The more things change the more they stay the same. The above statement perfectly describes the situation on the Hinsdale South girls cross-country team. Last year the duo of Erika Coull-Parenty and Liz Reese were one of the top 1-2 punches.

It is one year later, and Coull-Parenty and Reese are still one of the top 1-2 punches in the area as proved by their finish at the Hornet/Red Devil Invitational.

Coull-Parenty and Reese placed seventh and 17th, respectively.

"Liz was running injured this meet," Hinsdale South coach Mike Madsen said. "She bruised her tendon and Erica finished ahead of where she was last year. We need to develop our third through seventh runners to improve."

"The teams keep getting tougher and tougher," Reese said. "We just want to stay together and focus as a team on all our meets. We want to make it a good year. Today, I wanted to finish in the top 25, and I did that."

"I felt I could have done better," Coull-Parenty said. "The one thing I have to improve is my concentration during the race. I have to stay focused during the race."

In other action, Westmont's Chris Bailey won the Plainfield Invitational, while the Downers Grove North Trojans won the St. Charles Invitational.
