff (44th, 21:50.6), seniors Danielle Mutters (46th, 22:00) and Kim Johnson (47th, 22:01.5) and sophomore Maddie McGuire (22:42.3).

"That was the fastest race I've ever run in my life. It was really cool," Wentland said. "I was going to try and stay up with Amanda. I was just going to go out and see what I could, and I did really good."

remain out. Copeland visited the doctor Tuesday in hopes of finding out more as to why she has been blacking out during races.

On Monday, the Hornets completed West Suburban Conference Gold Division action at 4-2 by beating Proviso East 15-50 at Katherine Legge Memorial Park. Gauthier, who won the 3.0-mile race in 21:36, Wentland (21:40), Mutters (22:14), Dayhoff (22:37), McGuire (24:32) and Ashley Johnson (26:17) swept the first six spots.
